Time	From -> To	Message
Feb 18, 15:55:46	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Good evening everyone! We will begin the chat in about 5 minutes. We look forward to chatting with you soon! Feb-18 at 05:55:46 pm
Feb 18, 16:00:51	TulaneJordana -> Everyone	Hi, I'm Jordana! I'm from South Florida and I'm a sophomore studying Communications and Political Science. I spent my fall semester studying in Rome at John Cabot. On campus I'm involved in greek life, The Crescent Magazine, and a couple other clubs! I'm here to answer any questions you guys may have! Feb-18 at 06:00:51 pm
Feb 18, 16:00:51	TulaneJuliaE -> Everyone	Hi, I am Julia I am from NYC and I am a Sophomore now but went to Loyola first semester freshman year. Feb-18 at 06:00:51 pm
Feb 18, 16:00:52	TulaneJulie -> Everyone	Hi everyone, we're so excited to speak with you tonight and answer your Spring Scholars questions! Feb-18 at 06:00:52 pm
Feb 18, 16:00:54	TulaneBrandi -> Everyone	Hi! My name is Brandi, I'm a current freshman in the Business school my major is currently undecided. I am from Chicago and during the fall semester, I stayed in Chicago taking classes at my local college. Feb-18 at 06:00:54 pm
Feb 18, 16:01:02	TulaneAiyana -> Everyone	Hey guys! My name is Aiyana, I am a born and raised Louisianian from the Northshore! I am a sophomore here at Tulane majoring in Anthropology, my concentration in archaeology, with a minor in Psychology. I am also an active member in Tulane's theater department and also a member of the Baptist Collegiate Ministry. For my fall semester, I interned as a dental assistant with a Tulane Medical School Alum! Feb-18 at 06:01:02 pm
Feb 18, 16:01:03	TulaneSamF -> Everyone	Hi! My name is Sam, and I am a current freshman. I am from Philadelphia, and I spent my first semester in Paris. I am currently studying Anthropology, and I am excited to answer your questions. Feb-18 at 06:01:03 pm
Feb 18, 16:01:10	TulaneRep -> Everyone	Hi! Unfortunately, my login is not working but my name is Maddie and I am a Tulane Spring Scholar. I am a current freshman from Rockville, Maryland. Feb-18 at 06:01:10 pm
Feb 18, 16:05:38	TulaneClaire -> Everyone	Hi my name is Claire Metzger! I am a Sophomore who studied abroad in Rome for my first semester:) Feb-18 at 06:05:38 pm

Feb 18, 16:05:44	RebeccaBrodne -> TulaneJuliaE	Was it easy to make friends and integrate into Tulane when you didn't start until the Spring semester?
	TulaneJuliaE -> RebeccaBrodne	Yes! You are able to make friends through so many things at Tulane; through your classes, greek life, and clubs! Everyone at Tulane is so friendly and are so welcoming when you end up coming to Tulane! Feb-18 at 06:05:44 pm
	K -> TulaneJordana	What about rushing a sorority? Can you still do that spring semester? Feb-18 at 06:00:57 pm
Feb 18, 16:06:01	TulaneJordana -> K	Yes! As long as you meet the minimum credit requirement of 12 approved credits, and a GPA of 2.5, you will be able to go through recruitment! There is also a sped-up orientation in early January for people going through recruitment so that you still get to experience an orientation at Tulane. All recruitment at Tulane is in the Spring, so you aren't missing out on anything in the Fall. Feb-18 at 06:06:01 pm
Feb 18, 16:06:11	Annabella -> TulaneRep	Hi! My name is Annabella. I was wondering if the spring scholars students still take part in the TIDES courses or not. Thank You! Feb-18 at 06:03:59 pm
	TulaneRep -> Annabella	Hi Annabella! Yes, TIDES is a freshman requirement so you will participate in a TIDES course. Feb-18 at 06:06:11 pm
Feb 18, 16:07:16	MaxFellheimer -> TulaneJulie	I hear that it is difficult to get a bid from a fraternity as a spring scholar in past years because most pledge classes are already set. Have you had (or know somebody that had) a different experience than this? Thanks so much!
	TulaneJulie -> MaxFellheimer	Hi Max, we do have numerous Spring Scholar males who opt to join a fraternity in the spring. The ambassadors in this room have attested that nearly all of their male spring scholar friends who rushed got their first choice bid! Feb-18 at 06:07:16 pm
Feb 18, 16:07:31	Tessa -> TulaneBrandi	If I want to take classes at a local community college in California during first semester, how do I make sure that the credits will transfer? Feb-18 at 06:02:52 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Tessa	So you would need to reach out to the Tulane academic advisor her name is Shelby Wood and get your courses approved to make sure they transfer. I would highly recommend doing this before the local college's classes start. Feb-18 at 06:07:31 pm
Feb 18, 16:09:44	mlilyw -> TulaneJuliaE	thoughts on Loyola? Feb-18 at 06:05:52 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> mlilyw	I think that all of the programs Tulane offers are amazing but for me, an important factor was to be in New Orleans so that is why Loyola was the right choice for me! Feb-18 at 06:09:44 pm
Feb 18, 16:09:45	Matts_Mom -> TulaneJulie	This is mIchelle. My son Matt is a senior and was accepted to the Spring Scholars Program. we are heading to Tulane in March to learn more Feb-18 at 06:02:38 pm

	TulaneJulie -> Matts_Mom	Can't wait to see you then! We already have over 100 students signed up Feb-18 at 06:09:44 pm
Feb 18, 16:09:54	BigManJoe -> TulaneSamF	How has the transition from highschool to college been for each of you guys individually? Feb-18 at 06:03:15 pm
	TulaneSamF -> BigManJoe	My transition to Tulane from highschool was seamless. Tulane does a great job in accommodating all Spring Scholars in the process to make it simple and easy. Through TIDES courses, and spring orientation events, the transition was great. Feb-18 at 06:09:54 pm
Feb 18, 16:10:02	Amanda -> TulaneEmily	In your spring semester, did you room with another freshmen? Feb-18 at 06:04:02 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Amanda	Yes! I ended up doing the random roommate selection when I came back to Tulane, and I am in a Freshman dorm with another freshman. This is not necessarily guaranteed, but they try to do their best! Feb-18 at 06:10:02 pm
Feb 18, 16:10:05	DB -> TulaneAiyana	Was it hard joining Tulane during the middle of fresh year? behind in academics? Feb-18 at 06:03:57 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> DB	The Spring Scholar program has a lot of programs and activities that help you connect with other Spring Scholars which definitely makes the transition a lot easier! Tulane also has a variety of clubs and freshman activities that will allow you to meet more people! My closest friends are actually from orientation. If you want to graduate in May with the other freshman, you only have to take one my class than the average student! I've taken 18 credit hours each semester and I am easily on track with other students! Your academic adviser will also help you every step of the way! Feb-18 at 06:10:04 pm
Feb 18, 16:10:43	BigManJoe -> TulaneJordana	Should I join a frat? Feb-18 at 06:06:21 pm
	TulaneJordana -> BigManJoe	Joining a fraternity can be a great outlet to meet people, but there are plenty of other ways (professional frats, clubs, etc.) to meet people. It totally depends on the person and what they are interested in. You can also join as a sophomore if you want to transition to campus first and see what its like! Feb-18 at 06:10:43 pm
Feb 18, 16:11:07	Harris -> TulaneRep	I have a question about transferring credits from John Cabot. If I take a Tulane-approved course, is it a complicated process to transfer the credit from John Cabot to Tulane? What is the process? Thank you. Feb-18 at 06:06:06 pm
	TulaneRep -> Harris	Hi Harris! Tulane gives a list of approved courses to choose from so there is no complicated process when the credits transfer. - Maddie Feb-18 at 06:11:07 pm

Feb 18, 16:12:06	Amanda -> TulaneClaire	What is TIDES? Feb-18 at 06:06:55 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Amanda	Tides is a class that Freshman take. There are many different options of "TIDES" classes and they are designed as a sort of introductory course to Tulane! I took a business tides class which helped me adjust as a business major. They are super fun, and low stress. Feb-18 at 06:12:06 pm
Feb 18, 16:12:13	mlilyw -> TulaneJuliaE	Can you use any of the Tulane facilities if you're at Loyola? Feb-18 at 06:09:36 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> mlilyw	You can use the dining facilities and the common areas. Feb-18 at 06:12:13 pm
Feb 18, 16:13:01	MK2 -> TulaneAiyana	Do Spring Scholars need to fill out a housing application for the Spring. And if so, when? Feb-18 at 06:08:31 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> MK2	Yes! It opens November 1st, you will be receiving emails the closer it gets to that date. Feb-18 at 06:13:01 pm
Feb 18, 16:13:02	Mike_P -> TulaneBrandi	What would you say was the most challenging part of starting Tulane in the Spring semester? Feb-18 at 06:08:08 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Mike_P	I would say figuring out where all your classes are on campus and figuring out how to use all the resources around you but there is plenty of people to help and support you! Feb-18 at 06:13:02 pm
Feb 18, 16:13:44	Matt -> TulaneClaire	What are the advantages of being a Spring Scholar? Feb-18 at 06:09:37 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Matt	One advantage that not many people know about is that spring scholars get first priority of selecting classes for the spring semester! It is SUPER helpful! Feb-18 at 06:13:43 pm
Feb 18, 16:13:58	Katie -> TulaneEmily	Was it easy to request to room with someone that you met during fall study abroad for the spring semester at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:09:36 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Katie	Yes it is super easy! You will get an email during your fall semester to fill out your housing application and majority of people who requested roommates got their first choice, but this is not guaranteed. Feb-18 at 06:13:58 pm
Feb 18, 16:14:56	jrmckellar -> TulaneJordana	For those of you that studied abroad in Rome, what are the different housing options like? Feb-18 at 06:09:25 pm
	TulaneJordana -> jrmckellar	There are three options: Gianicolo, Trastevere, and Lungara. They all have different pros/cons! For example, Trastevere is a bit further from campus but it has more of social life and is above a grocery store. Gianicolo is a bit nicer but isn't near a grocery store. Lungara is right across from the library. Trastevere seems to host the most Tulane students. These apartments consist of at least 6-7 people with multiple rooms, bathrooms, and kitchens. Feb-18 at 06:14:56 pm

Feb 18, 16:15:51	BenP -> TulaneSamF	For those who studied abroad your first semester, where did you live? (dorm, with a family, house?) Feb-18 at 06:06:25 pm
	TulaneSamF -> BenP	The American University of Paris works with a company called BlueStripe which places you in real apartments throughout the city. The living situations are great and close to campus. It is not a dorm, but you will be placed with other Tulane/Partner students. Feb-18 at 06:15:51 pm
Feb 18, 16:17:25	carol -> TulaneJulie	Can I get in touch with some of the students going to London. Maybe possible roommates? Feb-18 at 06:06:39 pm
	TulaneJulie -> carol	Hi Carol, since London is a new program for Tulane for fall 2020 we haven't had any students attend there yet. However, partner universities such as USC, Northeastern and NYU do send students there so it is a vetted program. We will have a Dean from Richmond at the 3/12 visit day to ask questions in person, but specific London questions can go to Camille Brewster (brewstc@richmond.ac.uk) Feb-18 at 06:17:25 pm
Feb 18, 16:17:45	Katie -> TulaneClaire	Is there an easy way to see what the Tulane-approved courses are for each of the study abroad options? Feb-18 at 06:12:42 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Katie	The list for Tulane-approved classes for each of the study abroad options changes each year so Tulane will email you with the list of the pre-approved courses for your selected study abroad option! Once you get the list, I would personally suggest seeing which of the courses are also Newcomb Tulane Requirments because I was able to complete many Newcomb Tulane requirements during my first semester abroad in Rome. You can view the Necmob Tulane Requirments on the Tulane website. Feb-18 at 06:17:45 pm
Feb 18, 16:18:00	Maddie -> TulaneBrandi	Would you say the spring scholars students integrate well with the other freshman students who started in the fall when the second semester begins or do spring scholars students mostly hang out with other spring scholars Feb-18 at 06:13:35 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Maddie	I feel like they integrated us really well and I definitely formed friendships through the spring semester orientation. I also formed friendships outside of spring scholars through clubs, classes, and even people on my dorm room floor. Feb-18 at 06:18:00 pm
Feb 18, 16:18:05	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone - we're getting a lot of questions about spring scholars attending Loyola, so we just wanted to clarify. In the past, spring scholars have been able to spend their fall semester at Loyola. We're no longer partnering with Loyola New Orleans, so instead we strongly recommend our abroad options, studying at a local/community college, pursuing a job or internship, etc. However, if a student is still interested in applying to Loyola for the fall semester only, they should contact Loyola specifically about applying as a visiting, non-degree seeking student for the semester. Thanks! Feb-18 at 06:18:05 pm

Feb 18, 16:19:05	hanna -> TulaneJulie	Can you talk a little bit about the housing situation once we get back to Tulane in the spring? :) Feb-18 at 06:06:31 pm
	TulaneJulie -> hanna	You will be able to fill out the housing application beginning November 1st. You're guaranteed to have on-campus housing until the end of sophomore year, just like fall-starting students. This year, Housing allowed students to either choose their dorm OR their roommate Feb-18 at 06:19:04 pm
Feb 18, 16:19:07	Annabella -> TulaneJuliaE	I am spending my first semester at Loyola. Did you find it was easy to make friends in the area both from Loyola and Tulane? And how did you find staying in NOLA before coming onto Tulane's campus? Did you feel isolated or left out? Feb-18 at 06:13:23 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> Annabella	It was amazing to be down in New Orleans and to be able to get acclimated to the community before starting classes at Tulane. I was able to meet great people and experience the amazing city. I was able meet really nice people in my classes, and also through the organizations when I joined Tulane but it has to be the right choice for you because you do have to be outgoing and it is not as easy to meet people. Feb-18 at 06:19:07 pm
Feb 18, 16:20:45	Chad_Billionaire -> TulaneSamF	Does Tulane accept LGBTQTS students well? Feb-18 at 06:10:38 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Chad_Billionaire	Tulane is very accepting of their LGBTQ Community. The University is very proactive and makes it an immense effort in creating a supportive environment. There are tons of clubs, and ways to get involved on campus regarding LGBTQ issues. Plus, New Orleans is an amazingly diverse city with lots of LGBTQ culture. Feb-18 at 06:20:45 pm
Feb 18, 16:21:21	carol -> TulaneJulie	How do I meet with my advisor to find out what classes I can take in London? Feb-18 at 06:09:03 pm
	TulaneJulie -> carol	The London classes are currently being pre-approved by our faculty. We already have a skeleton list of what will be approved and can share that likely on March 12th. Once those are available, you can reach out to our TU academic advisor Shelby Wood (swood7@tulane.edu) to discuss what to take Feb-18 at 06:21:21 pm
Feb 18, 16:22:05	Sami -> TulaneEmily	Do most spring scholars who attend Loyola live in the dorms or in houses off-campus? Feb-18 at

		06:14:33 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Sami	You do have the option to live in Loyola dorms, but most people choose to live in off-campus housing that they usually sublet from Juniors who go abroad. Feb-18 at 06:22:05 pm
Feb 18, 16:22:16	Noah_I -> TulaneJordana	Any thoughts on Rome vs. Paris as the semester away? Favorite differences or reviews of either? How many Tulane students were in your program? Feb-18 at 06:16:20 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Noah_I	I was in Rome. What I loved about it was that there were SO many Tulane students and almost all of us knew each other, which especially helped when transitioning onto Tulane's campus in the Spring. There were over 60 of us in Rome. We were also in classes with a lot of Tulane kids, but also from USC, Delaware, and Northeastern so we got to meet so many people. Also, Rome was great because it was super easy to get to other cities and countries. I was able to take quick trains all throughout Italy, and fly to other countries as well. Rome felt really safe, still had a fun side, and the university itself prepared me well for Tulane. Feb-18 at 06:22:16 pm
Feb 18, 16:22:35	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone - we're also getting a lot of questions about transferring credits in from other universities. While we cannot pre-screen credit earned at another college for transfer approval, if you provide us with proof of enrollment in the course(s) by sending an unofficial transcript and course syllabi to crediteval@tulane.edu , we will be able to tell you if it is likely the credit will transfer. Transfer credits are evaluated by each department. While we can't guarantee that all classes will transfer, we recommend you consider taking courses in one of the following subjects. Feb-18 at 06:22:35 pm
Feb 18, 16:24:32	Elissa -> TulaneJuliaE	Are we allowed to use the Reilly Center at Tulane as Loyola attendees? Feb-18 at 06:21:21 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> Elissa	Yes, but you have to pay for a membership. Feb-18 at 06:24:32 pm
Feb 18, 16:24:35	Chad_Billionaire -> TulaneAiyana	What organizations do you recommend joining? Feb-18 at 06:19:53 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Chad_Billionaire	It depends on your interests, which Tulane has an array of organizations for many interests. I am a part of club soccer, Tulane University Performing Arts Society and also the Baptist Collegiate Ministry. Basically, there will mostly be an organization that supports your interests and if not you can always create one! Feb-18 at 06:24:35 pm
Feb 18, 16:24:36	thaddeaus_rigby -> TulaneBrandi	Do you hardly enjoy most of your professors? How are they at teaching classes at Tulane University? (Where I want to attend!) Feb-18 at 06:14:32 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> thaddeaus_rigby

		I currently enjoy all of my professors, I feel like they are really good at teaching and making sure that we understand the material. Even if I may struggle in class office hours are always available and most of my classes have at least one TA that I can ask questions to. Also, my professors always answer emails quickly! Feb-18 at 06:24:36 pm
Feb 18, 16:24:46	Dani -> TulaneClaire	What are the advantages and disadvantages of studying abroad first semester, and how does that compare to studying abroad during your sophomore or junior year at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:19:02 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Dani	Studying abroad first semester is an incredible experience and a great way to fully immerse yourself into the college experience. I found that it was a great way to transition into college life through an amazing and unique experience, additionally I met some of my closest friends because travel truly does bring people together. Studying abroad in your junior year or sophomore year is different as you are older and more mature, however, I believe that both experiences abroad will be great and unique in their own way. Feb-18 at 06:24:46 pm
Feb 18, 16:24:49	Annabella -> TulaneJulie	If I wanted to join the Tulane Shockwave dance team, will I still have an opportunity to do so as a spring scholar or will I have to wait until my sophomore year to try out? Feb-18 at 06:09:35 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Annabella	You can definitely join Shockwave! To be honest, I'm not sure, but I know one of our ambassadors Emilie Brown (who couldn't be here tonight) is on the team. Feel free to email her at ✉ebrown32@tulane.edu https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/ambassadors/emilie-brown ; Feb-18 at 06:24:48 pm
Feb 18, 16:25:29	carol -> TulaneJulie	I thought Loyola is not an option for Spring Scholar??? Feb-18 at 06:13:45 pm
	TulaneJulie -> carol	It is an option, but it is not a formal partnership as it was last year. Students would need to apply as a visiting/non degree seeking student and work with Loyola to do so Feb-18 at 06:25:29 pm
Feb 18, 16:26:08	Tessa -> TulaneJulie	Any recommendations on scholarships? Feb-18 at 06:16:16 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Tessa	All of the Tulane scholarship deadlines have passed, but our Financial Aid office accepts any outside scholarships you earn that are not from another university. They often recommend fastweb.com for these scholarship opportunities Feb-18 at 06:26:08 pm
Feb 18, 16:26:12	hanna -> TulaneJordana	Is it true that a lot of spring scholars room with upperclassmen when they get to campus in the spring or is it usually with another spring scholar? Thanks! Feb-18 at 06:17:26 pm

	TulaneJordana -> hanna	You get to request a roommate and they will try to accommodate your wishes, but nothing is guaranteed. This year, students were given the choice to either choose their dorm or their roommate. The 2018-2019 year it seemed pretty mixed; some of my friends were with upperclassmen in suites, and some were with other freshmen. I was in Sharp with another freshman, not a spring scholar. But it seems like this year most of the spring scholars are currently living with other spring scholars. Housing and Residential Life does their best to put freshman with what they ask for, but it all depends what is available and so nothing is guaranteed. Feb-18 at 06:26:12 pm
Feb 18, 16:27:36	K -> TulaneRep	If studying abroad are you "set up" with other spring scholars to travel? Room with? Etc Feb-18 at 06:16:43 pm
	TulaneRep -> K	Hi! There are no Tulane specific trips. John Cabot University hosts a week-long orientation when you first arrive so you meet many Tulane Spring Scholars in that first week. John Cabot University also plans trips where you can travel around Italy. In regards to roommates, John Cabot University guarantees that there will be one Tulane student in your apartment. You can also request one roommate who is a Tulane Spring Scholar on your housing application. - Maddie Feb-18 at 06:27:36 pm
Feb 18, 16:27:45	Rebecca -> TulaneJulie	Do you have to go through a separate admissions or application process to participate in one of the Study Abroad programs? Feb-18 at 06:17:33 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Rebecca	Yes, you'd need to apply via the links on this page: https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/opportunities Each program has a different application as they are unique universities. While admission is not guaranteed, it is rare that our students are not admitted to these programs. While they don't have hard deadlines, I recommend applying to them no later than May 1st which is Tulane's hard deposit deadline Feb-18 at 06:27:45 pm
Feb 18, 16:27:52	Dani -> TulaneJordana	Does everyone rush in the spring, or only spring scholars? Feb-18 at 06:27:18 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Dani	Everyone goes through recruitment in the Spring! It is always in early January for everyone. Feb-18 at 06:27:52 pm
Feb 18, 16:28:30	Noah_I -> TulaneSamF	Any thoughts on Rome vs. Paris as the semester away? Favorite differences or reviews of either? How many Tulane students were in your program? Feb-18 at 06:16:20 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Noah_I	I am biased towards Paris, but I think it depends on what city you are interested in. I knew I wanted to go to Paris, so I went regardless of it being the smaller program. My program had 12

		Tulane students, but we were a close group. Paris is a massive city with so much to explore, so if you're an independent person, I think it is a great option. Feb-18 at 06:28:30 pm
Feb 18, 16:28:59	Julia -> TulaneClaire	what are the timelines for registering for abroad study? Feb-18 at 06:21:17 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Julia	There is not a hard deadline, but we recommend applying by around May 1st the latest. Feb-18 at 06:28:58 pm
Feb 18, 16:30:00	Harris -> TulaneAiyana	Can I participate in club soccer spring semester at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:26:08 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Harris	Yes you can! Most club sports have two options, either you just practice with the team or pay an addition fee to be considered and participate in club games. Spring Semester will be slightly different from Fall and not involve as many league games, but you can definitely participate and get some time on the field! Feb-18 at 06:30:00 pm
Feb 18, 16:30:34	Julia -> TulaneJordana	for students wanting to do abroad study.. is there transparency as to which country students are preferring? Feb-18 at 06:27:51 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Julia	This is the first year that London is an option so the numbers will probably be more evened out, but in the past, there were more students in Rome than Paris. The Spring Scholar preview day in March is a great opportunity to meet people and see where they are thinking of going. Feb-18 at 06:30:34 pm
Feb 18, 16:30:54	Matts_Mom -> TulaneJulie	We are heading to Tulane on March 12th. what info will we receive on that day and will we meet other spring scholars? Feb-18 at 06:22:11 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Matts_Mom	Our director Jeff will give the opening speech, then a campus tour and brunch with ambassadors and other prospective Spring Scholars. Then, we have a SS Ambassador student panel and abroad presentations by Rome, Paris and London with Q&A after! Feb-18 at 06:30:54 pm
Feb 18, 16:31:22	BenP -> TulaneRep	Has anyone ever studied abroad in a country where they do not know the language? If so, any complications? Feb-18 at 06:14:08 pm
	TulaneRep -> BenP	Hi Ben! I did not speak Italian when I first arrived in Rome. You do not need to know the language but I would recommend taking a language course while studying abroad. Taking Italian made me feel more connected with the culture and the people around me! - Maddie Feb-18 at 06:31:21 pm
Feb 18, 16:32:43	JK -> TulaneBrandi	Do you know how many spring scholars will attend London vs Paris vs Rome? Feb-18 at 06:29:53 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> JK	Many students haven't made their decision yet but the March 12th date is a good opportunity to ask people in person! Feb-18 at 06:32:43 pm

Feb 18, 16:35:49	Annabella -> TulaneJuliaE	For anyone who decided to do Loyola for the first semester, were there any particular disadvantages? Feb-18 at 06:28:56 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> Annabella	The one thing that I would say was a disadvantage would be that you are not able to always to be on Tulane's campus so you might feel isolated at some points. Looking back though, this was not something that makes me wish I didn't go to Loyola. If I had to choose again, what program to do, I would 10/10 times choose to go to Loyola. Feb-18 at 06:35:49 pm
Feb 18, 16:36:12	Julia -> TulaneEmily	How is the settling in process once you get to the university abroad- bedding, towels, etc... Feb-18 at 06:24:46 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Julia	For my fall semester I went to Rome, and the school provided us with towels and bedding. There are pharmacies and little stores everywhere that sell stuff to help you make your room feel more homey! I would highly recommend bringing one set of sheets from home just because it was nice to have!! Feb-18 at 06:36:12 pm
Feb 18, 16:36:20	Savanah -> TulaneJordana	If I already filled out the housing application for Rome, can I still request a roommate if I meet someone in March? Feb-18 at 06:34:05 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Savanah	I would email the representative Lauren Rice because she would be able to give a more definite answer for this! There may be a way to go back into your housing portal. Emailing someone that works with John Cabot would be your best bet. Feb-18 at 06:36:20 pm
Feb 18, 16:37:04	thaddeaus_rigby -> TulaneSamF	This one is for Sam. How is the culture towards LGBT students at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:27:27 pm
	TulaneSamF -> thaddeaus_rigby	I have found the culture to be a very supportive environment. I have not encountered any sort of discrimination while being on campus, and the LGBT presence on campus is very strong. I would never feel scared about being LGBT at Tulane, but instead, excited to contribute to its vibrant community. Feb-18 at 06:37:04 pm
Feb 18, 16:37:05	Cameron_Nifoussi -> TulaneAiyana	Is it harder to double major than it would be for a fall semester student to do so, when you get to Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:32:35 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Cameron_Nifoussi	Double majoring does require more strict time management, but is totally achievable! A third of Tulane students double major and since 120 credits are required to graduate, its quite manageable over 7 semesters at Tulane. Feb-18 at 06:37:05 pm
Feb 18, 16:40:19	K -> TulaneJordana	As a parent I'm thinking about the study abroad option but not being familiar with the areas I am nervous. Do they have representatives that meet you at the airport when you arrive? Feb-18 at 06:37:28 pm

	TulaneJordana -> K	I totally understand being nervous, but I was very comforted upon arrival! There are some group flights, but I flew completely alone from Miami to Rome. When I arrived, a representative met me and a bunch of other kids, and we were all bussed to campus together. Feb-18 at 06:40:19 pm
Feb 18, 16:40:43	Zane -> TulaneJulie	I heard there are different housing groups based on personal interests. How can I find out more about registering for a dorm community? Feb-18 at 06:35:21 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Zane	Yes, there are residential learning community opportunities by Housing. I do not believe that Spring Scholars can join one as a freshman due to limited Housing constraints since RLCs are focused in certain dorm floors. However, Spring Scholars may join RLCs as a sophomore! Feb-18 at 06:40:43 pm
Feb 18, 16:41:20	Nicole -> TulaneClaire	While studying abroad, do you get a good sense of community in terms of being with other Tulane Spring Scholars? Do students generally share classes or living quarters with at least a few other Tulane students? Feb-18 at 06:38:05 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Nicole	100% yes! I studied abroad in Rome for my first semester and I lived with 3 other girls from Tulane and almost all of my classes had Tulane students in them. I definitely feel like I know everyone from Tulane who studied abroad in Rome during my time abroad. It is something that brought us all together and continues to bring us closer now at Tulane. Feb-18 at 06:41:19 pm
Feb 18, 16:42:55	Katie -> TulaneBrandi	What areas should I visit right near campus during my next campus visit? Are there some good places to eat and shop? Feb-18 at 06:36:35 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Katie	I love eating at Dat dog which is on Freret Street, they have really good hotdogs and always have fun events. There are also some really cute shops on magazine street that I like to go to and get souvenirs or clothes. Feb-18 at 06:42:55 pm
Feb 18, 16:44:39	Reade_H -> TulaneClaire	Hi! I am planning on pursuing engineering in the Spring and I am trying to decide if I should study abroad or not. Do any of the programs offer math or science courses? Feb-18 at 06:38:58 pm
	TulaneClaire -> Reade_H	I studied abroad in Rome at John Cabot University during my first semester and needed to take calculus to put me on track to study business at Tulane. While the course itself was challenging, I did get the credit that I needed and was able to be on track to study business! As the pre-approved course lists come out for each abroad program, you will be able to see what science and math classes are offered at the respective universities. Feb-18 at 06:44:39 pm

Feb 18, 16:45:02	Maxwell_Levy -> TulaneJordana	Are you still friends with the people you met when you went abroad? Feb-18 at 06:42:56 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Maxwell_Levy	10000% yes!!! I am a sophomore and live with 3 other girls who were my best friends in Rome! Being abroad made us so close that even though some of us joined different sororities, clubs, and organizations, we all still remain friends. It is always nice seeing people around campus that were in Rome with me and getting to reflect back on that! But you are also able to meet people who were here in the Fall, and some of my best friends were not abroad with me. Feb-18 at 06:45:02 pm
Feb 18, 16:45:55	Drew -> TulaneSamF	What are the advantages of going abroad in the fall? Feb-18 at 06:14:41 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Drew	Going abroad the fall of your freshman year is a very unique experience. A lot of people don't get the opportunity to go abroad this early, so taking this chance forces you to step out of your comfort zone. I highly recommend you take the possibility to go abroad if you can. Feb-18 at 06:45:55 pm
Feb 18, 16:46:30	Rebecca -> TulaneEmily	For those who did the study abroad program, do you feel that it prepared you well for the academics and life at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:36:08 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Rebecca	Yes! I went to Rome for my first semester, and I feel like John Cabot University did a good job preparing us for Tulane academically. The work load in Rome is slightly less than what we have here at Tulane, but I have not found the adjustment too difficult! Feb-18 at 06:46:30 pm
Feb 18, 16:47:16	Maxs_Dad -> TulaneBrandi	What do you know now that you wished you knew before you started as a SS student? Feb-18 at 06:38:26 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Maxs_Dad	Making sure that my credits would transfer!! I went to a local college not partnered with Tulane and didn't check before enrolling in those classes, and one of them didn't transfer like I wanted it to. Feb-18 at 06:47:16 pm
Feb 18, 16:49:12	K -> TulaneJordana	How do you get a feel for which sororities there are if you are studying abroad 1st semester? Feb-18 at 06:47:06 pm
	TulaneJordana -> K	When you go through recruitment in January, you go to every single house on the first day and talk to people from every house so you get a feel then! You can also look them up on social media, but the best way to get a feel is definitely that first day of recruitment! We have nine sororities on campus. Feb-18 at 06:49:12 pm
Feb 18, 16:50:04	Katie -> TulaneSamF	Is there a minimum number of credits to study abroad with the Spring Scholars program? Feb-18

		at 06:39:38 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Katie	The minimum amount of credits needed abroad is 12 credits. If you are planing in rushing a sorority or fraternity, you must obtain a 2.5 GPA. Feb-18 at 06:50:03 pm
Feb 18, 16:50:25	K -> TulaneEmily	How long is the study abroad program? When do you leave and when do you return? Feb-18 at 06:43:33 pm
	TulaneEmily -> K	Most of the programs are 3 1/2-4 months long, and they begin in late August-early September and end in December before Christmas. Feb-18 at 06:50:25 pm
Feb 18, 16:52:15	CuriousMom -> TulaneRep	My son is considering John Cabot in Rome. As a parent, I worry about my 18-year-old traveling abroad every weekend, as I know most kids who study abroad so as much as their budget and time allows. Do you find that very young adults are capable of finding Airbnbs or moderately priced hotels in safe areas and arranging their own air or train travel? Our son has traveled plenty with us but I see a big difference between 18 and 20, when other students may go abroad. Feb-18 at 06:35:24 pm
	TulaneRep -> CuriousMom	Hi! It is very easy to find inexpensive Airbnb's in great locations around Europe. I recommend finding a group to travel with so trips are cost-effective. Traveling around Europe is very common so I never had any issues finding inexpensive flights. Overall I felt very safe traveling around Europe. John Cabot also provides contacts and services if there's ever an emergency anytime you travel. If your son does not feel comfortable traveling alone, John Cabot provides awesome student trips throughout Italy. - Maddie Feb-18 at 06:52:15 pm
Feb 18, 16:54:05	Savanah -> TulaneEmily	If students study abroad, are they allowed to return for thanksgiving, being that it is not a worldwide holiday? Feb-18 at 06:44:35 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Savanah	I went to Rome for my first semester, and they did give us a few days off for Thanksgiving break. Many families typically come to visit during Thanksgiving break, but I do know a few people who went home. Feb-18 at 06:54:05 pm
Feb 18, 16:54:18	Lewis -> TulaneJuliaE	Is there a list of approved classes to choose from if you attend Loyola Feb-18 at 06:48:25 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> Lewis	No, but there are classes that recommend taking that have been known to easily transfer. These classes are classes that are pretty similar that every school so classes like; econ, first-year writing, calculus, language, psych etc... Feb-18 at 06:54:18 pm
Feb 18, 16:54:33	Savannah -> TulaneBrandi	How does the process of getting a roommate at Tulane for the spring semester work? Are we paired with other freshman? Feb-18 at 06:09:21 pm

	TulaneBrandi -> Savannah	After enrolling during the fall semester they send you an email to fill out your housing application, they ask you to fill out a survey on what you want your room to be for, how messy are you, do you want to be friends with your roommate, etc. This year they asked us what Dorm building we wanted to live in, but getting into that building is based on availability. You will not necessarily be partnered with another Freshman, my current roommate is a sophomore. Feb-18 at 06:54:33 pm
Feb 18, 16:54:44	carol -> TulaneClaire	what are the TIDES classes? Feb-18 at 06:50:47 pm
	TulaneClaire -> carol	TIDES classes are introductory classes that are designed to help integrate you into life at Tulane. There are many different types of TIDES classes that you can take, I took business TIDES, but I know of other cool classes like "Writing in New Orleans" "Running Conversation" or "Italian Culture in New Orleans". Feb-18 at 06:54:44 pm
Feb 18, 16:55:46	Noah_I -> TulaneSamF	Were the spring students put into worse dorms once they got to Tulane 2nd semester? Feb-18 at 06:06:37 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Noah_I	Tulane does a great job in placing their spring students in ideal locations. There is no "bad" housing. In fact, everyone answering in this chat got their first choice for housing! Feb-18 at 06:55:46 pm
Feb 18, 16:56:23	K -> TulaneClaire	Did any of you study abroad a second time after completing your freshman year or is that not a thing? Feb-18 at 06:52:27 pm
	TulaneClaire -> K	I am a sophomore and am personally not going to be studying abroad again due to the fact that I am just loving my time here on campus, however, I have many friends who are planning on studying abroad again just in a different country! It is definitely a thing if you want to go again. Feb-18 at 06:56:23 pm
Feb 18, 16:56:50	BenP -> TulaneAiyana	Did anyone intern during the fall as their SS option? Was it challenging getting an internship? How would it compare to a study abroad opportunity? Which would you suggest? Feb-18 at 06:51:12 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> BenP	I interned as I dental assistant under a Tulane Alum and really enjoyed the experience. I wanted to study abroad, but not the very first semester of my college career. I think interning was the best choice for me because it allowed for me to grow and find out more about myself and my interests before college. It also allowed me to spend more time with my family and friends without the stress of classes. It was a much needed break and learning experience. The best way to find internships would be to connect with Tulane Career Services! Feb-18 at 06:56:49 pm
Feb 18, 16:58:43	Sami -> TulaneJordana	What is the social scene like in Rome? Feb-18 at 06:54:24 pm

	TulaneJordana -> Sami	The university is located in Trastevere, which is a very trendy and hip area, so there is so much to do around there! It is walking distance from the touristy spots like the Trevi Fountain, the Colosseum, and The Vatican! There is a lot of live music and stuff to do at all times of the day! Feb-18 at 06:58:43 pm
Feb 18, 17:00:15	Joey -> TulaneJulie	How do SS studying architecture catch up on/work on their studio credits in the fall so they don't fall behind in the spring semester? Feb-18 at 06:49:40 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Joey	We have a new program for next semester in Barcelona with UIC just for Architecture Spring Scholars. You can check our the Barcelona paragraph here for a bit more info:  https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/opportunities and specific questions can go to Caterina Reig Ibanes at  creig@uic.es . This program was created to keep Arch students on track! Feb-18 at 07:00:15 pm
Feb 18, 17:00:39	MD -> TulaneBrandi	Are non SS students welcoming to the Spring Scholars? I've noticed my son qualifying his acceptance to Tulane and feeling the need to explain. Feb-18 at 06:55:09 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> MD	Yes, non-Spring Scholar students are VERY welcoming! People are always introducing themselves and are extremely helpful in answering any questions I may have. Feb-18 at 07:00:39 pm
Feb 18, 17:00:48	Joey -> TulaneRep	Do you have any tips for bringing down the price of studying abroad. Feb-18 at 06:55:21 pm
	TulaneRep -> Joey	Hi! One main thing I would recommend while studying abroad is buying groceries so you can cook throughout the week. That way you are spending less money on going out to eat everyday. For traveling, I recommend finding a group of people to travel with. The more people you have the cheaper it will be when booking Airbnbs, hotels, etc. Staying in hostels are also a great way to travel on a budget. Prioritize what you want to spend your money on! - Maddie Feb-18 at 07:00:48 pm
Feb 18, 17:01:05	Liberty -> TulaneEmily	What was the most challenging aspect of transitioning from being abroad to Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:51:18 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Liberty	Honestly, I have had a really easy transition to Tulane from my abroad experience in Rome. There were 90 of us from Tulane that went, and having such a large group of people coming in made the transition significantly easier. Feb-18 at 07:01:05 pm
Feb 18, 17:02:26	MK2 -> TulaneJuliaE	For those who did Loyola, did your credits transfer easily? Feb-18 at 06:55:59 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> MK2	Yes! You are able to send your schedule from

		Loyola to Tulane to get your classes pre-approved and they will basically tell you if your credit will transfer before you even start your classes. (There are very slight circumstances that they will not transfer after they are preapproved. (but it was very rare)). Feb-18 at 07:02:26 pm
Feb 18, 17:02:51	Noah_I -> TulaneAiyana	What dorms would you recommend? Where can I find info on which dorm is meant for which kids? Feb-18 at 06:56:33 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Noah_I	The best way to find information on housing would be to go to Tulane's Website under the housing tab and you can also email Tulane's housing directly. I have always lived in Aron Apartments, which has a single bedroom, kitchen and two bathrooms. I would highly recommend Aron Apartments or DELA Townhouses! Feb-18 at 07:02:51 pm
Feb 18, 17:04:10	Katie -> TulaneJulie	Will Richmond: The American International University in London also have student trips available? Feb-18 at 06:59:16 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Katie	Yes, they do! Our ambassador Sam who was just in Paris said that there were numerous opportunities and he went on one: LONDON:  https://store.richmond.ac.uk/product-catalogue/trips/student-trips PARIS:  https://www.aup.edu/academics/cultural-program/study-trips ; Feb-18 at 07:04:10 pm
Feb 18, 17:05:09	Nicole -> TulaneSamF	What were the experiences like with professors at the study abroad programs? Did they prepare you well for your classes at Tulane? Feb-18 at 06:54:44 pm
	TulaneSamF -> Nicole	I loved my professors abroad. AUP has very small class sizes, so it is very easy to foster relationships with your professors. All my professors were easy to talk about concerns, grades or what have you. In fact, I left my semester abroad with a recommendation from my English professor. I also feel that AUP prepared me for Tulane's rigours courses! Feb-18 at 07:05:09 pm
Feb 18, 17:06:47	K -> TulaneSamF	Generally speaking when do you leave for a study abroad and return? Feb-18 at 06:50:33 pm
	TulaneSamF -> K	I left for abroad late August and returned late December. Feb-18 at 07:06:47 pm
Feb 18, 17:07:29	Claudia -> TulaneJuliaE	If you study at Loyola- are there housing options on campus? Feb-18 at 07:03:28 pm
	TulaneJuliaE -> Claudia	Yes, Loyola offers you to housing in their dorms. Tulane's campus does not offer you housing. Feb-18 at 07:07:29 pm
Feb 18, 17:07:33	jeanetterm -> TulaneClaire	Do people usually request a roommate for study abroad, or just do random selection? Feb-18 at

	TulaneClaire -> jeanetterm	I personally requested a roommate when I studied abroad because I had met her prior to going abroad. However, I know a handful of people who did do random and were happy with their roommate! It is a personal preference. Feb-18 at 07:07:33 pm
Feb 18, 17:08:38	Theresa -> TulaneRep	Are there food plans while studying abroad? Feb-18 at 07:03:07 pm
	TulaneRep -> Theresa	Hi! John Cabot University in Rome has a meal plan. All apartments have a full kitchen so you do not have to get a meal plan. Feb-18 at 07:08:37 pm
Feb 18, 17:09:46	Claudia -> TulaneJordana	Do you select your study abroad courses before you arrive? Feb-18 at 07:08:03 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Claudia	Yes! It is the same as if you were registering for classes at Tulane. There will be a time slot for you to register online in the Spring. Tulane emails you a list of pre-approved courses so you have time to think about it before your class registration. Feb-18 at 07:09:45 pm
Feb 18, 17:09:57	Maxs_Dad -> TulaneEmily	Thinking back to your other College acceptances, why did you choose Tulane as a SS versus another school? Feb-18 at 06:53:34 pm
	TulaneEmily -> Maxs_Dad	I applied to 11 different schools, but I did end up deciding to apply to Tulane Early Decision. After I received my admissions decision for the spring I did have some doubts, but ultimately after talking to other Spring Scholars who had done the abroad program in Rome the year before, I realized that going abroad as a freshman would be an amazing experience and that I did belong at Tulane. Now that I am here I am so grateful that I chose Tulane and had the incredible life changing experience abroad that I did! If you have anymore questions feel free to reach out! Feb-18 at 07:09:57 pm
Feb 18, 17:11:08	Rebecca -> TulaneJulie	To be clear, if I take the four architecture courses at UIC, then I will be on track with my architecture program at Tulane? Feb-18 at 07:04:06 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Rebecca	Yes, that is why we established this pre-approved program! The application for Barcelona is not open yet as they are finalizing the application form, but it should be open in the next few weeks! We will email all SS Architecture admits at that time to let you know Feb-18 at 07:11:08 pm
Feb 18, 17:12:16	Keith -> TulaneJulie	Do any of you know how a student that arrives in the Spring integrates into the architecture program? When we visited it seemed as though the freshmen all studied in the same studio together and then they moved up together. I am just concerned he will be stuck in between and not have the same class offerings as those that start out in the Fall. Thanks in advance. Feb-18 at 06:59:20 pm

	TulaneJulie -> Keith	I mentioned above^^ that we are offering a Barcelona program only for Architecture Spring Scholars at UIC. Taking those courses will keep you on track More info here: https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/opportunities ; Feb-18 at 07:12:16 pm
Feb 18, 17:12:18	Lewis -> TulaneBrandi	Is there any type of orientation for SS when they arrive in January Feb-18 at 07:06:00 pm
	TulaneBrandi -> Lewis	Yes, we have a Spring Scholar Orientation that gives you the typical rundown of Tulane and campus resources, but we also went to really cool events called the "NOLA Experience" where we went to Dave and buster, a steamboat, Mardi Gras world, trivia, and more! Feb-18 at 07:12:18 pm
Feb 18, 17:12:25	Keith -> TulaneAiyana	So if you can't afford to go to Barcelona? Unfortunately, that is our reality. We can afford the Spring because of Tulane's generosity. How complicated will it be for my son to catchup? Feb-18 at 07:07:11 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Keith	I interned as a dental assistant under a Tulane Alum without taking classes my fall semester and it was a great experience! It allowed me to explore my interests and enjoy time with my friends and family before college. My fall semester allowed some needed growth for myself before college. Being on track with other students is relatively easy, I take about 18 credits per semester. That is only one more class than the average 15 credits a semester and I am on track to graduate with the rest of my class. He will not be left behind, it is a great experience! Feb-18 at 07:12:25 pm
Feb 18, 17:13:28	Jenn_D -> TulaneRep	My daughter (Tulane Senior) studied abroad last year and traveled almost every weekend. Do spring scholars travel as often as the juniors seem to? And do they organize their travel plans or are they mostly organized trips from the school? Feb-18 at 07:09:15 pm
	TulaneRep -> Jenn_D	Hi! Yes, the majority of Spring Scholars do travel frequently on the weekends. Students take trips throughout Italy or throughout Europe. Most students plan their own weekend trips but John Cabot University in Rome has many weekend trips throughout Italy. - Maddie Feb-18 at 07:13:28 pm
Feb 18, 17:14:00	Amanda -> TulaneJulie	What is housing going to be like for the london abroad program? Feb-18 at 07:09:33 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Amanda	Similar to Paris, the London housing will be off-campus, but nearby campus. Richmond will work with the nearby housing buildings that they have partnerships with to get Spring Scholars placed and with at least one other Tulane roommate Feb-18 at 07:14:00 pm

Feb 18, 17:19:05	Rebecca -> TulaneJulie	Do you know how many of the architecture Spring Scholar students are considering the UIC option in the fall? Has the interest been strong for SS and other students? Feb-18 at 07:16:57 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Rebecca	We don't know yet how many students will apply/enroll in Barcelona as the application is not available yet. However, our goal is to have at least 20 students go! Feb-18 at 07:19:04 pm
Feb 18, 17:20:15	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone! Thanks for your great questions. We are going to wrap up in 5 minutes, so please send in any last questions you have. Feb-18 at 07:20:15 pm
Feb 18, 17:22:08	Nicole -> TulaneJulie	If I am unable to attend the Admitted Spring Scholars event on March 12th, is there any way to get additional information about the program in the coming months? Feb-18 at 07:18:06 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Nicole	Some of the day is more focused on mingling/meeting people in person. However, if there is any specific information you'd like, you can reach out and ask me! Feb-18 at 07:22:08 pm
Feb 18, 17:23:06	Maxs_Dad -> TulaneJordana	Any regrets? Feb-18 at 07:21:41 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Maxs_Dad	I wish I took more advantage of picking classes first in the Spring. I didn't realize how competitive it is to get into certain classes, so I wish I got them over with when I first got here and was able to get into those classes. Feb-18 at 07:23:06 pm
Feb 18, 17:23:45	Joey -> TulaneJulie	My understanding is that Tulane won't help pay for studying abroad, is this correct? Feb-18 at 07:20:13 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Joey	Because Spring Scholars are not officially Tulane students until they being in January/begin paying tuition, the tuition for abroad programs is paid directly to them. You can get in touch with the study abroad contacts directly if you have financial aid questions for them. I do believe London has some microsolarships available based on GPA as well Feb-18 at 07:23:45 pm
Feb 18, 17:25:30	Julia -> TulaneJordana	How do you know which are the more competitive classes? Feb-18 at 07:23:59 pm
	TulaneJordana -> Julia	You can ask your advisor for specific ones for your major. But there are some classes that we have to take like a service-learning and a lab science which fills up pretty fast. For example, Ebio is notorious for filling up quickly. Feb-18 at 07:25:30 pm
Feb 18, 17:25:50	Jenn_D -> TulaneAiyana	When do ss register for classes for spring semester? Feb-18 at 07:22:59 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Jenn_D	You usually register around late October! Feb-18 at 07:25:50 pm

Feb 18, 17:26:17	JK -> TulaneJulie	Will there be time set aside at the March 12 event for people considering study abroad in a given city to meet, or is it up to the students to find each other? Feb-18 at 07:20:47 pm
	TulaneJulie -> JK	The last session will be our abroad partnership presentations, and then the reps will stay after to answer questions. While that is the end of our official program, it is a good time for y'all to make announcements etc to try to get a group together and get to know each other after the official program concludes Feb-18 at 07:26:16 pm
Feb 18, 17:26:47	TulaneSamF -> Everyone	It was great to talk to you all! If you have any other questions, feel free to email me: ✉ sfisch@tulane.edu Feb-18 at 07:26:46 pm
Feb 18, 17:26:58	TulaneJordana -> Everyone	It was great chatting with you guys tonight! If you have any further questions about Rome, Spring Scholar, or Tulane in general, feel free to contact me at ✉ jcomiter@tulane.edu ! Feb-18 at 07:26:58 pm
