Time	From -> To	Message
Feb 06, 17:54:28	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone! The Spring Scholars Chat will begin in 5 minutes. Feb-06 at 05:54:28 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:06	TulaneJulie -> Everyone	Hi everyone! I'm Julie and I'm the admission counselor for Spring Scholars. I'm originally from Houston and graduated from Tulane in 2015 and UT in 2017 with my Master's in Counselor Education. I'm happy to answer all of your questions tonight with our ambassadors! Feb-06 at 06:00:06 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:12	TulaneAshlin -> Everyone	Hello! My name is Ashlin Leblond and this is my second year at Tulane! I am studying Biomedical Engineering while part of AROTC and working with intramurals. I am also in a few clubs. Feb-06 at 06:00:12 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:13	TulaneCharlotte -> Everyone	Hi my name is Charlotte Callahan and I'm from Chicago! For my first semester, I studied abroad in Paris. I'm currently undecided but I'm thinking about majoring in Psychology and minoring in French. Feb-06 at 06:00:13 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:13	TulaneAiyana -> Everyone	Hi! I am Aiyana Thomas, I am from Louisiana. For my spring semester I worked as a dental assistant alongside a Tulane Alum. I am double majoring in Anthropology and Psychology along with a theater minor. So excited to talk with y'all! Feb-06 at 06:00:13 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:14	TulaneWillB -> Everyone	Hi! My name Will Brzezinski and I'm an international relations major from Great Falls, Virginia. I spent my first semester studying abroad in Rome and had a blast. Feb-06 at 06:00:14 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:14	TulaneCorbin -> Everyone	Hello Everyone! I am a Sophomore Spring Scholar Ambassador! I'm here to answer any questions you may have! Feb-06 at 06:00:14 pm
Feb 06, 18:00:18	TulaneDominique -> Everyone	Hey guys! I'm Dominique and I'm a sophomore from Los Angeles. I went to Rome for my first semester and am involved with a bunch of things on campus. I can't wait to answer your questions! Feb-06 at 06:00:18 pm
Feb 06, 18:02:21	AhniaLeary -> TulaneCharlotte	As a Spring Scholar, were you able to get the classes you wanted easily?
	TulaneCharlotte -> AhniaLeary	Yes! As a Spring Scholar, I was able to get the classes I wanted because we got first pick. Feb-06 at 06:02:21 pm
Feb 06, 18:03:35	AhniaLeary -> TulaneDominique	As a Spring Scholar, when you finally came on campus, how did you feel? How were you able to bond with other Freshman who were already on campus?

	TulaneDominique -> AhniaLeary	When I came to campus and settled, adjusting wasn't bad at all. I had friends that I knew from Rome study abroad which made it a lot less intimidating. I also made a lot of friends from my classes and from clubs that I signed up for. Feb-06 at 06:03:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:04:12	AhniaLeary -> TulaneCorbin	When you got to campus in the spring, (January) were you able to easily find a dorm room with other Freshman?
	TulaneCorbin -> AhniaLeary	While your roommate assignment is randomized, it is possible that you are placed with other freshman. In my case I was put in a mixed-dorm (freshman and upperclassman) and my roommate was a fellow spring scholar! Feb-06 at 06:04:12 pm
Feb 06, 18:04:41	AhniaLeary -> TulaneJulie	Is it possible to participate in campus activities and organizations during the Fall? Is it possible to explore the campus, and meet and get to know organization leaders in the Fall?
	TulaneJulie -> AhniaLeary	You're not able to join Tulane clubs and organizations as a non-Tulane student (Spring Scholars become TU students starting in January), but you are able to come on campus and get to know which organizations you may want to get involved in. One of our ambassadors, Tori, was able to speak with the cheerleading coach in the fall and they saved a spot for her starting in January! Feb-06 at 06:04:41 pm
Feb 06, 18:05:19	Mary_Liza -> TulaneDominique	what all are students able to do in rome while at John Cabot? Feb-06 at 06:02:26 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Mary_Liza	While at John Cabot, you take classes Monday through Friday and then you can either travel over the weekends to different countries. You can also go to different places in Italy. There are really a ton of different options! Feb-06 at 06:05:19 pm
Feb 06, 18:06:47	Ella -> TulaneDominique	While abroad in Paris or Rome, do you get to chose your roommate? Feb-06 at 06:05:22 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ella	Yes I was able to choose my roommate! Feb-06 at 06:06:47 pm
Feb 06, 18:07:03	Ella -> TulaneCharlotte	How did you chose Paris or Rome? Feb-06 at 06:03:35 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ella	I chose to go to Paris for many reasons. First of all, I went to a French immersion school my whole life, so I wanted to put my French to use. Additionally, many of my friends from high school were going to be studying at French Universities and I thought it would make me feel more at home if I had familiar faces around me! Feb-06 at 06:07:03 pm
Feb 06, 18:07:24	Maddie -> TulaneCorbin	What kind of classes did you take in the Fall that were transferrable to Tulane? Feb-06 at 06:04:44 pm

	TulaneCorbin -> Maddie	In my experience I took chemistry and calculus. The best line-of-action is to send in transfer requests to the departments for approval because that is what mainly counts. Feb-06 at 06:07:23 pm
Feb 06, 18:07:38	AhniaLeary -> TulaneJulie	Do you know any other Spring Scholars who took classes at Loyola during the Fall? If so, did their classes easily transfer? Are there many classes available at Loyola available to Tulane Spring scholars?
	TulaneJulie -> AhniaLeary	Our ambassador Julia (jeisberg@tulane.edu) wasn't able to make it to tonight's chat, but she took classes at Loyola this past fall. If that is what you choose to do, you can speak with our advisor Shelby Wood (swood7@tulane.edu) who helps students select which classes are most likely to transfer from there. Because we have a number of students who go to Loyola, there are a decent number of classes that will transfer Feb-06 at 06:07:38 pm
Feb 06, 18:08:16	AhniaLeary -> TulaneWillB	What do you recommend as the best way to spend Fall semester to best prepare for Tulane in the Spring? What is it like at Tulane? How difficult are the classes?
	TulaneWillB -> AhniaLeary	Hi Ahnia! I know this probably isn't the answer you wanted but it's really up to you. Tulane gives you a lot of freedom in how you spend your first semester, whether it's an internship or studying abroad. Either way I think you would feel fully prepared for Tulane. As for your second question- I love it here! I found that the transition was easy academically and socially. Also, Tulane does a great job in helping accomodate Spring Scholars by having them move in a couple days early which is super nice. As for classes, Tulane does have rigorous academics and you have to study a lot to keep up, with that said I felt very ready for a Tulane level courseload when I arrived. Feb-06 at 06:08:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:08:32	Jack -> TulaneAshlin	I understand Tulane has a core curriculum, how does that work if you're not on campus 1st semestier? Feb-06 at 06:04:50 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Jack	For some majors that are offered at Tulane they are quite specific for when certain classes are offered and when but if you are willing to work with your academic advisor then it is possible to find a schedule that works best for you. I became really good friends with my advisor because my major was quite specific but I know many who had no issues or delays with their adjustment for starting a semester later. Feb-06 at 06:08:32 pm
Feb 06, 18:08:34	McKenna -> TulaneDominique	I will be spending my fall semester in Rome, and I am curious if people arrive on move-in day or a few days earlier. Feb-06 at 06:04:40 pm

	TulaneDominique -> McKenna	I personally arrived on move in day because you will not know anyone there and will not have to worry about finding a place to stay beforehand but if you want to come a few days early to get aquatinted that is totally fine too. Feb-06 at 06:08:34 pm
Feb 06, 18:08:37	sschuler -> TulaneCorbin	Will I still be able to take a TIDES class in the spring? Feb-06 at 06:05:57 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> sschuler	Yes! TIDES is a required component as a freshman at Tulane and they will have offerings in the Spring. Feb-06 at 06:08:37 pm
Feb 06, 18:08:37	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	How easy is it to travel around Europe while studying in Paris? Feb-06 at 06:06:26 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	It was very easy to travel around Europe! I got to travel to many different cities including Lisbon, Barcelona, London, and Amsterdam. You could take the Eurostar train which was fairly cheap or book a cheap flight! I stayed in hostels everywhere I went and my friends and I met a lot of people my age throughout our travels. Feb-06 at 06:08:37 pm
Feb 06, 18:10:01	Jack -> TulaneDominique	How does it work with club sports. Can you still participate? In particular, I play soccer, which is a fall sport? Feb-06 at 06:06:40 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Jack	Club sports at Tulane are usually year round. I have a ton of friends on the club soccer team and they play all semesters. You can sign up at the club fair for try outs! Feb-06 at 06:10:01 pm
Feb 06, 18:10:37	Mercedes -> TulaneJulie	I am not able to make it to either of the information days for the spring scholars. How do I get the info that will be presented there? Feb-06 at 06:03:12 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Mercedes	The first part is an open time to meet with JCU or AUP reps, so if you'd like to reach out to them specifically for more information, you're able to. Danette Anderson (danderson@johncabot.edu) and Joanna Nolting (j nolting@aup.edu). Other than that, it is more just opportunities to meet with prospective students and a panel with current ambassadors. It's not a Powerpoint or any physical information that is able to share. Definitely reach out to our ambassadors if you have questions they may be able to answer! Feb-06 at 06:10:36 pm
Feb 06, 18:10:42	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	Was it hard to adjust to life in Paris in terms of the language? Feb-06 at 06:06:07 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	I speak fluent French which definitely made the adjusting process a lot easier. However, all of my friends came to Paris with no French background and were able to get around the city very easily. Since Paris is full of tourists, many people speak English, so I wouldn't worry about not speaking the language. Feb-06 at 06:10:42 pm

Feb 06, 18:10:48	sslimp -> TulaneAshlin	what was the hardest part of your transition? Feb-06 at 06:04:43 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> sslimp	The hardest part of my transition was saying no to some of the many opportunities that Tulane had to offer. The social life here is quite adjustable because everyone comes from such different backgrounds that it makes it that much easier to adjust to the new NOLA life! Feb-06 at 06:10:48 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:02	sschuler -> TulaneAshlin	Can you still major in architecture? Feb-06 at 06:09:54 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> sschuler	Yes you can and your academic advisor can help you with any scheduling questions you have! Feb-06 at 06:12:02 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:07	Hannah -> TulaneJulie	Is it hard to rush/ make it into a sorority if you are not on campus in the fall? Feb-06 at 06:05:41 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Hannah	If you have 12+ credits and a 2.5+ gpa, you are eligible to rush in the spring just like any other freshman. Our Greek directors actually let us know this year that a higher percentage of Spring Scholars were placed into a sorority compared to fall-starting students who rushed! Having a unique fall also allows you to have more to discuss during rush conversations. We have several Spring Scholars in every sorority Feb-06 at 06:12:06 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:16	Jake -> TulaneWillB	Hey guys, for anyone who studied in Rome which housing did you choose? Which ones are the best or do they depend on the person? Feb-06 at 06:02:18 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Jake	Hi Jake! I studied abroad in Rome and I was placed in the Trastevere apartments. While they were not as nice as the ones in Lungara and Gianicolo, I had a fantastic time in a 7 man suite. I knew none of them going in and I ended up being boys with all of them within weeks of being there. I personally would recommend a larger apartment with more people as that was a great experience for me and the friends I had who had larger apartments. Feb-06 at 06:12:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:30	Alisha -> TulaneAiyana	Hi Aiyana! How did you find your dental assistant opportunity? Where did you live during this time? Feb-06 at 06:05:03 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Alisha	You can speak with a career adviser to set up internships and get in contact with Tulane Alum in your area! I was able to live at home while doing my internship. Feb-06 at 06:12:30 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:42	Nicole -> TulaneDominique	What was the biggest challenge starting in the spring at Tulane? Feb-06 at 06:10:08 pm

	TulaneDominique -> Nicole	The hardest thing for me was getting used to the classes. Some of the teachers are more fast paced than others but it doesn't take too long to get aquatinted. Feb-06 at 06:12:42 pm
Feb 06, 18:12:46	Ella -> TulaneCharlotte	What was the rushing process like after not being at Tulane for the first semester? Feb-06 at 06:07:08 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ella	Rushing is a tiresome yet exciting process! The process lasted about 5 days and it was a great way to make friends. During the process, you are split up into rush groups and I made some of my closest friends through these groups. It was also a great way to meet upperclassmen. Feb-06 at 06:12:46 pm
Feb 06, 18:13:35	Sally_Sneider -> TulaneCorbin	Was it a hard transition as a spring scholar entering Tulane in January? Was it harder to get yourself integrated into the community? Feb-06 at 06:06:23 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Sally_Sneider	I didn't find the transition to be difficult because Tulane gave me so many opportunities to become involved. Through classes and clubs I found my group of friends and become more involved with each semester! Feb-06 at 06:13:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:14:05	Emily -> TulaneDominique	What is the housing situation like when you come back to Tulane after your semester abroad? Feb-06 at 06:11:06 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Emily	You are able to request a roommate, but it is not guaranteed that you will get that roommate or a freshman dorm. However Tulane does try their best to place you into your top choices. Feb-06 at 06:14:04 pm
Feb 06, 18:14:50	Barrie -> TulaneJulie	As a Spring scholar is there one program in particular that many students from Tulane will choose in common Feb-06 at 06:04:37 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Barrie	We offer programs in Paris and Rome for Spring Scholars to take pre-approved courses. Rome was more popular this past year simply because the first group of Spring Scholars chose to do that one, but now we have our first group of Paris returnees, so I believe it will even out. Other Spring admit schools like Northeastern, Boston, USC use both programs and they are academically comparable Feb-06 at 06:14:50 pm
Feb 06, 18:15:22	Mercedes -> TulaneAshlin	Did you feel as if you were behind the rest of the freshman (socially, academically, etc) due to being a spring scholar? Feb-06 at 06:12:23 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Mercedes	In my experience, many didn't even realize that I had arrived in the spring unless I told them. As long as you are willing to become part of the Tulane community, they will make you feel like you were there the whole time. Feb-06 at 06:15:22 pm

Feb 06, 18:15:45	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	I am considering the program in Paris. What percentage of the people at the university in Paris were American? And what percentage were Tulane students? Feb-06 at 06:08:35 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	I don't have the exact statistics, but from my personal experience I would say that the majority of my friends and the people in my classes were American. But, there were some French people in my classes which was nice because they could give you advice own places to go in Paris. This was the first year Tulane offered the Paris program so there were only about 25 people! Feb-06 at 06:15:44 pm
Feb 06, 18:15:49	Barrie -> TulaneJulie	How many Tulane students were in Rome, and how many in Paris Feb-06 at 06:06:29 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Barrie	I believe around 70 were in Rome and 25 were in Paris this past year. The discrepancy is due to this being our 2nd year of Rome while it was only the 1st for Paris, but it should even out Feb-06 at 06:15:49 pm
Feb 06, 18:16:01	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneWillB	Was it difficult to find classes you were interested in taking in the abroad program because your class selections were more limited? Feb-06 at 06:04:22 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Ali_Cripps	Hi Ali! I did not find it difficult at all. I cannot speak for Paris but in Rome at John Cabot University as an IR major, I found it easy to take classes that fulfilled my gen-eds and fit my overall trend as an IR major. For example, I took classes in Western European Poltiics, Ancient Roman History, and Italian language, all of which were great for me as an IR major and fun to take as a student who was living and learning in Rome. Feb-06 at 06:16:01 pm
Feb 06, 18:16:16	Jake -> TulaneJulie	Are there certain classes that you are required to take as a spring scholar? Feb-06 at 06:06:14 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jake	No, you're able to take anything that is approved to transfer. Question 7 in our FAQ gives a good idea of what that may be  https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/faqs ; Feb-06 at 06:16:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:16:42	sschuler -> TulaneCorbin	What are some of the downsides of not starting at Tulane in the fall? Feb-06 at 06:13:49 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> sschuler	The only downside is not starting at the exact same time as everyone. Besides that I felt like I am given the same opportunities and have had some of the best experiences since I started in the Spring! Feb-06 at 06:16:42 pm
Feb 06, 18:17:11	Benny -> TulaneJulie	For the first semester, am I allowed to use the Tulane Dining hall if I'm taking classes at Loyola? Feb-06 at 06:08:17 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Benny	If you have a Loyola dining plan, you are able to eat in Bruff or the new commons if it is open! Also the LBC! Feb-06 at 06:17:11 pm

Feb 06, 18:17:33	Ella -> TulaneDominique	What is social life like in Paris & Rome? Feb-06 at 06:14:27 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ella	Since Rome and Paris are both American universities, there is not much of a language barrier for finding friends on campus. A lot of people will travel and go to different countries which is also a super cool way to meet new people. Everyone there is in the same shoes as you so everyone is also wanting to socialize and make friends. Feb-06 at 06:17:33 pm
Feb 06, 18:17:47	Nicole -> TulaneJulie	In the past how many Spring Scholars have chosen to study at Rome or Paris? Feb-06 at 06:07:03 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Nicole	About 115 out of the 250 current Spring Scholars chose an abroad program Feb-06 at 06:17:47 pm
Feb 06, 18:17:49	Nicole -> TulaneAiyana	As a Spring Scholar, am I eligible to apply for Tulane sponsored internships or research opportunities on the Tulane campus in the fall? Feb-06 at 06:12:43 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Nicole	No you are not, but you can do an independent internship and once you arrive on Tulane's campus you should inquire to see if you can receive credit for it! Feb-06 at 06:17:49 pm
Feb 06, 18:18:00	Nicole -> TulaneCorbin	Is it common for Spring Scholars to room together in the spring? Feb-06 at 06:14:56 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Nicole	While it is possible that you may have a fellow Spring Scholar as a roommate, it is not guaranteed. Housing does try their best to make it to where a fellow spring scholar is on the same floor if having them as a roommate is not possible. Feb-06 at 06:18:00 pm
Feb 06, 18:18:45	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneCharlotte	What is the housing situation like abroad? Are the dorms like typical American dorms? And are they close to the campus that you will be taking classes? Feb-06 at 06:10:27 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ali_Cripps	In Paris we were placed in apartments around the city, depending on what housing you requested (close, preferred or standard). The close apartments were located about a 10 minute walk from campus, the preferred location was located about 15 minutes by metro from campus and the standard about 30 minutes by metro. There weren't any dorms but having friends in different neighborhoods was a good way to explore Paris. Feb-06 at 06:18:45 pm
Feb 06, 18:19:15	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	What was the it like being abroad and having to get food for yourself? I know that as a freshman, most people typically rely on campus dining halls, so is there something similar while being abroad? Feb-06 at 06:14:35 pm

	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	Getting food for yourself isn't as hard as some would think! Rome has a dinning hall but Paris does not. However, its super easy to just walk to a local restaurant or cafe in between classes and pick up something. As well, most of the dorms have personal kitchens, which makes it easier to cook meals for yourself. Feb-06 at 06:19:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:19:38	RebeccaLetsinger -> TulaneCharlotte	If you study abroad, are you able to rush in the spring? Feb-06 at 06:10:30 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> RebeccaLetsinger	In order to rush you need a minimum of 12 credits and a GPA of 2.5. I studied abroad and was able to rush! Feb-06 at 06:19:38 pm
Feb 06, 18:19:45	Alisha -> TulaneJulie	Are fall students able to choose their roommates? If so, why is it randomized for spring scholars? Feb-06 at 06:07:12 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Alisha	Students in the fall will be able to choose their roommates, but not their dorm building. The housing openings that open up in January are the rooms that Spring Scholars will be able to stay in because Housing will not kick someone out of their room who has been there for several months in order to put certain people together. However, if there are rooms with two openings, students who requested each other will get to room together! Feb-06 at 06:19:45 pm
Feb 06, 18:20:41	Emily -> TulaneAshlin	Did you feel disconnected from the rest of the freshman class when you came in in January? Feb-06 at 06:17:08 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Emily	I personally did not have a disconnection from the freshman class because I still took a lot of classes with freshman in the spring. It is nice though because since I didn't take classes in the fall gap semester I also got to connect with the freshmen in the fall to help them adjust with what I had learned from being there before. Feb-06 at 06:20:41 pm
Feb 06, 18:21:01	Sally_Sneider -> TulaneDominique	Is there a significant language barrier for those who don't speak Italian studying in Rome? Feb-06 at 06:17:00 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Sally_Sneider	I personally did not have a huge problem. All of my professors spoke English well and a lot of the locals also speak English. It wasn't hard at all and you will definitely pick up on the local lingo while there! Feb-06 at 06:21:01 pm
Feb 06, 18:21:49	Jean -> TulaneJulie	As a Spring scholar. do you have a better chance of getting accepted into John Cabot? Feb-06 at 06:08:33 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jean	Since JCU and AUP are partnerships with us, Tulane Spring Scholars who apply to either of these can know that they will be accepted. Barring any red flags Feb-06 at 06:21:49 pm
Feb 06, 18:21:53	Jack -> TulaneCorbin	I saw the answer about the sororities, but do the fraternities also have spring rush? Can we also rush in the fall? Feb-06 at 06:19:52 pm

	TulaneCorbin -> Jack	Rushing in general is done in the Spring. Fraternity rush happens the first week of school. To my knowledge, rushing does not happen in the Fall semester. Feb-06 at 06:21:53 pm
Feb 06, 18:22:40	Mercedes -> TulaneDominique	I am planning to study abroad, can I still graduate with my class on time? Feb-06 at 06:17:51 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Mercedes	Yes! You are still taking 12 credits while abroad, which will transfer as long as you get a C or better. This will put you on track to graduate. I'm currently premed and am will planning on graduating on time with my classes even though I went to Rome. Feb-06 at 06:22:40 pm
Feb 06, 18:22:45	Sally_Sneider -> TulaneJulie	When do you find out who your roommate will be when you come in January? Do you know in advance? Feb-06 at 06:09:03 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Sally_Sneider	End of November/beginning of December is when our current freshman found out their dorm and roommate assignments Feb-06 at 06:22:45 pm
Feb 06, 18:23:07	Neva_Coleman -> TulaneWillB	Hi! I'm Neva and I'm from Rumson, New Jersey. I'm not fully committed to Tulane yet, but if I do I will be going to Rome. What is the housing like? Do you have a lot of freedom to travel? Feb-06 at 06:03:56 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Neva_Coleman	Hi Neva! First off, let me say again that I had an absolute blast in Rome but the housing definitely varies. I was placed in the Trastevere apartments, all of which were apartment style living and could have 3-7 people in them. I was in a 7 man apartment with a full kitchen, 2 full baths, a triple, two doubles, and a single. The quality of the Trastevere apartments was not as nice as the apartments in Lungara and Gianicolo but that had no effect negative effect on us and in fact really brought everybody closer (as cliché as that sounds).As for freedom to travel the answer is YES. You have no classes on Friday every and it is incredibly easy to get around Italy and Europe as a whole. Feb-06 at 06:23:07 pm
Feb 06, 18:23:14	Emma -> TulaneCharlotte	Is it easy to join Greek life when you come to campus? Feb-06 at 06:12:02 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Emma	To be eligible to rush, you need a GPA of 2.5 and a minimum of 12 credits. Rushing started my very first week at Tulane and I fortunately got in to the sorority I wanted. I got very lucky and was not disappointed by the results, but the process differs for everyone. Feb-06 at 06:23:14 pm
Feb 06, 18:23:24	s.ecrum -> TulaneAshlin	Is there anyway to meet Tulane students that are there for the fall prior to January? Feb-06 at 06:06:17 pm

	TulaneAshlin -> s.ecrum	Yes there is! Even though you can come in the spring you get added to the freshmen class facebook and there is also one for spring scholars. There is also two events on campus that allow for you to test out the feel of the social life here and the students! Feb-06 at 06:23:24 pm
Feb 06, 18:23:35	Jill -> TulaneDominique	For the Rome program, do the kids fly out on their own or is there a departure point where the kids fly out together? Feb-06 at 06:20:23 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Jill	To my knowledge, the kids fly out on their own. However, if there is a group chat or something like that they can coordinate and all meet up at JFK or something like that. Feb-06 at 06:23:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:23:43	kmeister -> TulaneJulie	If I were to live in New Orleans for the fall term, would I be roomed with another spring scholar? Feb-06 at 06:09:55 pm
	TulaneJulie -> kmeister	If you live in NOLA during the fall to take classes at another university such as Loyola, you would either have to speak with Loyola about seeing if on-campus housing is available, or you'd find an off-campus sublease. Who you choose to room with in that case is up to you! Feb-06 at 06:23:43 pm
Feb 06, 18:24:04	Emma -> TulaneCorbin	If you do the Spring Scholars program is it hard to graduate in 4 years? Feb-06 at 06:21:14 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Emma	It depends on the program that you are in! I am a double major in Political Science and Cell and Molecular Bio with a minor in Public Health and I am graduating on time with my peers. I think the only exception I know of is the Architecture program because it is a five year program! Feb-06 at 06:24:04 pm
Feb 06, 18:24:15	Emma -> TulaneAiyana	Are the majority of your friends from the spring scholars program? Feb-06 at 06:18:06 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Emma	I gained the majority of my friends during the NOLA Experience of Spring orientation, but I also made friends that are not spring scholars through class and club activities. So I would say yes the majority of your friends are Spring scholars initially, but you can easily gain other friends in your first weeks on campus. Feb-06 at 06:24:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:25:02	sschuler -> TulaneCorbin	About what percentage of Spring Scholars are put with an upperclassman roommate? Feb-06 at 06:21:30 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> sschuler	It varies depending on the year and the openings with housing! Feb-06 at 06:25:02 pm
Feb 06, 18:25:28	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneCharlotte	Hey Charlotte! Did you go on any cultural excursions/study trips at AUP? If you did, how was your experience? Feb-06 at 06:13:31 pm

	TulaneCharlotte -> Nivetha_Kumar	Hi! I did not go on any of the cultural trips offered by AUP, but many of my friends did and had an absolute blast. Some of my friends went to Morocco for 5 days, others went to Bordeaux and tasted wines, and some went to the Champagne region and got to taste fresh Champagne! I regret not doing any of the trips so I highly recommend taking advantage of these. Feb-06 at 06:25:28 pm
Feb 06, 18:25:28	Maddie -> TulaneJulie	If you take classes at Loyola, can you stay at their dorms during the fall? Feb-06 at 06:13:46 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Maddie	It is not guaranteed, but you can speak with our Loyola contact Tharren Poplion (poplion@loyno.edu) to see if it is a possibility Feb-06 at 06:25:28 pm
Feb 06, 18:25:56	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneDominique	While studying abroad, what was the hardest part of the living situation? Feb-06 at 06:21:19 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Nivetha_Kumar	The hardest part for me was cooking for myself. I didn't go into it with a ton of culinary knowledge but I eventually learned. As well, it was difficult getting around because I did not speak any Italian and it was hard to read some of the signs. Feb-06 at 06:25:56 pm
Feb 06, 18:25:59	Mary_Liza -> TulaneWillB	was it common for students to visit other countries on weekends or did yall stick primarily to exploring italy Feb-06 at 06:06:54 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Mary_Liza	Hi Mary! Yes it was. We didn't have classes on Fridays so it was common, and reasonably priced, for people to go all over Europe on weekends. People actually mainly went to other countries instead of exploring Italy (which I highly recommend). Feb-06 at 06:25:59 pm
Feb 06, 18:26:35	Ben_Lesserson -> TulaneCorbin	If I spend the first semester at Loyola, can I still room with other freshmen on Tulane's campus? Feb-06 at 06:25:04 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Ben_Lesserson	It is not possible to live on Tulane's campus and attend Loyola simultaneously. Feb-06 at 06:26:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:26:53	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneAshlin	Was it difficult to learn your way around NOLA when you started your spring semester? Feb-06 at 06:23:38 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Ali_Cripps	I have never been great with directions so google maps, uber, and the streetcar are really great for getting around the city. The perk of coming a bit later is as you make friends with people that have been here a bit longer is they have a bit of knowledge of the city and before you know it you will know the city as home. Feb-06 at 06:26:53 pm

Feb 06, 18:27:33	Sherman1 -> TulaneJulie	How many students typically participate in this program? Feb-06 at 06:15:48 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Sherman1	We had 83 students enroll as Spring Scholars the first year, 174 this year, and are aiming for approx 150 this upcoming year. Approx. 70 students have already enrolled for Spring 2020 Feb-06 at 06:27:33 pm
Feb 06, 18:28:03	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneCharlotte	What is the biggest difference between the semester abroad in Rome or Paris? Feb-06 at 06:19:13 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ali_Cripps	It's hard to say because I can only speak for the Paris program, but I chose Paris because I had heard that it is easier to navigate the city and is more residential. However, both of these cities are amazing and have different things to offer so wherever you choose to study, I'm sure you will have a wonderful time. Feb-06 at 06:28:03 pm
Feb 06, 18:28:17	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneDominique	Can Spring Scholars study abroad again in their time at Tulane? Feb-06 at 06:24:13 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Nivetha_Kumar	Yes most definitely! All students are able to study abroad multiple semesters as long as they in good academic standing. Lilly Marcus, a spring ambassador, went to Rome her first semester and is going to Paris during her junior year. Feb-06 at 06:28:17 pm
Feb 06, 18:28:26	Jack -> TulaneJulie	Are we guaranteed spaces in either Rome or Paris? Feb-06 at 06:17:40 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jack	Yes, as long as you apply to those programs/let them know by May 1st, you will be accepted into them barring any red flags Feb-06 at 06:28:26 pm
Feb 06, 18:28:59	sschuler -> TulaneCorbin	Are you at a disadvantage if you take the Freshman Writing class in the spring? Feb-06 at 06:26:44 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> sschuler	I would not say so because my class was full of Fall admitted students! Feb-06 at 06:28:59 pm
Feb 06, 18:29:17	Emma -> TulaneJulie	How many spring scholars are there? Feb-06 at 06:18:15 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Emma	250 current students are Spring Scholars (sophomores and freshmen combined), approx 70 have already enrolled out of this group and there's still time to do so until May 1st Feb-06 at 06:29:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:29:18	Jill -> TulaneDominique	What is the NOLA experience of spring orientation referenced above by Emma. If I plan on rushing in the spring, do I also attend the NOLA spring orientation? Do they coincide timewise? Feb-06 at 06:26:04 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Jill	If you are rushing in the spring, there is no crossover for rushing and the NOLA experience program. Feb-06 at 06:29:18 pm

Feb 06, 18:29:48	McKenna -> TulaneJulie	When can I choose classes for John Cabot? Feb-06 at 06:20:30 pm
	TulaneJulie -> McKenna	It's too early to choose now, but Lauren Rice (lrice@johncabot.edu) will be in touch with you about when registration will be as long as you've applied for the JCU program Feb-06 at 06:29:48 pm
Feb 06, 18:29:49	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	Charlotte, would you recommend the close, standard, or preferred apartments in Paris? Which give you the best experience and which did you live in? Feb-06 at 06:21:14 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	I would recommend choosing the close or preferred location. This is the one I chose and although the cost is higher than the other locations, it is beneficial because you are closer to campus. Feb-06 at 06:29:48 pm
Feb 06, 18:30:16	Marina -> TulaneDominique	Would you recommend getting a meal plan for Rome or did you not use it? Feb-06 at 06:26:48 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Marina	You are not required to get one, but I would personally recommend it though. Sometimes its hard to get off campus or back to your dorm in between classes. Feb-06 at 06:30:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:30:16	Ella -> TulaneWillB	How does the difficulty of the academics at Paris or Rome compare to Tulane? Feb-06 at 06:09:45 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Ella	Hi Ella! I cannot speak for Paris but as for Rome, I felt prepared for Tulane's classes but there was a definite jump in academic rigor going from John Cabot to Tulane. Feb-06 at 06:30:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:31:18	tyler -> TulaneAiyana	How much did you connect with other incoming Spring Scholars while you were still in high school? Feb-06 at 06:22:19 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> tyler	I did not connect with Incoming Spring Scholars in high school because I'm not into Facebook, but even though I did not know anyone coming to Tulane I found friends during orientation with ease. Orientation is the perfect time to make connections if you did not do so before! Feb-06 at 06:31:18 pm
Feb 06, 18:31:33	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	If you were abroad for first semester, did you stay in Paris/Rome for the entire time or did you ever visit home for a holiday or any other reason? Feb-06 at 06:26:55 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	I stayed in Rome the whole time I was there because they do not give you a long break for Thanksgiving like they do in America. However I had a lot of my friend's parents come and visit while they were here. Its a long flight and most people tend to travel to different countries on the weekend. Feb-06 at 06:31:33 pm

Feb 06, 18:32:26	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	Are all the American students in Paris freshman (even from different universities)? Feb-06 at 06:23:02 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	The American University of Paris is a four year university, so there were some sophomores, juniors and seniors in my classes. There were also some people studying abroad as juniors who came from other universities back in the US, such as Bentley University. Feb-06 at 06:32:26 pm
Feb 06, 18:33:37	NicoleLe -> TulaneDominique	For those of you who went to JCU, what was the cost for tuition and room and board? Feb-06 at 06:29:57 pm
	TulaneDominique -> NicoleLe	I believe it was around $15,000 - $17,000 but am not totally sure. I think the JCU website would have a more accurate answer if you! Feb-06 at 06:33:37 pm
Feb 06, 18:33:53	Ella -> TulaneCharlotte	By when do you have to declare roommate requests for Paris & Rome? Feb-06 at 06:25:18 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ella	As long as you have applied to one of the universities either in Rome or Paris, someone will be in touch with you to update you on housing. Feb-06 at 06:33:52 pm
Feb 06, 18:34:23	Sherman1 -> TulaneJulie	Is there someplace where I can find the courses listed for the study abroad programs? Feb-06 at 06:22:22 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Sherman1	There isn't a printed list, but classes include art history, economics, French/Italian, calculus, psychology, government, etc. When it gets closer, you can work with advisor Shelby Wood (swood7@tulane.edu) to pick certain courses. JCU or AUP would give you advanced warning on when you'd need to register Feb-06 at 06:34:23 pm
Feb 06, 18:34:47	Nic -> TulaneCorbin	Once the Spring semester starts at Tulane, how much time do you have to decide on housing for sophomore year? Feb-06 at 06:32:46 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Nic	You have majority of your semester to decide on sophomore housing. It opens up between March and April. Feb-06 at 06:34:47 pm
Feb 06, 18:35:10	vicky -> TulaneWillB	Isn't it hard to adjust to tulane's social scenes?? since other freshman have already been there for 6 month and already have their group of friends Feb-06 at 06:09:12 pm
	TulaneWillB -> vicky	Hi Vicky! So because I studied abroad, I began at Tulane with a great group of friends. Tulane also has a spring orientation for all spring scholars and has all of us arrive about 3 days early, before campus gets flooded with everybody. Feb-06 at 06:35:10 pm

Feb 06, 18:35:37	Jill -> TulaneJulie	When the kids land at the airport in Rome, is there a help desk of sorts for the JCU students? Feb-06 at 06:24:40 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jill	For both Rome and Paris, our students have shared with us that they give you information ahead of time on where to go/who to meet up with at the airport so they can take you to campus Feb-06 at 06:35:37 pm
Feb 06, 18:35:41	Alisha -> TulaneCharlotte	How did you all find transportation to other countries? Feb-06 at 06:26:54 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Alisha	I booked most of my flights on Eurostar which is a website that shows you the cheapest options. Sometimes flying is cheaper and other times taking the train is! It really depends. Feb-06 at 06:35:41 pm
Feb 06, 18:36:06	Sherman1 -> TulaneJulie	Will these questions and replies be available later? Or emailed to us? Feb-06 at 06:26:12 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Sherman1	The chat transcript will be emailed to all participants within the next 2 weeks from our chat company! Feb-06 at 06:36:06 pm
Feb 06, 18:36:15	Ella -> TulaneDominique	While abroad, did you connect with students from other schools (like USC) doing a spring program? Or do the students mostly socialize with students going to their same school? Feb-06 at 06:34:13 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ella	Yes! I made and still have a ton of friends from USC or Delaware and a bunch of other schools. Everyone definitely mingles with each other from my experience. Feb-06 at 06:36:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:36:35	Ella -> TulaneCharlotte	What is the quality like of the apartments in Paris? Feb-06 at 06:27:28 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ella	The quality of the apartments really vary, but my apartment was newly furnished and located in a really nice building. Most of my friends had similar experiences. There was also a cleaning crew that came to our apartment once a week. Feb-06 at 06:36:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:36:49	Jack -> TulaneJulie	When do we need to apply to the Rome or Paris program? Feb-06 at 06:31:54 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jack	You have time, but you are able to apply now if you'd like. The acceptance is non-binding, and you have until May 1st to decide for Tulane and for Rome and Paris! Feb-06 at 06:36:49 pm
Feb 06, 18:36:52	vicky -> TulaneAiyana	if im not studying abroad during fall semester, isn't it hard to meet people? Feb-06 at 06:30:46 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> vicky	You have the opportunity to connect to other Spring Scholars through Facebook, group me, or coming to an on campus event before you start in the spring. I did a dental internship and made my friends during the NOLA Experience on the first day of orientation. It is extremely easy to make friends! Feb-06 at 06:36:51 pm

Feb 06, 18:37:36	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	Was there any interaction between the Rome and Paris group? Did you all ever meet up on weekends? Feb-06 at 06:29:04 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	Yes! I followed a girl on instagram who went to Rome and she reached out to me when she was in Paris for the weekend and we all got dinner one night! It was great to hear how their experience was going. Feb-06 at 06:37:36 pm
Feb 06, 18:37:36	Nic -> TulaneAshlin	When the spring semester starts at Tulane, when will students have to decide on their classes for sophomore year? Feb-06 at 06:34:49 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Nic	You register for classes the same as the rest of the freshman for sophomore classes. What determines if you're a sophomore by the fall or the next spring is dependent on whether you took classes in the fall or had credits transfer from high school. Feb-06 at 06:37:36 pm
Feb 06, 18:37:43	Marina -> TulaneDominique	What is something you wished you knew before going aboard? Feb-06 at 06:34:30 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Marina	There are no Walmarts and Targets in Rome so it was hard to find some of those things I needed while I was there. Also the deoderant in Europe is very different from America's! Feb-06 at 06:37:43 pm
Feb 06, 18:38:14	Alisha -> TulaneWillB	How easy was it to live/travel in Rome given the language barrier? Was it difficult or do most people speak English? Feb-06 at 06:10:23 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Alisha	Hi Alisha! Personally, the language barrier provided more fun than anything else. I had a great time picking up little phrases in Italian and the Italians love it when people speak (or at least try to speak) their language. Apart from that most people there speak English or speak enough to get by. Feb-06 at 06:38:14 pm
Feb 06, 18:38:16	Toni -> TulaneJulie	As a spring scholar and starting in January. Can anyone speak to how financial aid packages are determined, are you giving the same consideration as a student that starts in the fall? Feb-06 at 06:36:14 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Toni	Every student is considered for merit aid and need-based aid if they apply for it. Spring Scholars are looked at the same for each of these opportunities. If you have specific Financial Aid questions, our Admission office works separately from them need-blind, so I recommend calling at 504-865-5723 or emailing ✉ finaid@tulane.edu . Feb-06 at 06:38:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:39:15	Jill -> TulaneCharlotte	Do parents fly out with the students to Rome or Paris? or do the kids fly solo or with a group? Feb-06 at 06:30:06 pm

	TulaneCharlotte -> Jill	I personally flew out solo and met a group of people who were also taking the shuttle to campus at the airport. I know some other people who flew out in a group to Rome, which makes the traveling less stressful, especially if you are traveling without your parents. Feb-06 at 06:39:15 pm
Feb 06, 18:39:45	Lucas_Sachs -> TulaneDominique	Did you feel like you needed a lot of spending money in rome? Feb-06 at 06:35:29 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Lucas_Sachs	Europe can be expensive at time but overall I wouldn't say I needed a ton of spending money. Definitely budget your spending money for trips for going to different countries over the weekends though. Feb-06 at 06:39:45 pm
Feb 06, 18:40:25	sschuler -> TulaneWillB	If you go abroad your first semester can you still go abroad again in the future? Feb-06 at 06:17:53 pm
	TulaneWillB -> sschuler	Hi sschuler! You can definitely go abroad again! I have a lot of friends who are spring scholars and who are planning to study abroad again. Feb-06 at 06:40:25 pm
Feb 06, 18:41:16	Trent -> TulaneCharlotte	What is the Greek life like? Feb-06 at 06:33:14 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Trent	Greek life is very exciting and helpful in terms of meeting new people! Every month there are social events, for example last Friday we had a mixer with one of the frats and the week before that we had a date party! The girls in my sorority have been very helpful and have showed me around campus. Feb-06 at 06:41:16 pm
Feb 06, 18:41:19	kmeister -> TulaneAiyana	Is it hard to establish a group of friends if you're not abroad with other spring scholars? Feb-06 at 06:36:37 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> kmeister	You can connect to other Spring Scholars through Facebook, group me, and by coming to an on campus event before you start in the spring. I interned as a dental assistant and made the majority of my friends during the NOLA experience on the first day of orientation. Feb-06 at 06:41:19 pm
Feb 06, 18:42:16	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	I know that when freshmen move into their dorms, they are able to decorate and design their room freely, but if you go abroad, do you still get this opportunity since it is much harder to transport things, such as comforters, sheets, pillows, etc. Feb-06 at 06:38:34 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	You can get stuff while abroad to decorate or bring little things but I would highly recommend packing lightly. Maybe bring a few posters or photos to put on the walls and things that are not too heavy. Feb-06 at 06:42:15 pm

Feb 06, 18:43:51	NicoleL -> TulaneWillB	Do the Spring Scholars who go to John Cabot room together? Feb-06 at 06:22:23 pm
	TulaneWillB -> NicoleL	Hi Nicole! You are guaranteed to have one other Tulane spring scholar in your room, others roommates could be spring admits at other schools (USCalifornia, Northeastern, and U Delaware) or European kids. I lucked out with 3/6 roommates being Tulane guys and I made lots of good friend from other schools too. Feb-06 at 06:43:51 pm
Feb 06, 18:44:22	vicky -> TulaneJulie	do you recommend going abroad for that fall semester?? Feb-06 at 06:37:56 pm
	TulaneJulie -> vicky	As the most unbiased person in the room since I'm the only non-Spring Scholar on the chat, I say it just depends on personal preference. For students who know several people in New Orleans/at Tulane in the fall, it may be best to go to Loyola as you'd have an easier time getting connected with Tulane students in that first semester. However, if you don't know anyone, or if you're really interested in a new adventure, going abroad may be the better way to go so you can get to meet people that way. If you're more interested in a job/internship or saving money, it may be best to stay at home and take classes locally Feb-06 at 06:44:22 pm
Feb 06, 18:44:59	Emma -> TulaneJulie	When is the due date for the application to paris or rome? Feb-06 at 06:37:57 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Emma	You are able to apply now, and acceptance to those is non-binding. However if you want to wait, you have until May 1st at least. They may consider late applications after May 1st on a case by case basis Feb-06 at 06:44:59 pm
Feb 06, 18:44:59	kmeister -> TulaneCorbin	When arriving in the spring, are roommates selected randomly? Feb-06 at 06:43:31 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> kmeister	You have the option to request a roommate but it is not guaranteed. Feb-06 at 06:44:59 pm
Feb 06, 18:45:48	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneCharlotte	What are some tips you might have that could help prepare me this semester for the move to Paris, or just studying abroad in general? Feb-06 at 06:31:43 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Nivetha_Kumar	There was a bit of a culture shock for some in terms of the way that Parisians interacted with us. Sometimes they can appear smug and impolite, but you must remain patient and remember that you are a visitor in their country! Also, remember to not speak too loudly on the metro as this is seen as impolite. Another tip I would give you is to always bring a phone charger around with you (kind of random but important!) Feb-06 at 06:45:48 pm
Feb 06, 18:46:02	sschuler -> TulaneWillB	Do you recommend taking an introductory Italian class at JCU? Feb-06 at 06:27:50 pm
	TulaneWillB -> sschuler	sschuler- I highly recommend taking an intro

		italian class at JCU. I took one and it gave me the basics I need to try and converse with Italians at a basic level. With that said, it is certainly not a necessity, many Italians speak english. Feb-06 at 06:46:01 pm
Feb 06, 18:46:12	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	If you go abroad, do you need to bring your own blankets, sheets, pillows, etc.? Feb-06 at 06:43:30 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	I personally did not because there are stores there where you can buy them and they can be quite bulky in suitcases. I just brought a small pillow and blanket with me for the first few nights before I went out and bought actual sheets and pillows and things. Also, the dorm will provide you with bedding (sheets, comforter, pillows, towels)! Feb-06 at 06:46:12 pm
Feb 06, 18:46:18	Emma -> TulaneJulie	Do you pay tulane tuition during your time abroad? Feb-06 at 06:39:04 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Emma	Spring Scholars are not considered Tulane students until January 2020. If students opt for Paris or Rome, they would be paying that university's visiting student tuition for the semester Feb-06 at 06:46:17 pm
Feb 06, 18:46:26	Griffen -> TulaneAiyana	If you do not study abroad or get any credits during the fall semester, is it still possible to fully graduate with the rest of the 2023 class? Feb-06 at 06:41:22 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Griffen	Yes, you have the opportunity to graduate on time by taking more than the average credits (more than 15) each semester. I am currently have 18 credits this semester. Feb-06 at 06:46:26 pm
Feb 06, 18:46:47	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	How do you recommend packing in terms of clothes for Paris? What is the weather like throughout the time we'll be there? Feb-06 at 06:34:33 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	The weather towards the beginning of the semester was fairly nice! I wore sun dresses and shorts for the first month. But, it does get chilly towards the end of October, so I would bring a few good jackets and sweaters! Feb-06 at 06:46:46 pm
Feb 06, 18:47:35	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneCharlotte	For AUP, were there any jobs available to you on campus? Feb-06 at 06:34:33 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Nivetha_Kumar	There were a few jobs available at the university, but the most common was babysitting. Many French families want their kids to learn English, so this is a good way to make good money! Feb-06 at 06:47:35 pm
Feb 06, 18:48:27	Jill -> TulaneWillB	What sort of supervision/security is in the dorms at JCU? Feb-06 at 06:38:18 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Jill	Hi Jill! All of the dorms at JCU had armed security guards posted at the entrances 24/7. There was a scan in and out policy at each building and a curfew for bringing in out of building guests at 11 each night. I felt very safe in my dorm throughout my stay. Feb-06 at 06:48:27 pm

Feb 06, 18:48:28	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	Are there any class at AUP that won't transfer to Tulane? Feb-06 at 06:35:16 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	Yes, Tulane has a list of classes that you are able to take that will transfer to Tulane. Feb-06 at 06:48:27 pm
Feb 06, 18:48:56	kmeister -> TulaneAshlin	How does housing work if you choose not to go abroad first semester? Feb-06 at 06:45:55 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> kmeister	It actually works the same but freshmen rooming is done by random selection and by what is available. You will find out usually towards the end of the fall semester where you will be living just because that will be when the returning students announce if they will be staying or leaving. Feb-06 at 06:48:56 pm
Feb 06, 18:49:01	Ruby -> TulaneDominique	What is the best time (if any) for parents to come and visit? Is that something that many parents do? Feb-06 at 06:46:03 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ruby	Yes, a lot of people's parents came to visit. There are some random weeks where we have days off or during Thanksgiving. I would just speak with your child and see what weeks are best for them! I loved it when my parents came to visit. Feb-06 at 06:49:00 pm
Feb 06, 18:49:11	Toni -> TulaneJulie	During Destination Tulane for Spring Scholars, what information will be shared on this day, will there be a similar panel of students to answer questions? Feb-06 at 06:44:47 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Toni	We will send the schedule as it gets closer! There will be time to speak with abroad reps, a social to meet the other prospective Spring Scholars, and a panel at the end of the day. On 2/25 the panel will be Halle, Jordana, Julia, Ashley, Sydney, Emilie, Becca. On 3/11 the panel will be Tori, Brooke, Grace, Lily, Julia, Will and Aiyana! Here's the ambassador info/bio https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/ambassadors ; Feb-06 at 06:49:10 pm
Feb 06, 18:49:32	Nicoleml -> TulaneWillB	Are there no dorms or residence halls at JCU? Feb-06 at 06:40:46 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Nicoleml	Hi Nicoleml! JCU has dorms for all residents. Feb-06 at 06:49:32 pm
Feb 06, 18:51:16	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	Is there an RA or someone else that is responsible for non-academic issues at AUP? Feb-06 at 06:38:02 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	There are many resources offered at AUP that are meant to help you adjust smoothly. You will have a student advisor and my student advisor was my biggest support system while I was there! She was a Sophomore and full time AUP student who knew her way around Paris and helped me immensely. Feb-06 at 06:51:15 pm

Feb 06, 18:51:57	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	How do you recommend packing in terms of clothes for Rome? If I need to bring jackets, what kind? Feb-06 at 06:48:11 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	Bring warm weather clothes for when you first get there! Its super hot at but then cools down and gets into the 40s-50s in the fall/winter. I would bring a jacket with you that is warmer if you choose to travel to northern Europe, which is colder than Rome. Feb-06 at 06:51:57 pm
Feb 06, 18:52:37	Jill -> TulaneJulie	Where can we access the list of Tulane approved classes for JCU? Feb-06 at 06:50:58 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jill	You can email me at ✉ jslusky@tulane.edu ! Our advisor Shelby Wood also has access to the list (swood7@tulane.edu) and would be the one helping students pick their specific courses later on Feb-06 at 06:52:37 pm
Feb 06, 18:52:59	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	How many students were you rooming with? Feb-06 at 06:50:27 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	I lived in an apartment with 6 other lovely ladies in Rome. It did get cramped at some times but was really fun and was a good bonding experience. It also teaches you how to live with a roommate if you have never had one before. Feb-06 at 06:52:59 pm
Feb 06, 18:53:10	Jill -> TulaneWillB	Will there be a packing list for bedding for Rome and Paris? Are the beds standard twin or doubles? Feb-06 at 06:41:22 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Jill	Jill- there is definitely a packing list for Rome and Paris. It's probably provided by the school itslef so I would check their website. As for Rome they do provide bedding but a lot of people brought their own. The beds are twin sized and I would recommend bringing some sort of mattress pad or buying it upon arrival in Rome. Feb-06 at 06:53:09 pm
Feb 06, 18:53:42	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	What are the coolest classes that were offered/ that you took in Paris? Feb-06 at 06:43:05 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	I took a really interesting philosophy called "History of Ancient and Medieval Philosophy." I had never been interested in Philosophy before taking this course, but my professor was very engaging and I also met a lot of my friends through this class. Another interesting course I took was "Intro to Sociocultural Anthropology" taught by Christy Shields. She was also very engaging and passionate about this field of study! Feb-06 at 06:53:42 pm
Feb 06, 18:56:49	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneWillB	Is there a difference between Paris and Rome in terms of what classes we are offered? Feb-06 at 06:53:54 pm

	TulaneWillB -> Ali_Cripps	Ali- there are the same number of classes offered in Rome and in Paris. Both programs have a similar focus as well. Feb-06 at 06:56:48 pm
Feb 06, 18:58:36	kmeister -> TulaneJulie	How is housing determined for spring scholars who choose to take classes at Loyola? Feb-06 at 06:53:16 pm
	TulaneJulie -> kmeister	In the past 2 years, Spring Scholars who took classes at Loyola were not able to live on campus, and found one semester sublets in off-campus housing nearby. The Facebook group Tulane Classifieds is the best way to do so! Our contact at Loyola, Tharren Poplion (poplion@loyno.edu), is the best person to ask if there is any possibility at living on Loyola's campus. I do believe it's a possibility, but cannot be guaranteed until closer to the semester Feb-06 at 06:58:36 pm
Feb 06, 18:59:22	Jill -> TulaneJulie	When can I expect my acceptance packet from JCU since I applied and was admitted in December? Feb-06 at 06:57:50 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Jill	Since it is a separate university and just a partnership with us, I'm not sure exactly which materials/when they send them to students. The best person to ask is our Rome contact Lauren Rice (lrice@johncabot.edu)! Feb-06 at 06:59:22 pm
Feb 06, 19:00:06	Nic -> TulaneWillB	Do students take 15 or 18 credits while abroad in Rome or Paris? Feb-06 at 06:58:03 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Nic	Hi Nic! People usually take 15-16 credits while abroad for their first semester. Feb-06 at 07:00:06 pm
Feb 06, 19:00:10	Mercedes -> TulaneCharlotte	Best meal you had in Paris? Feb-06 at 06:59:22 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Mercedes	The best meal I had in Paris was at this restaurant called Pink Mama! Highly recommend! Feb-06 at 07:00:10 pm
Feb 06, 19:02:51	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneAiyana	My interests surround psychology and early childhood education, would it be hard for me to find classes that will fulfill requirements while abroad? Feb-06 at 07:00:54 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Ali_Cripps	Yes, they have psychology courses available in both Paris and Rome. Feb-06 at 07:02:51 pm
Feb 06, 19:03:23	Nic -> TulaneAshlin	What are the downsides to being a Spring Scholar? Feb-06 at 06:59:33 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Nic	The biggest downside I had was trying to figure out what I wanted to do for my semester off since I had the world to explore and so many opportunities that I could have taken. After that it was probably realizing your semester off experience would be coming to an end but that's not so bad when you realize all the opportunities that you can find here. Feb-06 at 07:03:23 pm

Feb 06, 19:04:30	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneCharlotte	Was it easy to find the vanity stuff (shampoo, conditioner, face wash, etc.) you normally use or did you have to adjust to what they have in Paris? Feb-06 at 07:01:59 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Nivetha_Kumar	It was very easy to find all the toiletries I needed since there was a grocery store and a pharmacy right down the street from me. My friends in different neighborhoods didn't have any trouble finding the toiletries they needed. Feb-06 at 07:04:30 pm
Feb 06, 19:05:11	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	How many people are typically in each class at AUP? Feb-06 at 07:03:41 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	My biggest class was about 20 people! This was nice because you never felt confused or lost in a class! Feb-06 at 07:05:11 pm
Feb 06, 19:05:46	Maddie -> TulaneCharlotte	What percentage of students participate in greek life in the spring? Feb-06 at 07:04:15 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Maddie	Overall, 40% of students are in Greek life. We don't have any specific statistics for spring scholars. Feb-06 at 07:05:46 pm
Feb 06, 19:06:23	kmeister -> TulaneJulie	For people who choose to take classes at Loyola, do they often live with other spring scholars off campus? Feb-06 at 07:03:58 pm
	TulaneJulie -> kmeister	Yes, typically in the past, Spring Scholars who go to Loyola have met each other through our Facebook Spring Scholars group and connected to find off-campus housing to sublet Feb-06 at 07:06:23 pm
Feb 06, 19:09:03	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneDominique	How long were you in Paris/Rome before classes actually began? Did you have time to explore a little before? Feb-06 at 07:05:50 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Ali_Cripps	I was there for about 3-4 days before orientation for Rome started. This was the perfect amount of time for me to find my way around and where the grocery stores are essentials places were. Feb-06 at 07:09:03 pm
Feb 06, 19:11:23	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneWillB	Are you allowed to bring support animals abroad? Feb-06 at 07:09:39 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Ali_Cripps	Ali- I am not sure. I would contact the school and ask, but I'm sure they would accomodate. Feb-06 at 07:11:23 pm
Feb 06, 19:12:15	Max_Lichtenberger1 -> TulaneJulie	How many spring scholars go to Rome vs Paris? Feb-06 at 07:10:03 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Max_Lichtenberger1	In the past we had more Spring Scholars go to Rome since we started that program a year before Paris. The numbers were approx. 70 vs 25 this year, but we're seeing that they are beginning to even out for this upcoming year numbers-wise Feb-06 at 07:12:15 pm

Feb 06, 19:13:09	Lily -> TulaneCharlotte	How early are you able to move into AUP? Feb-06 at 07:11:08 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Lily	I moved in a week before classes started so I could attend the orientation events. Feb-06 at 07:13:08 pm
Feb 06, 19:15:03	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneJulie	Are there any videos on YouTube that talk about the Spring Scholars program? Feb-06 at 07:12:02 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Nivetha_Kumar	None that were created by our office, but there's a few when you search online!  https://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=spring+scholars+tulane ;Feb-06 at 07:15:03 pm
Feb 06, 19:17:48	Nivetha_Kumar -> TulaneCharlotte	Did any of the protests in Paris affect your daily life in any way? Feb-06 at 07:14:52 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Nivetha_Kumar	I lived fairly close to the protests and they were definitely inconvenient, but since I travelled most weekends I was able to avoid them! They were also pretty contained and did not affect me personally. Feb-06 at 07:17:47 pm
Feb 06, 19:19:24	Flea -> TulaneJulie	Since Spring Rush is designed for students to get acclimated to life on campus in NOLA & an opportunity to learn more about each of the fraternities/sororities more so than when it was first semester...Do you think spring scholars are @ a disadvantage? I'd like to also know what percentage of students who were spring scholars & rush fraternities/sororities... get a bid. Feb-06 at 07:13:59 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Flea	That is one reason why there is Spring rush, but the overall goal by the Greek life office was to ensure that students are academically capable to balance being in Greek Life with academics and other commitments as well. I do not believe Spring Scholars are at a disadvantage for rush since often times freshmen may not know upperclassman in other sororities before rushing. Also, Spring Scholars typically have more to discuss during rush, which could help. This year a higher percentage of Spring Scholars were placed into sororities than the percentage of fall-starting freshmen Feb-06 at 07:19:24 pm
Feb 06, 19:21:04	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone! Questions have started to slow down, so please get your questions in in the next fifteen minutes or so. Thanks! Feb-06 at 07:21:03 pm
Feb 06, 19:21:28	Flea -> TulaneJulie	How many students are in the spring scholars class (total # of students) Feb-06 at 07:16:37 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Flea	There were 83 Spring 2019, 174 this Spring 2019, and approx. 70 are currently enrolled to begin Spring 2020 as of now. There's still time for this number to grow until May 1st! Feb-06 at 07:21:28 pm

Feb 06, 19:23:46	Ella -> TulaneCharlotte	How many people do you room with in the apartments in Paris? Feb-06 at 07:22:23 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Ella	I roomed with 3 other girls who were spring scholars (2 were Tulane spring scholars and my personal roommate goes to use now). Most of the apartments house 4 people but some house 6 or 8. Feb-06 at 07:23:46 pm
Feb 06, 19:23:58	Jack -> TulaneWillB	Can we also rush in the spring of our sophomore year if we want to get a sense of the campus beforehand Feb-06 at 07:21:30 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Jack	Hi Jack! Yes you can. I know plenty of people who are doing that and many people do that in general as well. Feb-06 at 07:23:58 pm
Feb 06, 19:26:07	Dar -> TulaneDominique	Hi, is anyone a chem/bio major and went to Rome ? How are you planning to make up the classes since there are not many sciences abroad? Feb-06 at 07:20:45 pm
	TulaneDominique -> Dar	Since abroad does not offer a ton of science classes, you should take your chemistry and biology intro classes when you get to Tulane. Chemistry is a year long course, so you start general chemistry as a sophomore (this isn't weird at all, a ton of sophomores take general chemistry). As well, student don't have to choose their major until sophomore year, so you won't be behind! Feb-06 at 07:26:06 pm
Feb 06, 19:26:42	Barrie -> TulaneCorbin	Can you request a particular dorm, as well as a roommate? Feb-06 at 07:24:37 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Barrie	You are given the option of selecting your preferred dorms and a roommate, but you are not guaranteed your dorm or roommate due to limited openings in each dorm room. Feb-06 at 07:26:42 pm
Feb 06, 19:26:58	Dar -> TulaneAshlin	For spring scholars who come back in the spring, will we room with upper classmen and how is placement arranged? Feb-06 at 07:24:41 pm
	TulaneAshlin -> Dar	Spring scholars will still get random placement like the rest of the class, the difference is it will be more based on availability. They will try to keep you with a freshmen or in freshmen housing though. Feb-06 at 07:26:58 pm
Feb 06, 19:29:07	Eva -> TulaneCharlotte	How do we choose roommates when we go abroad, and how do we choose roommates when we start at Tulane Feb-06 at 07:25:22 pm
	TulaneCharlotte -> Eva	There's a roommate survey that you have to take and housing tries to match you up with someone who is similar to you. If you want to request someone as a roommate abroad this is also possible. I didn't request anyone but my roommate and I got along very well and I'm actually going to visit her at USC over spring break. At Tulane, I requested my best friend from Paris and luckily got paired with her at

		Tulane. This is a very rare case though. Feb-06 at 07:29:07 pm
Feb 06, 19:30:40	Brennen -> TulaneWillB	How long is the semester abroad in Rome? Do you get off for winter break at the same time as the fall Tulane students? Feb-06 at 07:25:17 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Brennen	Hi Brennan! I'm not sure what the exact dates are but I was in Europe from August 28th to December 15th. I'm not sure if the winter break lines up identically but my winter break was on par with my other friends at American colleges. To be sure I would check the school's academic calendar. Feb-06 at 07:30:40 pm
Feb 06, 19:30:59	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneJulie	Are there a greater number of classes that will transfer for credit then there are at the abroad programs? Feb-06 at 07:24:29 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Ali_Cripps	There are approx 18/20 classes at both Paris and Rome that are pre-approved for Transfer. Classes at Loyola and other universities will be approved on a case-by-case basis. Question 7 on FAQs shows what is likely to transfer: https://admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/faqs ; Feb-06 at 07:30:59 pm
Feb 06, 19:32:54	sschuler -> TulaneAiyana	When you get back to Tulane do you take a roommate questionnaire or are you just placed randomly? Feb-06 at 07:29:08 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> sschuler	Yes you do take a roommate questionnaire. Housing will do the best they can to place you in a freshman dorm, but it is not guaranteed you will be with freshman. Feb-06 at 07:32:54 pm
Feb 06, 19:34:34	Dar -> TulaneWillB	Can you recommend any good classes/professors that were good in Rome? Feb-06 at 07:29:08 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Dar	Hi Dar! My favorite class was Ancient Roman and Italian History with Massimo Betello. He is hilarious and the course was super thorough, I loved it! Also there is a class that involves walking around the city each class, actually visiting the monuments, and then learning about them. I forget the name but people loved it and I wish I had taken it. Feb-06 at 07:34:34 pm
Feb 06, 19:37:26	Ali_Cripps -> TulaneAiyana	I plan to major in psychology and I assume that intro to psych is a prerequisite for any upper level psych classes. I didn't see intro psych listed as an approved class to transfer credits at the Rome program. I'm concerned about being at a disadvantage and behind in my major. Is this true? Feb-06 at 07:29:35 pm
	TulaneAiyana -> Ali_Cripps	Many Spring Scholars have taken psych 1000 while in both Rome and Paris. Even if the credits do not transfer for some reason you will not be at a disadvantage. I am a psychology major taking Intro to Psych this spring and I am definitely still on track! Feb-06 at 07:37:25 pm

Feb 06, 19:37:40	Eva -> TulaneJulie	Are you at any disadvantage if you join the abroad Spring Scholars program later? Will you be missing any important information or rooming info? Feb-06 at 07:31:51 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Eva	I do not believe you'll be at a disadvantage. If you join late, they will send you all of that information. However, if you are interested at all in either of the abroad programs , their acceptances are non-binding. You can apply now if you want and then decide by May 1st! Feb-06 at 07:37:40 pm
Feb 06, 19:37:43	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Hi everyone! The chat will end in five minutes. Feb-06 at 07:37:43 pm
Feb 06, 19:38:45	Dar -> TulaneJulie	If you decide to take classes in the fall locally, who do you have to contact at Tulane to make sure they will transfer? Feb-06 at 07:32:40 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Dar	Speak with advisor Shelby Wood (swood7@tulane.edu) once you decide for sure that it is what you want to do! Feb-06 at 07:38:45 pm
Feb 06, 19:39:32	Max_Lichtenberger1 -> TulaneCorbin	Do students who study at Loyola in the fall meet Tulane students at all? Or are they totally separate Feb-06 at 07:37:26 pm
	TulaneCorbin -> Max_Lichtenberger1	Tulane and Loyola are connected so you are going to meet students from Loyola and vice versa. We also share access to both dining facilities so you may end up at the Orleans Room on Loyola's campus or see some Loyola students at Bruff! Feb-06 at 07:39:32 pm
Feb 06, 19:41:58	Dar -> TulaneWillB	How often were you able to go away on the weekends with homework? Can you arrange your schedule to take classes from Monday through Thursday in Rome? Feb-06 at 07:37:45 pm
	TulaneWillB -> Dar	Dar- I had friends who took trips out of Rome about 10 different times and they were able to maintain their work. I traveled out Rome about 5-6 times and easily stayed on top of my work. As for your schedule they are way ahead of you- at JCU there are no classes on Fridays! Feb-06 at 07:41:58 pm
Feb 06, 19:42:53	Flea -> TulaneJulie	Do students that do the semester @ loyola have a better advantage w/acclimating when they start in the spring semester? Feb-06 at 07:41:08 pm
	TulaneJulie -> Flea	It depends on what you're looking for! They may be more knowledgeable about the surrounding area/Tulane organizations. However, students that go abroad may know more people due to going as a collective group. Neither has a full-fledged advantage over the other, it just depends on personal preference Feb-06 at 07:42:53 pm
Feb 06, 19:43:24	Laney_Jacobson -> TulaneDominique	Is it easy to stay active/work out often in Rome? Feb-06 at 07:40:52 pm

	TulaneDominique -> Laney_Jacobson	Yes! You walk a ton in Rome and there is gym at JCU that is very easy to access. Feb-06 at 07:43:24 pm
Feb 06, 19:43:35	TulaneDominique -> Everyone	It was so fun answering your questions! If you have any more questions or just want to chat, feel free to email me or text me.
