Mar 25, 17:59:09	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Welcome to the Tulane Transfer Chat. We will get started in a few minutes once everyone has a chance to log on. Thanks Mar-25 at 05:59:09 pm
Mar 25, 18:00:54	TulaneJill -> Everyone	Hi everyone! My name is Jill deRosas and I am the transfer admission counselor - so you have probably received a lot of emails from me! I am excited to chat with you all and answer your questions. Mar-25 at 06:00:54 pm
Mar 25, 18:00:55	TulaneRep -> Everyone	Hello everyone my name is Katy! I transferred to Tulane in the fall of 2018. I was born and raised in Novi, Michigan. I am currently pursuing a major in Classical Studies. Before coming to Tulane, I was a student at a state university in Western Michigan for two years. Unfortunately, I did not have a good experience because I was not able to envision myself in any of the limited majors offered by my previous university. What led me to Tulane were my roots: I am proud to say I am a third generation Tulane student in my family. In my first semester at Tulane, I have been able to experience different subjects and actually declare a major! Here at Tulane, I take full advantage of the resources offered to students from the tutoring center, to the Goldman Center for Student Accessibility. Additionally, I have a work-study position with Office of International Students & Scholars. Mar-25 at 06:00:55 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:00	TulaneShelby -> Everyone	Hi! I am an academic advisor and work with incoming transfer students. Looking forward to hearing your questions! Mar-25 at 06:01:00 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:04	TulaneChrisG -> Everyone	Hi! My name is Chris Giacobelli and I am from a small town just 35 minutes from New York City called Suffern, New York. I am a double major in Marketing and Economics. I transferred to Tulane in the Fall of 2019 and it has easily been the best decision I've ever made. I visited Tulane before I even considered transferring and after my visit, I immediately submitted my application. New Orleans in itself has pushed me out of my comfort zone and allowed me to have experiences I never thought I'd have. What I love about Tulane is that there is something here for everyone. I myself am a member of Delta Sigma Pi which is a professional business fraternity. The students and faculty made the transfer process very easy and less stressful than I thought it would be which was very nice coming here. I am forever grateful for all the opportunities Tulane has given me to allow me to grow as a person. If you have any questions don't hesitate to contact me! Mar-25 at 06:01:04 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:05	TulaneSuzzette -> Everyone	Suzzette Montgomery Hi! I am from Houston, Texas, and I am currently a junior. I attended a small liberal arts college in upstate New York for my freshman year of college, but I wanted to move closer to home and have access to great food, so New Orleans instantly caught my attention. I was attracted to Tulane because of the variety and flexibility that the school offers in the courses and majoring opportunities. I am currently double majoring in English and Philosophy on a pre-med track. I have worked on campus in the sports medicine department, Riley Rec center, have become involved in BSU, and I have participated in community service. Tulane has made my transfer experience smooth and simple, I highly recommend it Mar-25 at 06:01:05 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:15	TulaneDillon -> Everyone	Hi! I am from New Orleans, and I am a Neuroscience major. I am also a Phi Theta Kappa member and a first-generation college student. Before transferring to Tulane, I had earned an Associate of General Studies from a local community college. I wanted to continue my academic progress and found the perfect fit at Tulane! My favorite aspects about Tulane are the incredibly kind staff and the numerous clubs and activities the university offers. Since coming to Tulane, I have been able to meet so many unique individuals and make so many friends. I hope to help you out in any way I can! Mar-25 at 06:01:15 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:18	TulaneAloysius -> Everyone	Good evening everyone! My name is Aloysius (Aloe-wish-us) and I support transfer students as well as Public Health majors and students in the process of exploring their major path. Excited to help out tonight :) Mar-25 at 06:01:18 pm
Mar 25, 18:01:28	TulaneRachel -> Everyone	Hi, I'm Rachel Weber (she/her/hers) and I am a Program Coordinator for New Student and Leadership Programs. I oversee Transfer Student Orientation and the Transfer Mentor Program. Nice to virtually meet you! Mar-25 at 06:01:28 pm
Mar 25, 18:03:26	jozaro -> TulaneJill	which one of the plans that WES offer its the one that you need about my transcripts ? Mar-25 at 05:56:59 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro! We need the course-by-course evaluation that translate all courses, credits, and grade. Mar-25 at 06:03:26 pm

Mar 25, 18:05:56	Philip -> TulaneShelby	Where do transfers usually live? Mar-25 at 06:03:46 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Philip	Hi Philip- It's a mix! Some live on campus and some off campus in the neighborhood. On campus housing is not guaranteed for incoming transfer students, so many do choose off campus. Mar-25 at 06:05:56 pm
Mar 25, 18:08:10	Greta -> TulaneRep	How feasible and safe is it to live off campus? Is there a general area where most transfers live? Mar-25 at 05:56:20 pm
	TulaneRep -> Greta	I would say it is feasible to live off campus (especially with friends!), and with anything you will be living in a big city of New Orleans. So it is important to be safe and know that the closer you are to Tulane - the better. There is no specific area for transfer students but rentals surrounding less than 2 miles around Tulane are primarily for students. I found a lot of success in connecting with other Transfer students to finding housing on Facebook. Later on if you find more friends through your classes or other activities you can find housing with them as well! Mar-25 at 06:08:10 pm
Mar 25, 18:08:15	Jade -> TulaneJill	Why haven't I been contacted about housing when I paid my deposit in the beginning of February? Mar-25 at 06:04:11 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, once you enroll at Tulane, you receive a Tulane ID and create your password. You will need to complete a new student housing application and they will let you know about on-campus housing availability in the summer. You can find more information here: https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-logistics/new-student-housing-application ; Mar-25 at 06:08:15 pm
Mar 25, 18:08:20	Alie -> TulaneShelby	My school has given its students the option to change their courses to pass/fail now that classes are online. What is your policy for taking those credits? Mar-25 at 06:05:32 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Alie	Hi Alie- If the course is approved to transfer, and you pass the class, we will accept the credits. We are doing something similar for our current students, so are very understanding of the situation. Mar-25 at 06:08:20 pm
Mar 25, 18:08:30	laurenlake -> TulaneDillon	Hi my name is Lauren Lake and I am a prospective transfer student! I was wondering what the transition was like as a transfer student at Tulane and what Tulane does to help transfer students join the Tulane experience and meet other students. Thanks! Mar-25 at 05:55:46 pm
	TulaneDillon -> laurenlake	Hi Lauren! There is an orientation specifically for transfer students and there is usually one or two events for exclusively for them. When I transferred, there was a swamp tour and a meeting at a nearby park called The Fly. As far as meeting non-transfer students, at the beginning of every semester there is an activity expo where you can meet all of the different organizations at Tulane which is where I met most of my current friends. Mar-25 at 06:08:29 pm
Mar 25, 18:09:05	jozaro -> TulaneJill	I cannot find the score for the IELTS test do you know ? Mar-25 at 06:04:46 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hello, if you have taken the IELTS exam, you should be able to see and send your scores here: https://www.ielts.org/en-us ; Mar-25 at 06:09:05 pm
Mar 25, 18:09:07	Adam -> TulaneChrisG	Hi I'm Adam Fallis from NYC and I am applying as a transfer student for the upcoming fall semester. I am planning on doing a biology major but would also like to double major or minor in economics. Is this recommended at Tulane? Are students pursuing double majors and is it a common occurrence? Thank you so much! Mar-25 at 06:04:37 pm
	TulaneChrisG -> Adam	Hi Adam! We do have a lot of students that pursue double majors across schools. Depending on your credits and when you want to graduate I would definitely make an appointment with your advisor to see if you can fit a double major. Pursuing biology and economics would be fine if those are your two interests. Mar-25 at 06:09:07 pm
Mar 25, 18:09:24	delwood -> TulaneRachel	Hello. Are there any events for the transfer community? Do transfers get roomed together? Mar-25 at 06:05:54 pm
	TulaneRachel -> delwood	Hello! There are events throughout the fall semester for transfer students! The Transfer Mentors will be leading Orientation and will also facilitate regular events during the year. Transfer students don't necessarily get roomed together - it's all just based on the availability of campus housing. Our Housing and Residence Life team is great, though. If you apply for housing and have a preferred roommate, you can reach out to housing@tulane.edu to talk to them about your likelihood of being placed together. There's also a Transfer student facebook group where you can find other students looking for a roommate. Mar-25 at 06:09:24 pm
Mar 25, 18:09:27	Jonathan -> TulaneJill	Is the common application preferred over applying on Tulane's website? Mar-25 at 06:03:22 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jonathan	Hi Jonathan, we do not have a preference! Both are free so it is up to you which one is easier for you to send. Mar-25 at 06:09:27 pm

Mar 25, 18:09:52	Lili -> TulaneShelby	Is there a placement test for english or foreign language classes? Would this take the place of any transfer credits? Mar-25 at 06:07:54 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Lili	Hi Lil- There is a placement for English for international students only. For foreign language, you would take an online placement to determine your appropriate level. These placements do not grant any credits. Mar-25 at 06:09:52 pm
Mar 25, 18:10:21	Stella -> TulaneChrisG	Corny question, but what is your favorite thing about New Orleans? Mar-25 at 06:03:03 pm
	TulaneChrisG -> Stella	Hi Stella! Definitely the culture that surrounds the city. There is no place like New Orleans in the entire world. Between the food, festivals, and everything the city has to offer there is always something to do. Mar-25 at 06:10:21 pm
Mar 25, 18:10:24	Philip -> TulaneSuzzette	Was it hard for you to make friends when you first got to Tulane? Mar-25 at 06:05:16 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> Philip	Hi Philip, it was a little difficult to make friends until I got involved in clubs and organizations on Tulane's campus. Being active on campus really helped me make friends. Also, I made friends with like one or two people and was adopted into their friend group. Mar-25 at 06:10:24 pm
Mar 25, 18:10:45	Gigi_J. -> TulaneAloysius	Is there a minimum number of credits needed to transfer? Also I did not take an English course at my current university but I have AP credits is that okay? Mar-25 at 06:05:13 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Gigi_J.	Hey Gigi! You need at least a minimum of 12 credits in progress to apply as a transfer student. We will accept your AP credits, but there is additional writing component you would have to complete as part of our core curriculum. These courses are offered through several departments like English, History and Philosophy! Mar-25 at 06:10:45 pm
Mar 25, 18:10:51	madi_medoff -> TulaneJill	Hi everyone! My name is Madi and I am a prospective transfer student! I applied to Tulane my senior year and was deferred- I was wondering if applicants who reapply as a transfer have any better of a shot in being accepted? Mar-25 at 06:07:54 pm
	TulaneJill -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi, I am happy to hear you are thinking of reapplying! We certainly love to see that sort of interest in Tulane, but every student is evaluated equally in the process. Having applied before does not hurt your application though, only help :) Mar-25 at 06:10:50 pm
Mar 25, 18:12:40	Jessica -> TulaneShelby	If we have taken foreign language courses, does Tulane take those credits? Mar-25 at 06:10:44 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Jessica	Hi Jessica- yes, we accept transfer credits for foreign languages. Though each class (in all disciplines) would be reviewed on a case by case basis. Mar-25 at 06:12:40 pm
Mar 25, 18:13:03	Nicole -> TulaneRachel	Are resources available for students who are new to the area and need pointers for securing off campus housing? Mar-25 at 06:07:23 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Nicole	There's a great Off Campus Housing Guide here: https://governmentrelations.tulane.edu/sites/governmentrelations.tulane.edu/files/Off-Campus%20Living%20Guide%202019_lo-res.pdf In addition to this resource, our transfer student facebook pages and the Tulane Classifieds page can be helpful for figuring out where to live, who to live with, and what to watch out for. There are always people looking for roommates, looking for subletters, and/or are happy to give advice about good areas for Tulane students. Mar-25 at 06:13:03 pm
Mar 25, 18:13:18	delwood -> TulaneChrisG	As a transfer, is it hard to complete the double major in marketing/econ in 4 years? I am planning on double majoring in something similar Mar-25 at 06:09:21 pm
	TulaneChrisG -> delwood	Hello Delwood. Depending on how many credits you enter Tulane with it could be manageable to pursue a double major in econ and marketing within 4 years. Personally, I am taking an extra semester to finish my degree but it is different for everyone. I would recommend taking summer classes for business core classes to get ahead as well. Mar-25 at 06:13:18 pm
Mar 25, 18:14:14	Adam -> TulaneShelby	What resources are available for transfer students to make the transition easier? Mar-25 at 06:10:40 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Adam	Hi Adam- we have a group of transfer mentors, students that transferred to Tulane previously who help new students get adjusted through regular meetings, events etc. We also have Success Coaching - a great resource for all students, but especially helpful when transferring: https://success.tulane.edu/coaching/academic-success-coaching ;Mar-25 at 06:14:13 pm
Mar 25, 18:14:21	Nicole -> TulaneAloysius	Hi! Hope everyone is staying safe during this time! @Aloysius , I would love to learn more about how you support public health majors. I am interested in pursuing a double major in public health and environmental studies. Do you advise on class selection, research opportunities, internship and career possibilities!? Mar-25 at 06:06:17 pm

	TulaneAloysius -> Nicole	Hi Nicole, thanks for your kind words! As an academic advisor, I work with Public Health students to help them stay on track with their Newcomb-Tulane College graduation requirements. In addition the support we offer, Public Health students have access to Career Services, Advising through the School of Public Health and the ability to do research with their faculty! Mar-25 at 06:14:21 pm
Mar 25, 18:14:32	Philip -> TulaneRachel	How would I be able to find somewhere off campus to live if I don't know anyone at Tulane? Mar-25 at 06:06:44 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Philip	For general resources, we have our Off Campus Guide here: https://governmentrelations.tulane.edu/sites/governmentrelations.tulane.edu/files/Off-Campus%20Living%20Guide%202019_lo-res.pdf I recommend joining Tulane Classifieds and doing some research on sites like Zillow or Craigslist just to get a sense of the prices in the university area (uptown). Lots of people are looking for roommates or subletters for next year! Mar-25 at 06:14:32 pm
Mar 25, 18:15:29	laurenlake -> TulaneSuzzette	What are some ways transfer students can get involved and feel apart of the campus culture since freshman year is usually when most students do that? Mar-25 at 06:08:17 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> laurenlake	Hey Lauren, personally, I hung out in the Office of Multicultural affairs (The O) and found ways to get involved and feel apart of the campus culture there, but Tulane also has the club/organization expo where you can find some clubs you're interested in there. You can also go to the job fair too and find jobs you like there. Mar-25 at 06:15:29 pm
Mar 25, 18:15:59	Jade -> TulaneJill	Who do I contact about financial aid? Mar-25 at 06:08:55 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	You can find out who your financial aid counselor is here: https://financialaid.tulane.edu/meet-us/counselors/undergraduate#list . Please feel free to contact them directly! Mar-25 at 06:15:59 pm
Mar 25, 18:16:03	Alie -> TulaneRachel	I understand we transfer students have our own orientation but are we allowed to participate in first-year or freshman activities? Mar-25 at 06:13:02 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Alie	Yes! Transfer students will have a special reception on Tuesday, August 18 and then will be able to attend all New Student Orientation programs with all other new students. Our transfer student mentors will serve as your Orientation leaders. Mar-25 at 06:16:03 pm
Mar 25, 18:16:41	madi_medoff -> TulaneAloysius	I was also wondering what Tulane's public health program is like in comparison to George Washington University's (where I am currently enrolled). I really love the major and know of its prestige at Tulane but because it isn't located in DC I was curious about the different opportunities it offers for its students. Mar-25 at 06:12:04 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> madi_medoff	Hello Madi, I'm not familiar with the Public Health program at GWU. What I like about our Public Health program is we offer courses in several different specialties based on your interests, have many study abroad opportunities and resources to help students get connected in the field in New Orleans and throughout the world! Mar-25 at 06:16:41 pm
Mar 25, 18:16:51	jozaro -> TulaneJill	Yes, I already have my score, but the score for transfer students admitted at the university Mar-25 at 06:09:42 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro, we are usually looking for an IELTS score of 6.5 Mar-25 at 06:16:50 pm
Mar 25, 18:17:22	TulaneJordan -> Everyone	Hi everyone! I'm Jordan Moos. I just joined the chat! I'm a premed student who's majoring in public health. I am also a member of greek life and club soccer. Mar-25 at 06:17:21 pm
Mar 25, 18:18:40	Lili -> TulaneShelby	Is there anything I need to do to get credit for a class that's been marked as "consult department," or am I just waiting to hear back? Also, how do I get credit for AP classes I took in high school? Mar-25 at 06:17:08 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Lili	Hi Lili- No further action needed for "consult department"! That means we've sent the syllabus to the department and are still waiting to hear back from them. For AP, please have your scores sent to Tulane. You can request this through the College Board website. Mar-25 at 06:18:40 pm
Mar 25, 18:18:52	Greta -> TulaneRachel	What is the parking situation for off campus students? Mar-25 at 06:12:38 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Greta	Off campus students can get a Commuter Permit from Campus Services! You can find more information at the following link: https://campusservices.tulane.edu/departments/parking/uptown/student-permit-information ; Mar-25 at 06:18:51 pm
Mar 25, 18:19:31	jozaro -> TulaneAloysius	How do I know if you can transfer all my credits from the university? or its gonna be evaluated and then im gonna know how many of them are approved? Im asking because im on the second year at Business Administration major in Economics here in Chile and I really want to be in your university but just if a got most of my credits because here its longer the major and harder Mar-25 at 06:13:33 pm

	TulaneAloysius -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro. Once you are accepted to Tulane, our faculty will review your coursework to determine how they would count for credit at Tulane. Mar-25 at 06:19:31 pm
Mar 25, 18:20:08	Lili -> TulaneRachel	Do I have a Tulane email account yet? I have accepted my enrollment but not yet paid the deposit. Mar-25 at 06:14:42 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Lili	You will get your Tulane email once you have paid your deposit! Mar-25 at 06:20:08 pm
Mar 25, 18:20:54	Jonathan -> TulaneJordan	How prominent is greek life throughout the social scene of Tulane? Mar-25 at 06:11:01 pm
	TulaneJordan -> Jonathan	Hi Johnathon! I'm actually a member of greek life myself. About half my friends are in greek life while the other half are not. You're greek life experience is what you make it! It's been a great way for me to meet people and find my group on campus. I know my other friends who are not in Greek life still have an active social life and have met plenty of wonderful people outside of the Greek realm. Plus, more times than not, you'll make friends with Greek members and they'll invite you to their functions as I have with my friends. Mar-25 at 06:20:53 pm
Mar 25, 18:21:42	Elizabeth -> TulaneJill	Hi! My name is Elizabeth, and I'm a prospective transfer. I'd planned to come down for a visit next month, but that has changed because of COVID-19. Does the fact that applicants in my position won't have visited affect the decision process at all? Mar-25 at 06:16:19 pm
	TulaneJill -> Elizabeth	Hi Elizabeth - I am sorry your visit plans have changed. We absolutely understand the circumstances and this will not impact your admission. Please feel free to view our virtual page to see what we have to offer virtually for more information about TU: https://admission.tulane.edu/virtual-visiting . Mar-25 at 06:21:42 pm
Mar 25, 18:22:28	Jade -> TulaneShelby	How do I figure out my class requirements? Mar-25 at 06:19:24 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Jade	Hi Jade- I would recommend scheduling an appointment with your academic advisor (who might be me!) to discuss how your transfer credits cover Tulane requirements, and which you'd still need to complete. Mar-25 at 06:22:28 pm
Mar 25, 18:23:21	Jessica -> TulaneJordan	If I am apart of a sorority already, will I be able to continue on Tulane's campus? I know this may not be an area of expertise for this particular thread Mar-25 at 06:18:39 pm
	TulaneJordan -> Jessica	Yes! As long as your chapter is on campus and they vote you in. If your chapter is not on campus, you can't transfer into another sorority group. Fro example, if you are in Delta Gamma at USC, you can't go through rush again at Tulane and join Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mar-25 at 06:23:21 pm
Mar 25, 18:23:42	Senal -> TulaneRachel	What resources/programs are available to transfer students to help integrate themselves into the campus community? Mar-25 at 06:16:39 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Senal	The Transfer Mentor Program links you with a peer mentor and provides programming throughout the year to connect with transfer student. My office, New Student and Leadership Programs, also does a lot of programming to help new students adjust - all of that is always open to transfer students. We also have an awesome Transfer Experience Intern in our office, Shenu, who is happy to meet with any transfer students who want to get more connected or just want to chat. You can follow us on Instagram at @tulanenslp and @transfersoftu for more updates on our programming! Mar-25 at 06:23:42 pm
Mar 25, 18:23:44	madi_medoff -> TulaneJill	Since Tulane is rolling admissions for transfers, does applying early or later help/hinder your chances of acceptance? Mar-25 at 06:18:13 pm
	TulaneJill -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi, the earlier you apply, the better! Since it is rolling, the later on in the process there is a possibility that we fill our class which can make for a more competitive acceptance. We always recommend applying as early as you can also to give you enough time to get transfer credit evaluations and financial aid before making a decision. Mar-25 at 06:23:44 pm
Mar 25, 18:25:06	Adam -> TulaneSuzzette	I am planning on doing research at Tulane. What organizations, programs, and initiatives can you state specifically that will help me get connected with the faculty? Is it relatively easy to get involved in research? Mar-25 at 06:18:22 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> Adam	Hey Adam, from my experience, the best way to get involved with research is to contact a specific professor or the head of the department (to recommend a professor). I did this in regard to philosophical research/the philosophy department, but some of my friends have done this for science classes/research as well. Mar-25 at 06:25:06 pm
Mar 25, 18:26:43	Nicole -> TulaneAloysius	How do we find out who our academic advisor is? Mar-25 at 06:23:05 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Nicole	Hi Nicole! Transfer students with last names starting with A-K are assigned to me, transfer students with last names starting with L-Z work work with Shelby Wood. Our contact information can be found on the advising website: https://advising.tulane.edu/newcomb-tulane-college-advising/transfer-students ; Mar-25 at 06:26:43 pm

Mar 25, 18:26:53	Nicole -> TulaneJordan	E@Jordan , what type of public health/pre-med research opportunities have you pursued at Tulane? Is the pre-med community highly competitive? Mar-25 at 06:19:13 pm
	TulaneJordan -> Nicole	Great question. So this semester, I'm doing Alzheimer's research as part of my service learning with Dr. V my Genetics/Bio professor. I am also part of Tulane's 4+1 program where I earn my bachelors and masters in five years in public health. I plan to do most of my research during my masters in the lab. I know my other premed friends who are doing research now found their opportunities quite easily. They just emailed all the professors in the science and neuroscience departments until someone responded. Professors love having students work with them. Mar-25 at 06:26:53 pm
Mar 25, 18:28:17	Lili -> TulaneShelby	Where can I find a guideline of all the classes I'll need to take? What are Tulane's gen ed requirements? I'm currently a freshman anthropology major planning on double majoring in anthropology and linguistics! Mar-25 at 06:24:41 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Lili	Hi Lili- I would recommend you schedule an academic advising appointment to discuss your remaining requirements and to discuss a fall schedule. You can email ✉ advising@tulane.edu to get connected with your advisor. Mar-25 at 06:28:17 pm
Mar 25, 18:28:22	Lili -> TulaneRachel	How much housing is usually available to transfers? Is it likely that there won't be any on campus housing available to me? Any recommendations on where to live on campus? Mar-25 at 06:22:42 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Lili	The amount of housing available really depends on the size of our first-year class and the number of returning students who choose to live on campus - those things we won't really know until May. It is likely that you may be offered housing, but usually it happens later in the summer. If you apply to live on campus, you won't necessarily be able to preference a hall - since housing is so limited, they try to fill up every spot. Some students prefer to sign a lease to find a sure thing, and others may sublease for a while to see if they are offered on-campus housing. Mar-25 at 06:28:22 pm
Mar 25, 18:28:56	jozaro -> TulaneJill	I need financial aid, can I have a scholarship? Mar-25 at 06:20:51 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro, all transfer students are considered for partial merit scholarships up to $20,000 :) Mar-25 at 06:28:56 pm
Mar 25, 18:30:05	madi_medoff -> TulaneJill	Would now be too late to apply then? Mar-25 at 06:24:53 pm
	TulaneJill -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi, no! It is not too late the apply. The deadline for the application and materials is April 15th. Mar-25 at 06:30:04 pm
Mar 25, 18:30:43	Alie -> TulaneJill	I am waiting on a recommendation, can I submit my application and have it sent after? Mar-25 at 06:27:13 pm
	TulaneJill -> Alie	Hi Alie, yes! Your recommender can send the letter to ✉ submit@tulane.edu Mar-25 at 06:30:43 pm
Mar 25, 18:32:08	olimc -> TulaneChrisG	Hi everyone! I'm an international student and was wondering: how can we meet other international students at Tulane? (clubs, organizations...) Thank you so much. Mar-25 at 06:26:59 pm
	TulaneChrisG -> olimc	Hi olimc! There are many opportunities to meet other international students through different organizations and clubs. Tulane offers over 200+ clubs as a chance to meet people with similar interests as you. Check out https://lbc.tulane.edu/join-organization to see what Tulane as to offer! Mar-25 at 06:32:08 pm
Mar 25, 18:32:18	delwood -> TulaneJordan	Would you recommend joining greek life as a transfer? Is there a fall rush? Mar-25 at 06:19:28 pm
	TulaneJordan -> delwood	Absolutely! We rush in the spring which I think is even better than the fall. That way, you can learn more about the sororities and meet the girls during the first semester. I am a member of Phi Mu and I'm genuinely so happy to be a part of it. The girls are honestly my family and it's nice to know that they're watching over me and support me no matter what. I've also been able to meet a lot more people just being a part of greek life, which at times can be hard as a transfer. Mar-25 at 06:32:18 pm
Mar 25, 18:33:09	Jonathan -> TulaneJill	Hi! I'm a prospective transfer student from Florida. I was wondering whether or not how soon I turn in my application has an effect on my decision? Mar-25 at 06:23:42 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jonathan	Hi Jonathan, we review on a rolling basis so the earlier you submit the better as the class may fill up later on. The deadline to apply is April 15th. Mar-25 at 06:33:09 pm
Mar 25, 18:33:57	Jade -> TulaneJill	I paid my deposit for housing and was never told I had to apply and missed the deadline. Where can I get my money back for the housing portion of the deposit? Mar-25 at 06:20:47 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, the deadline to submit the application for housing is not until June for transfer students. If you are having issues with the housing application, we recommend reaching out to them at ✉ housing@tulane.edu . Mar-25 at 06:33:57 pm
Mar 25, 18:34:01	Iga_Stepaniak -> TulaneRachel	Which events should I attend to learn about campus life? What are some of the popular organizations on campus? Mar-25 at 06:28:01 pm

	TulaneRachel -> Iga_Stepaniak	Orientation will cover a lot about campus life! In the first few weeks of the semester, we will also have the Activities Expo - that's where all student organizations go to table and is a great way to sign up for clubs you may want to join. Our student organization site is called WaveSync - you can also go there to scroll through the organizations and events available. There are over 200 organizations, so you can always find something you are interested in. A lot of students get involved in the Undergraduate Student Government, but most students are involved in multiple, smaller organizations related to their interests or majors. There's also a program called TUSTEP where people train service dogs, which is just really cool. :] Mar-25 at 06:34:01 pm
Mar 25, 18:34:25	Senal -> TulaneShelby	With the likelihood of some credits not being transferable and the various gen ed requirements at Tulane, how much room for exploration would you say a student transferring for their sophomore year would have, before declaring a major? Mar-25 at 06:32:47 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Senal	Hi Senal- We require that students declare a major by the end of sophomore year, so there is some time for exploring! Mar-25 at 06:34:25 pm
Mar 25, 18:34:30	jozaro -> TulaneJill	Can you tell me how many things I need to send my application? Mar-25 at 06:23:47 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hello, you can find the list of transfer requirements on our transfer website here: https://admission.tulane.edu/transfer ; Mar-25 at 06:34:30 pm
Mar 25, 18:35:24	Iga_Stepaniak -> TulaneJill	There is an application on both the Green Wave Portal and the Common Application. Is applying on one more preferred than the other? Mar-25 at 06:28:19 pm
	TulaneJill -> Iga_Stepaniak	Hi Iga, no we do not have a preference! Both are free, so whichever one is easier for you to send in. Mar-25 at 06:35:24 pm
Mar 25, 18:35:53	Adam -> TulaneSuzzette	I've visited New Orleans a couple times and loved it there! What types of community service enterprises are available for students and what do you personally like to do in the city? Mar-25 at 06:29:16 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> Adam	Hey Adam, there are a lot of community service opportunities at Tulane, most of which goes through CPS (Center of Public Service), but also, the most common way people get involved is through the tier 1 and tier 2 service learning course requirement. Personally, my favorite community service opportunity is being a middle school debate coach. I also have done science experiments for middle school science classes. Most of the opportunities can be found on the CPS website and/or in the CPS office. https://cps.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-25 at 06:35:53 pm
Mar 25, 18:36:41	Greta -> TulaneRep	I have several questions. What is the availability of on campus jobs at Tulane, or do most people work off campus? If you study abroad for a semester, is the cost the same as tuition or in addition to tuition? Mar-25 at 06:25:29 pm
	TulaneRep -> Greta	I actually worked for the Tulane Human Resources in the Student Employment sector and we will have plentiful of jobs for work-study and non-work study students. Work-study is awarded through the FASFA application you submit to financial aid. Non-work study students are those that do not have work-study. When you receive your financial aid package from Tulane, check to see if Work-study is offered and you would need to accept it to take advantage of it. Work-study is basically free money that you earn as you work on an on-campus job. Most on-campus jobs are work-study but not all. To find jobs there will be an job fair on campus in the beginning of the semester (most likely the first week - so get your resume ready!). Additionally, when you get your Tulane email you can sign up for the College Central Network which is the online job board for Tulane students only. https://hr.tulane.edu/student-employment/home The cost of Study Abroad varies from program to program, so you would need to look at the cost of the program and speak into a Study Abroad Adviser. https://global.tulane.edu/osa/students/prospective-students/advising-resources ; Mar-25 at 06:36:40 pm
Mar 25, 18:37:48	Jonathan -> TulaneAloysius	Are high school transcripts, test scores, or first semester college transcripts valued more? Mar-25 at 06:31:41 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Jonathan	Hey Jordan! College transcripts are where we focus most of our attention, but we will consider HS transcripts and test scores especially if a student has taken some time off before applying to Tulane. Mar-25 at 06:37:47 pm
Mar 25, 18:37:53	Jade -> TulaneJill	What other kinds of scholarships are available? Mar-25 at 06:29:42 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, transfers are considered for partial merit scholarships upon admission and they find out about that in their acceptance letter. Other than that, transfer students can apply for need-based aid and are reviewed as all other students. You can find more information and your financial aid counselor here: https://financialaid.tulane.edu/meet-us/counselors/undergraduate#list ; Mar-25 at 06:37:52 pm

Mar 25, 18:38:54	Nicole -> TulaneJill	When can we expect to receive financial aid decisions? Mar-25 at 06:29:25 pm
	TulaneJill -> Nicole	Nicole, financial aid typically sends out packages within six to eight weeks of students completing their financial aid application, which at Tulane includes the FAFSA, CSS Profile, and supporting tax documents. Mar-25 at 06:38:54 pm
Mar 25, 18:39:26	Jade -> TulaneRep	Can I study abroad my 3rd semester? Mar-25 at 06:25:36 pm
	TulaneRep -> Jade	Hi Jade, you can study abroad after you complete a whole year at Tulane. So yes, you can study abroad your third semester and beyond. You can submit applications during your first or second semester (as long as you intend to complete the year long residency requirement). Mar-25 at 06:39:26 pm
Mar 25, 18:39:28	Lili -> TulaneRachel	I'm moving from Missouri, and will probably be flying to New Orleans when I move in. What does move in usually look like on campus? Do transfers arrive at the same time as everyone else? Is there a way to send some of my things earlier so I'll have them to move in? Mar-25 at 06:34:21 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Lili	Great question! Transfer students will move in on Tuesday, August 18, a day before first-time first-year students. After you get a housing assignment, you will get move-in information directly from housing. That includes shipping information - if you ship boxes before a certain date, they will be delivered straight to your room. Moving into a new space can be hectic, but there are lots of people around to help. When I moved to New Orleans, I also flew, so I know that can be stressful! Mar-25 at 06:39:28 pm
Mar 25, 18:39:48	jozaro -> TulaneJill	About the recommendation letters, who have to write it? from my university? old teacher? who? what that have to say? Mar-25 at 06:33:23 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro, we do not require letters of recommendation. If you want to someone to submit a letter of recommendation on your behalf, they can email it to submit@tulane.edu . It should just tell us a little bit about you and your strengths, but again it is not required. Mar-25 at 06:39:48 pm
Mar 25, 18:40:19	Lili -> TulaneJill	Can I begin to set up payment plans as soon as I pay my enrollment deposit? How do I do that (online, assuming that's an option)? Mar-25 at 06:32:00 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lili	Hi Lili, students can set up their payment plans with Accounts Receivable over the summer (before July). Mar-25 at 06:40:19 pm
Mar 25, 18:40:28	madi_medoff -> TulaneShelby	Hi, I was wondering how good are Tulane's mental health services for students? Mar-25 at 06:37:39 pm
	TulaneShelby -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi- We consider mental health services to be very important! We have a great on campus, free, counseling center- CAPS. They hold one on one and group sessions. Many of our students also work with Case Managers in the Office of Student Affairs when struggling with various issues. Additionally, we have strong relationships with providers in the community and can make excellent referrals as needed. Mar-25 at 06:40:28 pm
Mar 25, 18:40:39	Nicole -> TulaneJill	Will this chat be archived? Mar-25 at 06:35:29 pm
	TulaneJill -> Nicole	Hi Nicole, yes, we will send out the chat transcript :) Mar-25 at 06:40:39 pm
Mar 25, 18:40:58	Iga_Stepaniak -> TulaneJordan	Hello! My name is Iga, and I'm a prospective transfer. How does the adjustment process as a transfer student look at Tulane? Mar-25 at 06:26:22 pm
	TulaneJordan -> Iga_Stepaniak	I was super worried being a transfer student and entering a campus with students my age who have already formed their friendships. However, before I even entered school, I remember current Tulane girls reaching out to me offering to grab coffee when I arrived to campus. It all coincides with the southern hospitality that you'll see and experience everywhere here at Tulane. That aspect made meeting people extremely easy for me because everyone was just so nice. Plus, I joined a few organizations on campus which allowed me to meet people. In terms of academics, yes, Tulane has a rigorous curriculum but it's also very balanced with social life. If you ever need help in a class, the professors love when you attend their office hours and your peers will be more than willing to help you out. I had a very easy adjustment coming into Tulane because it honestly just felt like home. Mar-25 at 06:40:57 pm
Mar 25, 18:41:47	Adam -> TulaneJill	I submitted my application on February 1st and I fully understand that decisions are delayed due to the pandemic. When is the latest that I will see a status change in my portal? Mar-25 at 06:37:12 pm
	TulaneJill -> Adam	Hi Adam, we are working as quickly as possible and hope to have most decisions out within the next two weeks. Please feel free to contact me directly to check the status of your specific question at jderosas@tulane.edu . Mar-25 at 06:41:47 pm
Mar 25, 18:42:47	madi_medoff -> TulaneJill	How important is the "why Tulane" essay and demonstrated interest? Mar-25 at 06:39:12 pm
	TulaneJill -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi, we always recommend students complete the "Why Tulane" essay because it shows us what it might be like for you to be a Tulane student and is helpful to us in assessing a student's fit for the university. It is not required, but they are fun and helpful for us to read! Mar-25 at 06:42:47 pm

Mar 25, 18:42:57	madi_medoff -> TulaneSuzzette	Another question I have is about Tulane's Jewish students. Like GW, I know a lot of Jewish students attend Tulane. Unfortunately, I witnessed several instances of antisemitic acts which, as a Jewish student, were jarring and upsetting. I was wondering what Tulane does to combat issues such as those that can arise? Mar-25 at 06:15:46 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> madi_medoff	Hi Madi, most acts of discrimination are reported through an anonymous source call concerns reports (https://srss.tulane.edu/report-concern) and, to my knowledge, they are reviewed by members of the administration such as the dean and a representative from The Office of Multicultural Affairs. I have seen concerns reports followed up with the person reported on, and the offending student in question typically has a meeting with members of administration concerning the accusations against them. This can apply broadly to any form of discrimination, including Anti-Semitism. Mar-25 at 06:42:57 pm
Mar 25, 18:43:09	Elizabeth -> TulaneJordan	I would love to be able to cheer on the Tulane athletes! Is there a strong sense of school spirit and camaraderie around Tulane athletics? Mar-25 at 06:32:04 pm
	TulaneJordan -> Elizabeth	Hi Elizabeth, one of my best friends is on the cheer team and she LOVES it! I won't lie and say that Tulane school spirit is equivalent to LSU or USC but all the students here still enjoy going to the football and basketball games. We also love tailgating beforehand! Mar-25 at 06:43:09 pm
Mar 25, 18:43:14	Iga_Stepaniak -> TulaneAloysius	I am considering double majoring and possibly even minoring in a field, which may seem like a lot, but I am very passionate about my interests. How flexible is the university with taking on several majors/minors? Mar-25 at 06:38:29 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Iga_Stepaniak	Hello Iga! As an academic advisor, I can assure you that many students at Tulane pursue double majors and minors! You will have an academic advisor who supports you in completing your general graduation requirements and major advisors who specialize in your program so not only is it possible - you have several folks helping guide you in the process! Mar-25 at 06:43:14 pm
Mar 25, 18:43:31	Nicole -> TulaneAdmission	For students on the chat, what has been your most unique experience at Tulane? Also, most difficult? Mar-25 at 06:42:38 pm Mar-25 at 06:43:31 pm
Mar 25, 18:43:58	Jade -> TulaneJill	I submitted my FAFSA a while ago and still haven't heard from financial aid Mar-25 at 06:40:21 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, I recommend reaching out to your financial aid counselor directly to check the status. You can find out who they are here: https://financialaid.tulane.edu/meet-us/counselors/undergraduate#list ; Mar-25 at 06:43:58 pm
Mar 25, 18:44:17	Brian -> TulaneRachel	Are there any events for transfer students prior to move in? Mar-25 at 06:40:40 pm
	TulaneRachel -> Brian	There are no events before move-in, but we do send out information about transfer student topics through our orientation@tulane.edu email and will be posting on our @transfersoftu instagram to answer any questions you have before you get to campus! Mar-25 at 06:44:17 pm
Mar 25, 18:47:02	Alie -> TulaneAloysius	I would like to get involved in one of the local hospitals near the campus since I am looking into the pre-med track. Is that recommended for students? Is it common for students to volunteer at the hospitals? Mar-25 at 06:42:56 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Alie	Hi Alie. This is strongly encouraged for students considering the pre-health track as it helps you gain valuable experience to prepare for medical students. In fact, we have students volunteering at many of the hospitals in the area. Students also have access to pre-health advisors who can help you make these connections and seek other professional skill-building opportunities. Mar-25 at 06:47:02 pm
Mar 25, 18:47:03	jozaro -> TulaneJill	i was trying to communicate with WES and they have some delay with the translation, I don't know im gonna have it before the 15th of April, its that a problem with that? can I send you that info as soon as I got it? Mar-25 at 06:43:54 pm
	TulaneJill -> jozaro	Hi Jozaro, please feel free to reach out to be directly at jderosas@tulane.edu so that I can make a note in your file that we are expecting the WES Evaluation and when to expect it. Mar-25 at 06:47:03 pm
Mar 25, 18:48:48	TulaneChrisG -> Everyone	@Nicole , The most unique experience I've had at Tulane is definitely experiencing the culture the campus has created. For example, a common tradition for students is to go to "The Fly" on Fridays. The fly is a huge open field that looks over the Mississippi River where students like to gather socially after class on Fridays. The most difficult experience I've faced since I been here is adjusting to a school that is far away from home since I'm from New York. But the students and staff helped tremendously with that adjustment! Mar-25 at 06:48:48 pm
Mar 25, 18:49:38	TulaneJordan -> Everyone	Nicole, my most unique experience was definitely my semi formal in my Phi Mu sorority! We all took party buses down to the French Quarter and rented out a popular jazz club. You won't find that kind of experience anywhere else! My most difficult experience was probably my cell bio class because Dr. V is extremely challenging. However, after many many study hours I earned an A. Even though this was my most difficult experience, it was also my most rewarding. Mar-25 at 06:49:38 pm

Mar 25, 18:49:43	TulaneDillon -> Everyone	E@Nicole "For students on the chat, what has been your most unique experience at Tulane? Also, most difficult?" The most unique experience would probably be the service learning course I participated in. I worked with Dr. Maxwell in the Linguistic department on the language revitalization of a local Native American tribe. It felt very satisfying to make a difference in the community and nothing like that was offered at my previous college. Most difficult was definitely adjusting to the some of the courses. The work can be challenging, but it's definitely rewarding. Mar-25 at 06:49:43 pm
Mar 25, 18:50:45	TulaneSuzzette -> Everyone	For students on the chat, what has been your most unique experience at Tulane? Also, most difficult? Hi Nicole, my most unique experience at Tulane was probably Mardi Gras, but less stereotypical, I would say it was making/meeting my friends at Tulane. I would say it was unique because I literally met all of my current friends through the first friend I made at Tulane (Kennon), and we met by arguing for a year over whether Houston was a better city than Detroit (it is btw). The most difficult experience I've had at Tulane is probably moving out of my house half-way through last semester and find a new living situation, which worked out in the end but was stressful at the time. Mar-25 at 06:50:45 pm
Mar 25, 18:52:10	TulaneRep -> Everyone	E@Nicole , My most unique experience at Tulane has been the opportunity to explore different majors. Because in my previous university I was required to stick to classes in the humanities or xyz department. For someone like me that had no idea what they wanted to do, I was grateful I can enroll or do whatever I wanted to pursue. The most difficult was the homesickness, because I am originally from Michigan and it's never easy to leave something you know. But I knew I needed to leave, otherwise I wouldn't have found what I am passionate about. Overall, accepting the risk to find the overwhelming benefit was the most difficult in my case. Mar-25 at 06:52:09 pm
Mar 25, 18:52:33	Lili -> TulaneJill	Beside what's currently on Gibson, where can I find further financial aid? All of Tulane's scholarships that I know of had applications that closed back around December. Are there any resources offered particularly to transfers? Otherwise, am I eligible to apply for these scholarships next year? Also, is there anywhere in particular that you recommend looking for outside aid? Mar-25 at 06:47:32 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lili	Hi Lili, there are no separate scholarship applications for transfers, but we recommend reaching out to your direct financial aid counselor rather than just logging on to Gibson. Your financial aid counselor can walk you through your need-based aid package and they can also tell you more about outside aid opportunities. You can find their information here: https://financialaid.tulane.edu/meet-us/counselors/undergraduate#list ; Mar-25 at 06:52:33 pm
Mar 25, 18:53:08	Nicole -> TulaneAloysius	Is it possible to connect with one of the pre-med advisors prior to arriving on campus? Mar-25 at 06:47:51 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Nicole	Hey Nicole, great question. We typically recommend students meet with their academic advisor first before connecting with our pre-health advisors as we are also trained to provide career support. We can also help you schedule an appointment with a pre-health advisor should you have additional questions. Mar-25 at 06:53:08 pm
Mar 25, 18:54:14	Jade -> TulaneJill	how do I accept my merit scholarship Mar-25 at 06:50:21 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, it should be on your Gibson Online Portal with the rest of your financial aid package which you will accept on there. Mar-25 at 06:54:13 pm
Mar 25, 18:55:34	olimc -> TulaneRachel	Hi again! I have many questions regarding housing: When can we know if we will be able to live on campus? Should we start looking for off campus housing just in case? How safe/easy is it to live off-campus (I would be living alone), how easy is it to find a place walking distance from campus? Will we experience college life differently? (feeling included in the Tulane community etc) Mar-25 at 06:47:47 pm
	TulaneRachel -> olimc	Once you apply for housing, our Housing and Residence Life team will be in contact with you about any open assignments they may have. Unfortunately, housing assignments won't be released until later in the summer, and a lot of students feel better about just looking for off campus housing instead of waiting. Looking for housing is always a bit stressful, but there is lots of housing right around campus! Most students are able to find a place within walking distance - it may just take a bit of research and persistence. Tons of students live off campus, especially transfer students, juniors, and seniors. As long as you are proactive about attending community events, living off campus won't limit your Tulane experience. There are also a lot of safety resources available through TUPD - rides from campus home, safety apps, and more. You can also reach out to them to talk about whether an apartment you want to live in has good security. Mar-25 at 06:55:34 pm

Mar 25, 18:55:55	Greta -> TulaneDillon	How does Tulane help students acquire internships and post graduate jobs? Mar-25 at 06:46:51 pm
	TulaneDillon -> Greta	Hi Greata! I'm currently doing an internship at Tulane in the Neuroscience department. I found it by reaching out to my professors. Some are really receptive to students looking into further in their field. I do know that there are events where students can meet professors who are looking for undergrad students to help in research, but I'm not sure how often those happen. As far as postgraduate jobs, Tulane has a network of alumni and career advisers who can help with post graduate jobs. If you're in STEM and need more info on internship possibilities, you can email me at dhowell5@tulane.edu and I can try to connect you with someone who can provide more info. Mar-25 at 06:55:55 pm
Mar 25, 18:55:56	Brian -> TulaneSuzzette	Hi my name is Brian and I am a perspective transfer student. Since New Orleans is such a vibrant city, does Tulane offer internships to create hands-on learning experiences? Mar-25 at 06:46:49 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> Brian	Hey Brian, Yes! Tulane does offer internships, predominantly through CPS, or the Center of Public Service. Tulane also has a carrer expo, which is slightly different than the job fair, where companies come on to campus and meet with students and view their resumes, etc. You Can also speak to career advisors abound internships as well. Mar-25 at 06:55:56 pm
Mar 25, 18:56:27	TulaneRachel -> Everyone	Hi friends, I am signing off for the night. If you have any other questions about Orientation or New Student Programs, please don't hesitate to email me at orientation@tulane.edu . Roll Wave! Mar-25 at 06:56:26 pm
Mar 25, 18:56:56	TulaneAdmission -> Everyone	Thank you all for participating in this evenings Tulane Transfer Chat. We will be ending this session at 7:00pm CST so please send in any remaining questions you may have. Mar-25 at 06:56:56 pm
Mar 25, 18:58:57	Lili -> TulaneShelby	Is off-campus housing generally more or less expensive than on-campus? Mar-25 at 06:56:32 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Lili	Hi Lili- no one size fits all answer for this! Off campus can be less expensive depending on how many roommates you have etc. Mar-25 at 06:58:56 pm
Mar 25, 18:59:55	Jade -> TulaneShelby	Where can I find information about the LSATS and pre-law at Tulane? Mar-25 at 06:56:46 pm
	TulaneShelby -> Jade	Hi Jade- we have specific pre law advisors, who are super helpful and work with students through the application/admissions process. They are a great resource for students interested in law school! Mar-25 at 06:59:55 pm
Mar 25, 19:00:05	Nicole -> TulaneAloysius	Thank you all for answering questions! Stay safe and take care! Mar-25 at 06:58:18 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Nicole	Have a wonderful evening Nicole! Thanks for joining us tonight. Mar-25 at 07:00:05 pm
Mar 25, 19:00:24	Nicole -> TulaneRep	Thank you all for answering questions! Stay safe and take care! Mar-25 at 06:58:18 pm
	TulaneRep -> Nicole	Thank you for your questions! Be well! Mar-25 at 07:00:24 pm
Mar 25, 19:00:25	Nicole -> TulaneDillon	Thank you all for answering questions! Stay safe and take care! Mar-25 at 06:58:18 pm
	TulaneDillon -> Nicole	Thank you for stopping by Nicole! Mar-25 at 07:00:25 pm
Mar 25, 19:00:43	Nicole -> TulaneChrisG	So I know that generalizing is typically discouraged, but if y'all could pick five words to describe the Tulane study body what would they be!? Mar-25 at 06:54:26 pm
	TulaneChrisG -> Nicole	I would describe the student body as vibrant, outgoing, intelligent, fun, & welcoming! Mar-25 at 07:00:42 pm
Mar 25, 19:00:56	Jade -> TulaneJill	How do I apply for a loan? Mar-25 at 06:53:58 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jade	Hi Jade, if you apply for need-based financial aid they will include loans in your package from the federal government and Tulane through FAFSA and CSS Profile. If you want to apply for private loans, financial aid can help you find reliable private lenders. Mar-25 at 07:00:56 pm
Mar 25, 19:01:55	Nalani -> TulaneJill	I know that the COVID-19 has post-poned admission decisions, is there a time frame of how long that would be? Mar-25 at 06:57:43 pm
	TulaneJill -> Nalani	Nalani, we hope to have decisions out as soon as possible. If you would like to check the status of your specific application, please email me at jderosas@tulane.edu Mar-25 at 07:01:55 pm
Mar 25, 19:02:16	Jade -> TulaneAloysius	How do meal plans work Mar-25 at 06:53:24 pm
	TulaneAloysius -> Jade	Hey Jade, All first-year and second-year students are required to participate in a dining plan for the entire academic year. All first-year students living in university residence halls are required to take a designated first-year dining plan. All second-year students living in university residence halls are required to enroll in a designated second-year dining plan. All first-year and second-year off-campus students are required to take, at minimum, the Commuter dining plan. Our students recommend the TU 8 or the Commuter plans. Here's some more info about our meal plans https://dining.tulane.edu/my-dining-plan/undergrad-dining-plans ; Mar-25 at 07:02:16 pm

Mar 25, 19:02:47	Alie -> TulaneJill	Can we request roommates? Mar-25 at 06:59:37 pm
	TulaneJill -> Alie	Hi Alie, yes, students can request roommates on their on-campus housing application, but both people have to request each other if housing were available. On-campus housing is not guaranteed for transfer students. Mar-25 at 07:02:47 pm

Mar 25, 19:05:06	Nicole -> TulaneSuzzette	Thanks everyone for answering all my questions! For students interested in pursuing summer internships within the nonprofit sector, does Tulane have an internship fund that can help offset the stress of unpaid internships?? Mar-25 at 06:51:46 pm
	TulaneSuzzette -> Nicole	Hey Nicole, it depends! There are grants for unpaid internships and research for students that you can apply to via departments like CPS and The Newcomb Institute, but I'm not sure if there is a general fund outside of those you'd have to apply for. I would definitely check with the CPS website (https://cps.tulane.edu/) and the Newcomb website (https://newcomb.tulane.edu/) for specifics. Mar-25 at 07:05:06 pm
Mar 25, 19:05:50	Lili -> TulaneRep	Are Student Employment jobs basically like work study but not need-based? Are there any particular jobs you would recommend on or near campus? Also, (as an anthropology student) how/when would you recommend getting in contact with a department's faculty to see what jobs/internships/volunteering/etc they might know of? Mar-25 at 06:51:34 pm
	TulaneRep -> Lili	Hi Lili, work-study is awarded through your financial aid when you fill out FASFA and submit it to Tulane. When you check your financial aid package and it's listed make sure you accept it to take advantage of it. There are no particular jobs I can recommend because they vary and what interests me may not interest you. So check out what jobs are offered when you receive your Tulane email and create a College Central Network login. https://www.collegecentral.com/tulane/ Also check out Student Employment at Tulane. https://hr.tulane.edu/student-employment/home Honestly, research the professors at Tulane and know what their working on that interest you and reach out (they love that!!).
