Mar 17, 12:00:33	sophi -> TulaneJeff	hello! question, because of corona and school absences, will admissions take that into account when deciding whether or not to revoke someones application due to attendance? Mar-17 at 11:47:34 am
	TulaneJeff -> sophi	YES! We will never penalize you because of COVID-19 related absences. Mar-17 at 12:00:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:02:26	MaxK0327 -> TulaneJeff	I am a junior and I won't be able to take the SAT until June. Will my inability to take the SAT as many times as people have in the past be considered when I apply? Mar-17 at 11:41:17 am

	TulaneJeff -> MaxK0327	Yes, we understand that you will have more limited options. The hope is that the College Board will create new test dates. if they do not, we will definitely take this into account when reviewing applicants next year. Mar-17 at 12:02:25 pm
Mar 17, 12:02:38	JasonBold -> TulaneSamR	Hi! My name is Jason Bold and I'm currently deferred from Tulane. Tulane has been one of my top choices and would love to attend but I'm still waiting on my decision. I initially applied for neuroscience but want to change into the freeman school of business. How can I help myself reach my goal of attending Tulane? Mar-17 at 11:43:14 am
	TulaneSamR -> JasonBold	Hi Jason - great question. One of the best things about Tulane is that you don't have to worry about applying to a certain school within the university. When students are accepted to Tulane, they're accepted into the Newcomb Tulane College, which houses all 5 of our undergraduate schools. Basically, this means that there aren't any barriers to changing your major once you're here. All it takes is a conversation with your academic advisor! Mar-17 at 12:02:38 pm
Mar 17, 12:03:17	Brenda -> TulaneAidan	What makes a student a good fit for Tulane? Mar-17 at 11:51:07 am
	TulaneAidan -> Brenda	Hey Brenda! This is really up to the student themselves. Is Tulane a place where you can see yourself grow, make great friends and great memories? Is being involved in your community something that you'll want to have be a part of your college experience? Is the school the right size for me? Questions like these are how you can determine if Tulane or any other college is a fit for you. Mar-17 at 12:03:16 pm
Mar 17, 12:03:42	jessie -> TulaneSierra	hello! can you please explain how to apply for financial aid? thanks! Mar-17 at 12:01:27 pm
	TulaneSierra -> jessie	To apply for need based aid you should complete the FAFSA and the CSS Profile. https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/need-based-aid ;Mar-17 at 12:03:42 pm
Mar 17, 12:04:00	BDTarbel -> TulaneSamR	At this point do you anticipate cancelling CAST sessions? Mar-17 at 12:01:49 pm
	TulaneSamR -> BDTarbel	It's hard to tell at this point - we are taking things week by week here at Tulane. For now, we are not cancelling CAST sessions, but make sure your student is continually checking their portal as well as their email for updates from us. We will let you all know as soon as we have new information! Mar-17 at 12:04:00 pm
Mar 17, 12:04:49	Elizabeth -> TulaneJeff	Hi, my name is Elizabeth White and I am from North Carolina! Sadly, our tour was cancelled but I still would really love to come visit. Is coming to visit before I get in necessary for me to have a better chance at being admitted? Mar-17 at 12:00:43 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Elizabeth	So sorry you weren't able to visit. By the way, check out this site for great virtual visit content. https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down We do note when you visit but we would never penalize a student who has NOT visited in the application process, especially now. Hopefully you can rebook your trip for sometime later this summer or fall. If not, we would never hold that against you in the admission process. Mar-17 at 12:04:48 pm

Mar 17, 12:05:02	Max_shilstone -> TulaneAidan	What is campus life like at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:01:06 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Max_shilstone	Hey Max! Life at Tulane and New Orleans in general is pretty fantastic. Both are such welcoming and vibrant communities that I've yet to experience anything similar to them. Mar-17 at 12:05:02 pm
Mar 17, 12:05:13	Kayla -> TulaneJill	I was hoping to visit campus this upcoming month, but unfortunately, that is not a possibility anymore, so I first wanted to ask about campus life. How would you describe the campus? I know New Orleans has a lot to offer, but would you still say it feels like a "traditional" college campus or more like a city? Mar-17 at 11:57:11 am
	TulaneJill -> Kayla	Hi Kayla! Thanks for your question! Campus is about 3/4 mile long and 1/2 mile wide. I transferred from a city school that was incredibly spread out so coming to Tulane was a perfect combination of having a campus while also having a city at your fingertips. We are located in the Uptown neighborhood of New Orleans which is mainly residential, lending itself to a residential campus. There's lots of beautiful oak trees and the campus is aesthetically pretty gorgeous. It certainly feels like a traditional college campus compared to a city school (trust me, I went to both!) Mar-17 at 12:05:12 pm
Mar 17, 12:05:37	Hanania -> TulaneAngel	Good afternoon, I am a student at Livingston high school. I just wanted to talk to someone about the number of students that go to law school after the completion of their undergraduate degrees. And if the students that go, get help/advice from administration throughout the years to be able to reach a very good law school. I also wanted to ask about greek life in the school, and how it has affected students throughout their 4 years. Mar-17 at 12:00:10 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Hanania	Hey Hanania! I'm not sure on the exact numbers, but I can tell you that we do have a good amount of students that choose to do specific programs that we offer within the law school. A big one is our 3+3 Law program where undergrad students can apply to be in law school a year early. Throughout this process, everyone has a academic advisor and a law school advisor that helps to keep you on track. About 40% of students are involved in greek life at Tulane. This includes community service based fraternities, pre-professional, or social. As an alum who wasn't involved in Greek life in undergrad - I always like to say that if you're in it...great and if you're not...great! It won't break your experience, but will only make it if you choose to do it. Mar-17 at 12:05:37 pm
Mar 17, 12:05:39	Elizabeth -> TulaneSamR	Also, in order to receive merit based aid, do I need to submit separated applications along with my main one? Is merit based aid only possible via early action or early decision? Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:02:00 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Elizabeth	Hi Elizabeth - all applicants, regardless of application round, are automatically considered for partial merit aid! If you are a junior, I recommend checking out this page on our website for information on larger merit awards: https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/merit-scholarships ; Mar-17 at 12:05:39 pm

Mar 17, 12:06:09	Maia -> TulaneSierra	Since many SAT exams have been cancelled, what will that look like for students applying next year if they don't have another opportunity to take it? Mar-17 at 12:02:12 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Maia	We are aware of SAT cancellations. College Board will provide future additional SAT testing opportunities for students as soon as possible in place of canceled administrations. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. Mar-17 at 12:06:08 pm
Mar 17, 12:06:31	Sophie_McCauley -> TulaneJeff	Hi! my name is Sophie McCauley, and I'm from Dallas. I was wondering, in the wake of all the craziness that has been this last week with cancellations of SATs and ACTs and all, how will y'all proceed going forward with applications? Mar-17 at 12:01:12 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Sophie_McCauley	Hi Sophie! We don't have the final answer to this yet, but we will wait and see what impacts the SAT/ACT changes have and will absolutely take this into account when review applications next fall. Mar-17 at 12:06:31 pm
Mar 17, 12:06:37	Eisha -> TulaneSamR	Hi! I am wondering if Tulane offers any merit based scholarships for undergraduate admissions? Mar-17 at 12:02:25 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Eisha	Hi Eisha! All undergraduate applicants are automatically considered for partial merit scholarships. We also have a few larger merit awards which you can find information about here: https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/merit-scholarships ; Mar-17 at 12:06:37 pm
Mar 17, 12:07:29	Max_shilstone -> TulaneSamR	Does Tulane offer engineering as a major? Mar-17 at 12:05:40 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Max_shilstone	Absolutely! Find more info about the School of Science and Engineering here: https://sse.tulane.edu/academics/undergraduate ; Mar-17 at 12:07:29 pm
Mar 17, 12:07:42	Isabelle -> TulaneSierra	Hello! I'm a junior at high school in NYC and I was wondering what year students at Tulane can start working with the career center? Mar-17 at 12:04:12 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Isabelle	Tulane students can take advantage of the opportunities through the career center as soon as they get on campus! Mar-17 at 12:07:42 pm
Mar 17, 12:07:55	OliviaS -> TulaneRula	Hi! I was wondering what the application process looks like and what your policy on SAT subject tests is. Mar-17 at 12:02:16 pm
	TulaneRula -> OliviaS	Hello OliviaS, you can learn about Tulane's application process here, https://admission.tulane.edu/apply and learn more from our Director Jeff's blog here http://tuadmissionjeff.blogspot.com/ ; Mar-17 at 12:07:55 pm

Mar 17, 12:07:59	Brenda -> TulaneAidan	The ACT that I was going to take got cancelled. What do I do with the previous score with which I am unhappy? Mar-17 at 12:02:25 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Brenda	Hey Brenda! As of now I wouldn't make this a priority worry. We are aware of the ACT's recent guidelines and have been told that future testing dates will be offered down the line. We've made no certain decisions regarding this as of yet and will, as we always do, take everything into consideration when reviewing applications. Mar-17 at 12:07:59 pm
Mar 17, 12:08:07	EFS -> TulaneAngel	Are there programs for freshman before orientation in August like you have had in the past? Mar-17 at 11:57:46 am
	TulaneAngel -> EFS	Hi EFS, I think you are referring to our explore programs and unfortunately, all of those have gone away due to our new orientation model that takes place the week before classes begin! Mar-17 at 12:08:06 pm
Mar 17, 12:08:33	Max -> TulaneAngel	For Tulane Jazz Ensembles, do you apply as part of your application or once you're on campus? Mar-17 at 12:04:41 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Max	Hi Max, once you're on campus you can join a jazz ensemble - no need to worry about it now. Mar-17 at 12:08:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:08:50	JT -> TulaneJeff	How will this impact students have had both SAT and ACT Testing rescheduled until Summer 2020? Mar-17 at 12:02:03 pm
	TulaneJeff -> JT	Hi, JT. We don't have the final answer to this yet, but we will wait and see what impacts the SAT/ACT changes have and will absolutely take this into account when review applications next fall. We will make a commitment to ensure that no one is "dinged" in the application process because of this. Mar-17 at 12:08:50 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:00	Acadia -> TulaneJill	Hi! I'm Acadia from Colorado. I'm interested in medicine. Can you tell me about the different programs you have at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:00:54 pm
	TulaneJill -> Acadia	Acadia, Tulane offers a pre-med track for students interested in medicine. This allows students to major in any subject that they would like while still completing their medical school pre-requisites. I had a friend who was pre-med and majored in Dance! You would also get a pre-med advisor who would help you with the medical school application process. Tulane also has it's own medical school so many of our students do research downtown at the medical school, volunteer, and shadow doctors. We also have medical school early admission programs to Tulane's med school like Creative Pre-medical Scholars and TAP-TP. You would apply for those within your first two years at Tulane. More info on pre-med advising can be found here: https://advising.tulane.edu/pre-health ; Mar-17 at 12:09:00 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:23	Sara_Marks -> TulaneSierra	Hello, my name is sara and I am a high school student (rising senior) looking to come to Tulane. I am curious what you look for besides grades and stellar character? Mar-17 at 12:02:47 pm

	TulaneSierra -> Sara_Marks	We look at extra curricular, your essays (personal statement and Why Tulane supplemental essay), your letters of recommendation, and your engagement with Tulane throughout the admission process. Check out these tips for juniors https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/getting-into-tulane/tips-for-juniors ; Mar-17 at 12:09:23 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:35	Kelley -> TulaneAidan	Is there a core curriculum of classes required even if they're not part of your major? Mar-17 at 12:03:40 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Kelley	Hey Kelley! In terms of core curriculum, every individual school has there own requirements of particular courses you should take, but each major usually requires at least one math, one science, one english and one language course. Mar-17 at 12:09:35 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:37	DG -> TulaneRula	I would like to find out if school for the freshman is still scheduled to start in late August. Thank you! Mar-17 at 11:44:06 am
	TulaneRula -> DG	Hello DG, as of now, we are still scheduled to start classes in August as planned, if something does change, we will be in communication, I am not an expert though so do stay tuned for details and follow our communication. Mar-17 at 12:09:37 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:43	Audrey -> TulaneAngel	Hi! This is a pretty specific question but does anyone know if students can take dance classes if they aren't a dance major or minor? I've been dancing my whole life (ballet, pointe, contemporary) but want to dance extracurricularly in college. What do those opportunities look like? Are there audition-only groups I might be able to be a part of? Mar-17 at 12:06:03 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Audrey	Hi Audrey, YES! You don't have to be a dance major to take those classes or audition for shows. You can join several student dance groups or with faculty members through classes you take. Mar-17 at 12:09:43 pm
Mar 17, 12:09:50	Olivia -> TulaneSamR	Hi my name is Olivia and I am really hoping to be admitted as a Tulane student for Fall of 2020. In light of COVID-19, are Tulane decisions still anticipated to be released by April 1? Mar-17 at 12:04:10 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Olivia	Great question, Olivia - we will still be releasing decisions for all students who have not already heard from us before April 1. We do not anticipate a delay at this time, but if for some reason we need to push that back, we will let you know by email. Mar-17 at 12:09:50 pm
Mar 17, 12:10:31	Ada -> TulaneJeff	Hello! Thank you for hosting this live chat. I am a prospective student and I have a question regarding culture at Tulane. I've noticed that with some other prestigious schools like Tulane, competition is far more emphasized than collaboration. Can you speak to how Tulane fosters an environment of shared goals and community efforts? Mar-17 at 12:04:10 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Ada	Great question. We are probably one of the least "cutthroat" schools in the USA, in my opinion. Students collaborate, help each other study, research and get the job done. This is the type of school where if you miss a class, you'll have countless peers that would happily and readily share their notes from the day of what you missed. Honestly, it's one of the best things about Tulane! Mar-17 at 12:10:31 pm

Mar 17, 12:10:36	Annika -> TulaneAngel	Hello! I was hoping to sign up for a tour of Tulane later this school year (I am a junior), but I don't think that's possible anymore due to COVID-19. If things "return to normal" next school year would I be penalized for visiting close to application time rather than my junior year? Mar-17 at 12:07:37 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Annika	Hi Annika, No - we can't penalize you for something that no one has any control over. Visit when you can. Mar-17 at 12:10:36 pm
Mar 17, 12:10:50	Rachel -> TulaneJill	Is it possible that coronavirus could make our first semester online? When would we know this by? Mar-17 at 12:02:50 pm
	TulaneJill -> Rachel	Hi Rachel, we do not know this at this time. We will see what happens in the upcoming weeks and adjust as necessary. We will let everyone know as soon as we know these answers, but it is much too early to know about the Fall semester. Mar-17 at 12:10:50 pm
Mar 17, 12:10:57	Keith -> TulaneSamR	Hi! Thank you so much for having this session. What is the commit date for Fall 2020? Any chance it will change? Mar-17 at 12:06:28 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Keith	Hi Keith - at this point, we are not anticipating changing the May 1 deposit deadline. If something changes, we will send out lots of email communications about it but, for now, the deposit deadline for Tulane will remain May 1. Mar-17 at 12:10:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:11:12	Hanania -> TulaneAidan	Does Tulane provide good need-based aid? Mar-17 at 12:04:48 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Hanania	Hi Hanaia! Tulane provides great need based aid for students who demonstrate need. We've been moving away from more merit offerings to need based. For me, this was a huge factor and I can say that Tulane did everything they could to make sure I could attend in terms of helping to meet my demonstrated need. Mar-17 at 12:11:12 pm
Mar 17, 12:11:15	Acadia -> TulaneRula	Is this web chat instead of the upcoming meeting in Aurora, Colorado on March 30? Mar-17 at 12:05:30 pm
	TulaneRula -> Acadia	Hello Acadia, this webchat is not instead of the upcoming meeting in Aurora, stay tuned for details for more virtual events, but that in person event has been cancelled. Mar-17 at 12:11:15 pm
Mar 17, 12:11:31	Ashlyn -> TulaneSierra	Hi! When describing a typical Tulane student, would you say they're more academically focused or balanced across many areas? Mar-17 at 12:04:09 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Ashlyn	Tulane students are academically ambitious, both focused but also balanced with their extra curricular. Mar-17 at 12:11:31 pm
Mar 17, 12:11:35	anitabhoff -> TulaneCorinne	Hi! I am Anita Hoffman from Wynnewood, Pennsylvania. I am curious as to how the testing delays, cancellation of tours, etc may affect candidacy for incoming freshmen. Mar-17 at 12:01:01

		pm
	TulaneCorinne -> anitabhoff	Anita, my friend, hello!! Excellent question. I definitely appreciate your thoughtfulness, but don't want you to worry- as these issues affect all students (and beyond), you will definitely not be penalized. We are working to provide as much virtual content as possible to make sure everyone can get the information they need. We are aware of SAT cancellations. College Board will provide future additional SAT testing opportunities for students as soon as possible in place of canceled administrations. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. Just be sure to check your email. In typical Tulane fashion, we will be overcommunicative about it! Mar-17 at 12:11:34 pm
Mar 17, 12:11:57	Jordan_Lewis -> TulaneJill	Hi. Another COVID-19 question. 2 SAT's where canceled for me, and I am afraid the AP Exams are next. Will anything change in the admission areas to compensate for not being able to send those scores? Mar-17 at 12:03:26 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jordan_Lewis	Jordan, We are aware of SAT cancellations. College Board will provide future additional SAT testing opportunities for students as soon as possible in place of canceled administrations. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. You will not be "dinged" for this and we will work with applicants throughout the process to support them. Mar-17 at 12:11:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:12:03	Leo_F -> TulaneJeff	If the SAT/ACT is canceled for coronavirus how will that affect the admissions process for Tulane Mar-17 at 12:04:35 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Leo_F	We don't have the final answer to this yet, but we will wait and see what impacts the SAT/ACT changes have and will absolutely take this into account when review applications next fall. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. Mar-17 at 12:12:03 pm
Mar 17, 12:12:06	EFS -> TulaneAngel	When is the housing application for 2020-2021 open? Will we get an email to let us know? Mar-17 at 11:53:47 am
	TulaneAngel -> EFS	The housing application should already be open for incoming students and closes May 8th. So check your email for access to your housing portal Mar-17 at 12:12:06 pm
Mar 17, 12:12:29	Tejaswi -> TulaneRula	Do you require the subject SATs? Mar-17 at 12:05:02 pm
	TulaneRula -> Tejaswi	Hello Tejaswi, at Tulane the subject tests are optional and we allow you to self-report scores

		https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/instructions/standardized-tests ; Mar-17 at 12:12:28 pm
Mar 17, 12:12:52	Evan -> TulaneCorinne	Can I still get AP credit even if the exam gets canceled? Mar-17 at 12:01:19 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Evan	Evan, I feel for you, my friend! While we have not made any decisions around transferring credit for AP/IB testing or dual enrollment courses yet, once we do, we will be sure to update this page: https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/earning-college-credit/ap-ib-exams ; Mar-17 at 12:12:52 pm
Mar 17, 12:12:54	Suzy -> TulaneSierra	Hi - Also, I have a very specific question re financial aid. Who is the point person for financial aid for diversity student, undergrad freshman? Mar-17 at 12:09:34 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Suzy	We have financial aid counselors based on last name, not demographics/identities. However, as the Diversity and Access coordinator in the admission office I am happy to guide students through the financial aid process in collaboration w/my financial aid colleagues. Mar-17 at 12:12:54 pm
Mar 17, 12:13:24	L.Hicks -> TulaneSierra	Hi! Should school closures due to COVID-19 result in abnormalities on transcripts would that be considered by admissions counselors? Mar-17 at 12:02:29 pm
	TulaneSierra -> L.Hicks	yes, we will not penalize anyone for the impact COVID-19 is having on academics Mar-17 at 12:13:24 pm
Mar 17, 12:13:54	Kelley -> TulaneSamR	My tour is scheduled for Monday, April 13th and I have not heard it is canceled. Is it still on as of now? Mar-17 at 12:07:16 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Kelley	Hi Kelley - we have made the difficult decision to cancel tours through April 15th, which means your tour on April 13th is also cancelled. I would recommend reaching out to your TU admission counselor for guidance about when to reschedule your tour for. Mar-17 at 12:13:54 pm
Mar 17, 12:13:54	Tejaswi -> TulaneAidan	Does Greek life play a big role on campus? Mar-17 at 12:05:44 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Tejaswi	Hi Tejaswi! Greek life is definitely something that we offer. Only around 40% of our student join greek life organizations, so it won't be the all encompassing factor it is at other schools. You can learn more about it here: https://greek.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:13:54 pm
Mar 17, 12:13:58	Lauren_ -> TulaneSierra	Hi! I was just wondering if Tulane has any support programs/groups for incoming students? Mar-17 at 12:08:57 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Lauren_	Our New Student Orientation team supports all incoming students https://orientation.tulane.edu/new-student-orientation ; Mar-17 at 12:13:58 pm
Mar 17, 12:14:00	Dani -> TulaneAngel	Hi! I go to a high school where school spirit is a HUGE deal. What is the school spirit like at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:06:55 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Dani	Dani, As someone who did 4 years of marching band at Tulane and has been to EVERY SINGLE FOOTBALL game since I started my freshman year - school spirit has only increased for the best.

		When I was a freshman, it was not a whole lot but by the time I got to senior year - our football team was killing it and winning bowl games and there was a lot of spirit and tailgating in the air. This goes for other sports as well! Mar-17 at 12:13:59 pm
Mar 17, 12:14:17	Echo_Z -> TulaneJeff	Hello! I'm a Chinese student. I just receive my i-20 and plan for F-1 visa, but because of coronavirus I might not be able to get my visa in a while. The worst thing possible is that maybe I can't arrive in the US in August. Do you have any solutions for that? Mar-17 at 12:04:57 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Echo_Z	We are working hard on a solution for that and Tulane will reach out to you with specifics in the coming month. One possibility is that if you cannot arrive at Tulane because of Visa reasons, we can ensure you will get a virtual experience until you can arrive physically in New Orleans. Nothing has been decided yet, but rest assured we will find a solution for you. Mar-17 at 12:14:17 pm
Mar 17, 12:14:18	Evan -> TulaneJill	I can't visit any colleges anymore but I'm concerned about committing to an institution without having the complete picture of all others. Is Tulane going to extend their deadline to commit? Mar-17 at 12:05:35 pm
	TulaneJill -> Evan	Hi Evan, we are not planning to extend the May 1st deposit deadline at this time. Please check out our virtual page to get more information about our students and our campus: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 12:14:18 pm
Mar 17, 12:14:55	CST -> TulaneRula	What percentage of students (by year) live on campus? Mar-17 at 12:06:19 pm
	TulaneRula -> CST	Hi CST, freshman and sophomores are required to stay on campus and students can apply to housing junior and senior year though there is no guarantee there will be a spot for them https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life/housing ; Mar-17 at 12:14:55 pm
Mar 17, 12:15:32	zoe -> TulaneAngel	Do you need to have taken the act by a certain date to apply ED? Mar-17 at 12:01:41 pm
	TulaneAngel -> zoe	Zoe, with the ED deadline being Nov. 1 - we really urge students to take their test prior to/around the date of Oct. 20th so that the testing agency has time to get the scores to us and you have time to retake if need be. Mar-17 at 12:15:32 pm
Mar 17, 12:15:36	Elizabeth -> TulaneSierra	Hi again, my parents are worried that New Orleans is too unsafe. What kind of safety protocols do you guys have in place? Mar-17 at 12:06:45 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Elizabeth	Tulane provides campus safety and security on and off campus, you can learn more here https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life/safety-security ; Mar-17 at 12:15:36 pm
Mar 17, 12:15:38	zoe -> TulaneJeff	Will you take into account demonstrated interest for current juniors because of COVID-19? Mar-17 at 12:05:06 pm
	TulaneJeff -> zoe	Yes, absolutely. We cannot expect students to visit right now. The visit is not a major factor in our demonstrated interest view. Plus, this impacts everyone at the same time. But... we'll be sure to know if you joined this chat instead! ;-)

Mar 17, 12:16:00	L.Hicks -> TulaneSamR	Hi, if I am a Junior wanting to apply for Tulane what things would you be looking for in my application?
	TulaneSamR -> L.Hicks	Hi there! Tulane takes a holistic approach to reviewing applications, which means there are a lot of factors we take into account. This is the link to a presentation I recently did that includes a lot of tips for writing a great application: https://tinyurl.com/tulanetipssam . You can also check out Jeff's blog for some more insight: http://tuadmissionjeff.blogspot.com/2018/01/this-will-look-great-on-my-application.html ;
Mar 17, 12:16:20	Kate -> TulaneAidan	Hi, my name is Kate and I would love to learn more about Tulane's study abroad programs. How many students typically take advantage of the programs? Is hard to manage with a pre-med track?
	TulaneAidan -> Kate	Hi Kate. Tulane is know for having one of the top study abroad programs in the country, with a good deal of our students ending up going to study abroad at some point in their 4-5 years here. You can learn more about study abroad programs and offerings here: https://studyabroad.tulane.edu/ . In terms of pre med and studying abroad, that is doable, just be sure to meet with an advisor to make sure you stay on the right track.
Mar 17, 12:16:35	Keith -> TulaneSamR	Hi. When is move in day planned (at this point) for fall of 2020?
	TulaneSamR -> Keith	First year move in day will be Wednesday August 19th. We don't anticipate that changing at this point in time.
Mar 17, 12:16:35	JT -> TulaneJill	Will athletic camps and tours still be held this summer for prospective athletes? If not, will there be alternative options for viability by the Tulane Athletic Department since many secondary schools have transitioned to Home-based Learning?
	TulaneJill -> JT	JT, as for this summer things are still on currently. This is subject to change. For Athletics, you should reach out to them directly as they operate their tours and camps separately: https://tulane.greenwave.com/ ;
Mar 17, 12:16:40	Tejaswi -> TulaneJeff	Hi, I'm a student applying from India but I'm an US Citizen. Is there anything I need to know about applying to Tulane that would differ from kids in the states?
	TulaneJeff -> Tejaswi	Nope, we would not need any additional info from you. It will be the same as an applicant living in the USA.
Mar 17, 12:16:41	Claire -> TulaneRula	HI! Do all freshman take a small group freshman seminar? If so, what does that look like at Tulane? Thanks!
	TulaneRula -> Claire	Hello Claire, yes all freshman take what is called a TIDES course which is capped at 15-20 students and is about a number of different fields as well you can learn more here! https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/degrees-requirements/tides and https://college.tulane.edu/enrichment/first-year-experience/tides ; Mar-17 at 12:16:41 pm

Mar 17, 12:16:50	HoffmanPhilly -> TulaneCorinne	Hi, do you feel Tulane is uniquely prepared to deal with adversity such as COVID-19 due to weather related closures in the past? Mar-17 at 12:01:41 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> HoffmanPhilly	Hoffman, I appreciate where you're coming from. While of course, experience with emergency preparedness in the past definitely plays a role, I'm hesitant to draw too many comparisons between this pandemic and other events. Instead, I think Tulane's priority of getting solid information - through many avenues but especially our student affairs, global network, and public health/health science research - is what positions us to repond well and ultimately best support students Mar-17 at 12:16:49 pm
Mar 17, 12:16:55	Sophie_McCauley -> TulaneAngel	Hi! How does Tulane support students for post-graduate opportunities like internships, networking, etc.? Mar-17 at 12:12:37 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Sophie_McCauley	I would recommend checking our career service website to see some good examples of good support/resources for post graduation: https://hiretulanegrads.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:16:55 pm
Mar 17, 12:17:26	Kelley -> TulaneCorinne	Is there a change at all with your requirements for standardized testing now that the SAT and ACTs are all up in the air? Mar-17 at 12:01:57 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Kelley	We are aware of SAT cancellations. College Board will provide future additional SAT testing opportunities for students as soon as possible in place of canceled administrations. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. Be sure to keep an eye out for our emails- once we make a decision, we will be sure to communicate that to everyone! Mar-17 at 12:17:26 pm
Mar 17, 12:17:54	caroline_G -> TulaneSierra	Can you give some more info on the freshman transitional counseling? How does Tulane help ensure student success? Mar-17 at 12:07:44 pm
	TulaneSierra -> caroline_G	It all starts with CAST, https://admission.tulane.edu/cast . We support you before you even get on campus to make sure by the time you get here you know your resources! New Student Orientation will then address many first year students worries through various programs/workshops/orientations https://orientation.tulane.edu/new-student-orientation . Our CAPS center also provides mental health support for incoming students transition. Mar-17 at 12:17:54 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:13	Tanner -> TulaneSamR	Have your guys heard any information regarding AP Exams? College Board has pushed all SAT tests into June and concerned AP Exams will follow suit. Mar-17 at 12:15:52 pm

	TulaneSamR -> Tanner	Hi Tanner - we are taking things on a case by case basis, so please reach out to your TU admission counselor regarding any concerns you have about testing. We will work with each student individually to get things sorted out. Mar-17 at 12:18:13 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:17	N-Squared -> TulaneCorinne	This may be a dopey question, but does Tulane have a Phys Ed requirement? I know some colleges do. Mar-17 at 12:17:17 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> N-Squared	N^2, not a dopey question at all! Though, "dopey" did make me smile. No phys ed requirement at TU! Mar-17 at 12:18:17 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:29	OliviaS -> TulaneAngel	How manageable was it balancing marching band and academics? Also does your marching band have a color guard? Mar-17 at 12:16:14 pm
	TulaneAngel -> OliviaS	Yes we do have a color guard, and honestly its fairly easy. Similar to in high school, marching band meets after school hours - in the fall, MWF from 5:30- 7:30 and then in the Spring, MW, at the same time. I did it all 4 year when I was an udergrad at Tulane and never felt like I couldn't manage it along with my classes Mar-17 at 12:18:29 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:43	Suzy -> TulaneJill	Hi - I am the mother of an applicant from Washington, DC who was accepted. I reside overseas. If the coronavirus emergency situation lasts longer than the end of April, can we freeze her application and let her transfer from overseas once the emergency is over. Mar-17 at 12:08:02 pm
	TulaneJill -> Suzy	Hi Suzy, I am not sure what you mean by freezing her application. We will not be extending our May 1st deposit deadline as of now. If she would like to take a gap year instead of enrolling for Fall 2020, she can find more information on the gap year application here: https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/gap-year ; Mar-17 at 12:18:43 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:44	MilesR -> TulaneAidan	I just saw a post about changing majors. Is that right that students do not apply to a specific college at Tulane? I ask because I am interested in Engineering and typically students have to be accepted by the Engineering Department of a school- changing later is virtually impossible. Mar-17 at 12:07:26 pm
	TulaneAidan -> MilesR	Hey Miles! That is correct. You only apply to the university in general and are then accepted into all 5 colleges if admitted. It's great if you end up changing your mind about engineering or want to do a double major in engineering and lets say ceramics. Mar-17 at 12:18:44 pm
Mar 17, 12:18:59	Matt -> TulaneSierra	Hi! I am Matt Sebiri from Morristown NJ. I have been accepted for the architectural summer program at Tulane. Amid the COVID-19 crisis how will you deal with summer programs and the applicant who have been accepted if the virus prolongs? Mar-17 at 12:17:00 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Matt	You can find more info about Summer Programs and their response due to COVID-19 here https://summer.tulane.edu/experience/covid-19-update ; Mar-17 at 12:18:59 pm
Mar 17, 12:19:01	Isha -> TulaneJeff	Hello! I'm Isha from India. I wanted to ask regarding the racial discrimination at campus. I've heard from alumni that it is a serious issue that is quite often ignored and as an international student it is one of the criterias. Mar-17 at 12:07:31 pm

	TulaneJeff -> Isha	Great question. Tulane is no different from other schools where, unfortunately, there can be racial incidents on campus. They do not happen frequently and if they do, we have a very proactive way of addressing them and they will not be ignored nor tolerated. That said, by in large, I find Tulane to be a tremendously welcoming and accepting place. New Orleans is also likely one of the most open, accepting and progressive cities in the USA! Mar-17 at 12:19:01 pm
Mar 17, 12:20:09	Alexandra -> TulaneAidan	Hello! Can Freshmen choose their own roommates, or are they randomly assigned? Mar-17 at 12:10:05 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Alexandra	Hi Alexandra! Freshman can choose their roommate as long as both roommates put down each other as their preferred roommate (both need to do it!) Additionally, most roommates aren't actually "random" as you fill out a survey stating preferences about living environment and conditions. Mar-17 at 12:20:09 pm
Mar 17, 12:20:15	zoe -> TulaneSamR	Hi! Through research, I have learned that you are a community that is very passionate about giving back. What are some ways in which this is done. Mar-17 at 12:14:24 pm
	TulaneSamR -> zoe	Hi Zoe! One way is through our public service requirement - all Tulane students are required to participate in at least two forms of public service during their time here. We also have a wonderful program called Outreach Tulane, which is the oldest and largest public service event at Tulane: https://outreachtulane.wordpress.com/ . I recommend checking out the Center for Public Service's website for more info! https://cps.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:20:15 pm
Mar 17, 12:20:15	Chloe_Rosen -> TulaneJill	Hi! For spring scholars, do we still have the option to go abroad? Mar-17 at 12:09:16 pm
	TulaneJill -> Chloe_Rosen	Hi Chloe, at this point our abroad partners have not cancelled their programs for the Fall 2020 for Spring Scholars. I would apply to the abroad programs you are interested in, and maintain options close to home as well. We are monitoring the situation with our abroad partners closely and once we know more information, we will be in touch. Mar-17 at 12:20:15 pm
Mar 17, 12:20:34	MilesR -> TulaneSierra	I am a student of color from the Pacific Northwest living in a pretty progressive area. I am wondering how people of color are treated by the larger community around Tulane. Mar-17 at 12:16:05 pm
	TulaneSierra -> MilesR	Hey Miles! Great question and glad you asked. You can find more info about multicultural life at Tulane here https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life/diversity/multicultural-access-programs , I would encourage you to reach out to our diversity fellows and read the student perspectives for more insight into student of color experiences. Also happy to have this conversation offline, via phone! Mar-17 at 12:20:34 pm
Mar 17, 12:20:52	Jdermond -> TulaneJeff	What makes Tulane stand out? Mar-17 at 12:08:08 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Jdermond	location, location, location! But also our commitment to serving the location where we live. We've been ranked the #1 school in the USA for students most engaged in community service the last four years in a row. Also I love that its 80 degrees out rn. Mar-17 at 12:20:52 pm

Mar 17, 12:21:21	Claire -> TulaneRula	Hi. I am a junior and really interested in applying to Tulane. I know that at Tulane there is a huge service learning component, which really interests me. Can you elaborate a little bit about it? Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:03:52 pm
	TulaneRula -> Claire	Hello Claire, glad to know you're interested in Tulane. Tulane does have a service learning component which is required to graduate, and also a culture of service. Students do service in two tiers which you can learn more about here from the Center for Public Service and stay tuned through out the spring as we continue to hold virtual events on a number of different topics students are interested in, including service. https://admission.tulane.edu/public-service you can learn about the Center for Public Service: https://cps.tulane.edu/ and our scholarships/fellowship application for students dedicated and interested in service https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/merit-scholarships ; Mar-17 at 12:21:21 pm
Mar 17, 12:21:43	Max_shilstone -> TulaneJeff	Are there walk on tryouts for your athletics teams? I am interested in playing Football for Tulane Mar-17 at 12:11:58 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Max_shilstone	Yes indeed- they will take place late summer or during the school year depending on the sport. Mar-17 at 12:21:43 pm
Mar 17, 12:22:08	Lindsay -> TulaneSierra	Could you tell us a bit about Tulane's location and the activities on and off campus? Mar-17 at 12:12:51 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Lindsay	Tulane is located in beautiful uptown, New Orleans! I would encourage you take a virtual campus tour to see more of it https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 12:22:08 pm
Mar 17, 12:22:09	jake_s -> TulaneAidan	Hi! I'm looking to apply to the Tulane architecture program next year. Would it be possible to get feedback on my online art and architecture portfolio before I submit an application Mar-17 at 12:12:22 pm
	TulaneAidan -> jake_s	Hey Jake! For our architecture program (and all programs in general) portfolio's are optional. In terms of sending us your work, send what you like. You won't be negatively affected if you send us (or don't) a portfolio that isn't all A+ art work, it's simply up to you. Mar-17 at 12:22:09 pm
Mar 17, 12:22:29	Jessa -> TulaneAngel	hi! can you talk a little about the honors program? Mar-17 at 12:02:28 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Jessa	Jessica, the honors programs is great. There isn't a big division of students with those who are honors or not, and thats because freshman and sophomore year - we are all in the same boat. Everyone is doing their intro courses and getting their feet wet with getting to know each other. When you reach junior and senior year thats when the honors program really shines. You can do a thesis, have specific networking opportunities, and apply for great post-grad scholarships (open to anyone) ! Look here for more info: https://honors.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:22:29 pm

Mar 17, 12:22:46	Theo -> TulaneJeff	Hi, My daughter and I were planning to visit Tulane next week as part of the Admitted Students program. As those programs have been put on hold, I was considering a visit the first week in June. Will there be anyone from the Admissions Office available to talk to incoming Freshman? I don't see anything in the portal just yet. Mar-17 at 12:12:12 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Theo	hell yes! As soon as its safe to have campus tours again, I can guarantee we'll be having as many as humanly possible to make up for lost time. Generally, in the summer, we are open 6 days a week. Every day except sunday. Mar-17 at 12:22:46 pm
Mar 17, 12:22:58	Jackie -> TulaneSamR	Hi, I'm also a junior but I don't know a lot about this university. How would you describe your classroom structure? Mar-17 at 12:18:24 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Jackie	Hi Jackie - one great thing about Tulane is our small student to professor ratio, which translates to small class sizes and individualized attention with professors and other staff members. It also allows you to get to know your professors in both a professional and personal sense. Feel free to reach out to some of our Green Wave Ambassadors to ask about their experiences in the classroom: https://tulane.welcometocollege.com/ ; Mar-17 at 12:22:58 pm
Mar 17, 12:23:13	Ada -> TulaneJill	Hello! I was wondering, what sorts of community service opportunities does Tulane offer to connect with the greater New Orleans community? Mar-17 at 12:09:27 pm
	TulaneJill -> Ada	Ada, there are lots of service opportunities through Tulane. We require public service for graduation and we have an entire office dedicated to this called the Center for Public Service. We have student leaders that work in CPS called the Community Engagement Advocates that prepare students for engaging in service in the New Orleans community and what it means to come from a place of privilege and humility while working with New Orleans community members. It is important to remember it is a mutually beneficial experience. Our students always tell us that public service was the most impactful part of their college experience. You can find more information here: https://cps.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:23:13 pm
Mar 17, 12:23:13	peyton.r -> TulaneCorinne	hi! I'm a PA high school student looking to go to college out of state, what makes tulane's location special? Mar-17 at 12:02:21 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> peyton.r	Peyton, New Orleans is a truly magical place!!! I actually grew up in the Philly suburbs and knew I wanted to get out of state (and out of the northeast, if we're being honest). Tulane and New Orleans are a good combo: it's pretty rare to both have green space (like our quads that host Crawfest) and also be in a city. Being in a place like New Orleans means having amazing resources of a city with fewer people vying for them, the comfort of knowing there's a place for everyone, a full social calendar at amazing restaurants, festivals, parks, etc... you get the idea. There's no place like it! Mar-17 at 12:23:13 pm
Mar 17, 12:23:22	Nate -> TulaneSierra	How has Tulane responded to the coronavirus outbreak? Mar-17 at 12:21:52 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Nate	Nate, you can learn more about how we have responded by checking out our emergency preparedness and response team website https://emergencyprep.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:23:22 pm

Mar 17, 12:23:26	Catherine -> TulaneJeff	Hello! I am an international student for Fall of 2020. Will we take online courses due to the effect of virus? Mar-17 at 12:13:01 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Catherine	That remains to be seen. Hopefully, we will be back up and running. But all depends on how much cases of the virus start to slow. Mar-17 at 12:23:26 pm
Mar 17, 12:23:42	Lindsay -> TulaneAngel	What is the average class size at Tulane? Are classes more oriented around tests or projects and papers? Mar-17 at 12:18:34 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Lindsay	Lindsay, average class size is about 22 students. Depending on the class will depend on the orientation of it - everything varies Mar-17 at 12:23:42 pm
Mar 17, 12:24:04	Alexandra -> TulaneJeff	What criteria is taken into consideration for admission into the Honors College? Mar-17 at 12:13:35 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Alexandra	It's heavily based on the raw numbers- so your academic grades and your test scores. Mar-17 at 12:24:04 pm
Mar 17, 12:24:11	Olivia -> TulaneAidan	Prior to deciding to apply, I did a lot of research online, and feel that Tulane would be a great fit for me. However, I have not yet had a chance to visit. Other than the virtual tours, what can I do to discover the "essence of Tulane" if I am unable to visit before having to declare? Mar-17 at 12:13:19 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Olivia	Hi Olivia! Starting with chat's like these is a great way to learn more about Tulane. If you haven't already, I'd check out this link: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down . Additionally be on the look out for other material we'll be sending out over the next few weeks! Mar-17 at 12:24:11 pm
Mar 17, 12:24:15	Audrey -> TulaneSamR	I got an email about counselors coming to the Chicago area in April and I signed up for one of those sessions. Are those still on? I assume not, but I haven't received any confirmation of that. Mar-17 at 12:16:54 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Audrey	Hi Audrey - unfortunately, we have had to cancel our in person events. If you have questions about Tulane or the application process, feel free to reach out to Keith Stanford, our regional representative for the Midwest: https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us/keith-stanford ; Mar-17 at 12:24:15 pm
Mar 17, 12:24:47	Elizabeth -> TulaneSierra	So even though subject tests are optional, are students more likely to get into Tulane if they have done them? Mar-17 at 12:23:57 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Elizabeth	No, a subject test does not make a significant impact on admission Mar-17 at 12:24:47 pm
Mar 17, 12:24:53	L.Hicks -> TulaneJeff	I currently attend an IB school in Delaware, should I score well on my tests would I get credit for taking those courses now? Mar-17 at 12:14:32 pm

	TulaneJeff -> L.Hicks	Yes, we generally award credit for a 6 or above on the HL tests. Mar-17 at 12:24:53 pm
Mar 17, 12:25:30	karen -> TulaneJill	With my daughter admitted as a spring scholar, what options does Tulane consider in light of study abroad and covid? Mar-17 at 12:13:27 pm
	TulaneJill -> karen	karen, we encourage Spring Scholars to apply for the abroad programs they are interested in while we monitor the situation. Nothing has been cancelled for the Fall as of now. That being said, we recommend that students have options close to home. They can attend other colleges and universities as a visiting student. They can work with us over the summer on transfer credit evaluations. They will receive more information on that process after May 1st. Mar-17 at 12:25:30 pm
Mar 17, 12:26:11	Lindsay -> TulaneAidan	Could you please tell us about the digital media and journalism programs? Mar-17 at 12:07:47 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Lindsay	Hey Lindsay! I was a Digital Media major at Tulane and can tell you that it was a fantastic program. We focused on all aspects of film and television (editing, directing, producing, audio, you name it we did it). Additionally I majored in English which helped me take more journalism like courses and get involved with our student paper, the Hullabaloo! Mar-17 at 12:26:11 pm
Mar 17, 12:26:45	Skye -> TulaneJeff	Hi, it has been a long time that I haven't joined in the WhatsApp or Wechat Group for international students after I filled the form on the email. I have asked Nora for help twice, but didn't get any reply. 🙄 Mar-17 at 12:16:33 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Skye	Let me check directly with her! We are slammed busy right now but will get to it ASAP. Mar-17 at 12:26:45 pm
Mar 17, 12:27:02	Kelley -> TulaneSierra	What percentage of students graduate in four years? Mar-17 at 12:23:40 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Kelley	mid 80s% Mar-17 at 12:27:02 pm
Mar 17, 12:27:20	MicKeef23 -> TulaneSamR	What unique academic/extracurricular opportunities does Tulane have to offer that other universities do not? Mar-17 at 12:09:30 pm
	TulaneSamR -> MicKeef23	One of my personal favorites is The Tulane Service Dog Training and Education Program (aka TUSTEP): https://tustep.tulane.edu/ . You can also find a complete list of student organizations on campus here: https://lbc.tulane.edu/student-organizations . One thing that certainly distinguishes Tulane from our peers is our commitment to public service: https://cps.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:27:20 pm
Mar 17, 12:27:32	Sara -> TulaneAngel	Hello! My name is Sara and I'm admitted to Tulane! I am super interested in pursuing musical theatre/theatre as a career. What is the difference between the musical theatre and theatre programs at Tulane (what are the training and performance opportunities every year)? Also, what is the flexibility with minors/double majoring when in the theatre or musical theatre program? Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:07:44 pm

	TulaneAngel -> Sara	Musical Theater falls under the department of Music and not theater - the difference is in the curriculum which you can look up on their websites: https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/music/academics/undergrad/bfa-musical-theatre and https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/theatre-dance/programs/undergraduate/theatre . There is a minor in theater, but not musical theater and there are audition processes, so you will have to connect with your major advisors to make sure you know which classes you need to take. However, overall its fairly flexible Mar-17 at 12:27:32 pm
Mar 17, 12:27:38	peyton.r -> TulaneCorinne	Does anyone have experience as a student athlete at Tulane? How did that affect your college experience? Mar-17 at 12:04:58 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> peyton.r	Peyton, I sure don't have any experience as a student athlete, but my brother is on the track & field team at Tulane! As I understand the experience compared to other institutions, athletes at TU are able to live well-rounded lives and have access to world-renowned academic resources, all while getting exposure as a D1 varsity athlete. I definitely encourage anyone interested in athletics to reach out directly to the coaching staff - they are amazing resources and happy to help! https://tulanegreenwave.com/ ; Mar-17 at 12:27:38 pm
Mar 17, 12:27:42	Justin -> TulaneJeff	Hi, I was signed up for the Campus Preview Day on April 17th and the last email I received about its status stated that it had not yet been cancelled. Has the status changed? Mar-17 at 12:18:56 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Justin	Justin, we have cancelled all events before April 15th. Right now, that event is still on but it's definitely got a high potential to be cancelled. Stay tuned, we'll keep you posted as soon as we know. Mar-17 at 12:27:42 pm
Mar 17, 12:28:17	kate_s -> TulaneSierra	hi! i was wondering what help/opportunities tulane offers regarding getting internships in the new orleans area? Mar-17 at 12:25:11 pm
	TulaneSierra -> kate_s	Our career center is great for helping students find local , national, and global internships! Mar-17 at 12:28:16 pm
Mar 17, 12:28:23	Jdermond -> TulaneAidan	What is student life like on campus and what are the ways you work toward fostering a strong community? Thank you for this chat and opportunity to have our questions answered considering the current situation. Mar-17 at 12:14:03 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Jdermond	Hey there! Tuane has always been a strong community and really felt like a home for our students. We offer over 150+ different clubs and organizations which helps create a whole campus environment that other schools can sometimes lack. Mar-17 at 12:28:23 pm
Mar 17, 12:28:48	Max_shilstone -> TulaneJill	What is your graduation rate for those who take engineering as a major and how those Tulane help with those students find a job after college based off of their specific major. Mar-17 at 12:15:07 pm

	TulaneJill -> Max_shilstone	Max, we do not report specific graduation rates for specific majors as all of our undergraduate students graduate from Newcomb-Tulane College. Our overall six year graduation rate is somewhere north of 85% or so. As for finding jobs, every student gets an academic/career advisor their freshmen year. They will help you decide majors, pick classes, identify internships, build your resume, and job placement upon graduation. You can find out more about what career services we offer here: https://hiretulanegrads.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:28:48 pm
Mar 17, 12:28:57	Marni_C -> TulaneSamR	Hi! How well are students able to individualize their classes to their interests? Mar-17 at 12:25:59 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Marni_C	Great question, Marni! One of the best things about Tulane is how flexible our academics are - you can take classes across all five of our undergraduate schools, no matter what your declared major is! It's also very common for our students to double major or have at least one minor - so the short answer to your question is: it's super easy to customize your schedule! Mar-17 at 12:28:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:29:02	Suzy -> TulaneSierra	Some of the funds that I received are loans. I was wondering what are the terms and conditions of these loans? Mar-17 at 12:27:04 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Suzy	Any questions pertaining to loans are questions for your financial aid counselor. You can find your financial aid counselor here https://financialaid.tulane.edu/meet-us/counselors/undergraduate ; Mar-17 at 12:29:02 pm
Mar 17, 12:29:25	Olivia -> TulaneJill	The one-on-one chat with current Tulane students has been disabled on your website. Any chance that it will come back online? I feel that it would be helpful to chat with current students as well as admissions staff. Many thanks! Mar-17 at 12:16:56 pm
	TulaneJill -> Olivia	Hi Olivia! Yes, we are hoping to get that back online soon. Please check back with us next week. For now, our current students are answering questions by email at interns@tulane.edu . Mar-17 at 12:29:25 pm
Mar 17, 12:29:31	Acadia -> TulaneRula	Are many classes taught by teacher assistants? If so, is it easy to get help when you need it in classes? Mar-17 at 12:19:20 pm
	TulaneRula -> Acadia	Hi Acadia, most classes at Tulane, over 95% are taught by an instructor with a terminal degree in their field. Students have a variety of resources for students as can be found here: https://success.tulane.edu/altc at our Academic Learning and Tutoring Center as well as https://college.tulane.edu/support and https://college.tulane.edu/support/academic-equity academic equity with support such as success coaches as well! Mar-17 at 12:29:31 pm
Mar 17, 12:29:31	Alec -> TulaneAidan	Hello, my name is Alec from Pennsylvania. I am very interested in Greek Life, and was wondering if that is prominent here at Tulane. Mar-17 at 12:14:26 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Alec	Hey Alec! Greek life is offered at Tulane, but not all encompassing. I'd say only 40% of our students end up joining greek life, which makes it not too overwhelming if that isn't something you see yourself doing. Mar-17 at 12:29:31 pm

Mar 17, 12:29:35	Isha -> TulaneAngel	I have received a scholarship from Tulane but is there any way I can apply for financial aid based on my final result? Mar-17 at 12:09:53 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Isha	You should apply with the FAFSA and CSS Profile if you have not done so for need based aid. We want to make sure to give you an accurate total financial aid package. If it is a full tuition scholarship then there is a possibility that you won't get a lot of financial aid, but if its a partial scholarship then definitely go for it! Mar-17 at 12:29:35 pm
Mar 17, 12:30:39	Sara_Marks -> TulaneCorinne	When I visited Tulane, I really liked the community service aspect. What are some options each of us students will have when attending? Mar-17 at 12:06:48 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Sara_Marks	Sara, my friend there are zillions of ways to get involved in service! It's actually a requirement to graduate from Tulane, so there are two tiers of service-learning that all students complete. Our Center for Public Service (CPS) is the hub for community engagement and has 300+ connections in New Orleans alone that past students have worked on, and this number is growing actively. Since all students do service, there are opportunities in all of our 5 undergraduate schools and 75+ majors/minors. We have nine local hospitals, a growing tech sector we lovingly call "the silicon bayou," tons of movies/TV shows filmed here (22 Jump Street, American Horror Story, NCIS: New Orleans, etc), many public and private law opportunities, businesses of all sizes, I could go on. I fully trust that CPS will have opportunities that pique your interest. You can learn more here: https://cps.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:30:39 pm
Mar 17, 12:30:41	Kayla -> TulaneJeff	I am very interested in the environment, and I was wondering what steps Tulane is taking to increase sustainability on campus. Is there a way students can get involved with this? Mar-17 at 12:23:30 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Kayla	Heck yeah! So many opportunities, especially given our location on the Gulf Coast. From different majors and clubs, you'll be able to be involved in all things related to the environment. One academic example: https://architecture.tulane.edu/academics/real-estate/msred and one social/club example: https://www.nola.com/gambit/news/the_latest/article_b8503ebc-4cff-11ea-8a02-dba5a2b4584.html Also, check out our Bywater Institute: https://bywater.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:30:41 pm
Mar 17, 12:30:42	Kelley -> TulaneSamR	If I do not take the ACT because the rescheduled date is a conflict for me, will that hamper my admission to Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:27:44 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Kelley	Hi Kelley - we know that there are a lot of things out of your control right now, including the ability to take standardized tests. In order to be considered for admission to Tulane, we will still need at least one test score (either SAT or ACT). If you have concerns, please feel free to reach out to the Tulane representative assigned to your area of the country: https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us ; Mar-17 at 12:30:42 pm

Mar 17, 12:30:50	Isha -> TulaneAngel	I also wanted to ask regarding the dance course as a minor. Could I please be given more information on that? Mar-17 at 12:21:05 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Isha	Take a look at this website: https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/theatre-dance/programs/undergraduate/dance ; Mar-17 at 12:30:50 pm
Mar 17, 12:31:23	Christopher -> TulaneSierra	Good Afternoon! I am a high school senior hoping to attend Tulane next fall and I was wondering about major changes at Tulane as a student and how that may/may not affect graduating on time as a senior at Tulane. Mar-17 at 12:23:38 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Christopher	Students change their majors all the time, and still graduate in 4 yrs. You will have an academic advisor to work with you so that you stay on track for a 4 yr graduation https://advising.tulane.edu/exploratory-advising/deciding-major ; Mar-17 at 12:31:23 pm
Mar 17, 12:31:45	Claire -> TulaneJill	Can you talk a little bit about greek life - I know it is a big part of the culture on campus. Mar-17 at 12:19:30 pm
	TulaneJill -> Claire	Claire, Greek life on campus is what students make of it. We are not a traditional Southern or SEC school in that we do not do recruitment until second semester. That way, students can make friends, join clubs, get settled academically and otherwise before going through recruitment. Greek life is an additional to our very vibrant student life. Around 40-50% of our students on campus are involved in Greek Life and they will tell you it is what you make out of it, meaning you can be as involved as you would like based on what other commitments you have going on. Mar-17 at 12:31:44 pm
Mar 17, 12:31:58	Alyssa -> TulaneAidan	Hi! I'm a junior and thinking about majoring in history and/or education. Can you explain a little bit more about doubling majors? Mar-17 at 12:16:57 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Alyssa	Hey Alyssa! For your fields of interest, you'd most likely go down a 5 year teacher certificate track that we offer. Since we don't offer education as a major in itself, we prepare our students for careers in the field and have seen amazing returns in terms of producing quality teachers. For you, you'd major in history (graduate in 4 years) and also take the education courses at the same time. That 5th year would be your field work, where you're getting paid as a teacher and finish up your certificate. Mar-17 at 12:31:58 pm
Mar 17, 12:32:05	Sara -> TulaneAngel	What's the difference between the Theatre and Musical Theatre majors? Mar-17 at 12:27:38 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Sara	The difference is in the curriculum - take a look here: https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/theatre-dance/programs/undergraduate/theatre and https://catalog.tulane.edu/liberal-arts/music/musical-theatre-bfa/ Musical Theater is in the department of music and theater is in its own department Mar-17 at 12:32:04 pm
Mar 17, 12:32:27	maxlasd1 -> TulaneSierra	My high school has a college fair planned in May. I was hoping to talk to a Tulane representative.

		Are those still going forward as of right now? Mar-17 at 12:29:45 pm
	TulaneSierra -> maxlasd1	If your high school cancels the fair no colleges/univ will be in attendance. I would advise you reach out to your admission counselor to see if they are still attending, Mar-17 at 12:32:27 pm
Mar 17, 12:32:34	Hailey -> TulaneJill	Hi, do in state students have a better chance of being admitted than out of state students? Mar-17 at 12:22:01 pm
	TulaneJill -> Hailey	Hi Hailey, we are a private school so we have no preferential treatment for in-state vs. out-of-state students. All students that apply are considered equally in our admission process no matter where they are from Mar-17 at 12:32:34 pm
Mar 17, 12:32:52	kate_s -> TulaneJeff	i was admitted to the honors program and was planning on going to the honors weekend to help make up my mind regarding college decisions, how do y'all recommend my family and i get a feel for the school without actually visiting? Mar-17 at 12:29:36 pm
	TulaneJeff -> kate_s	Hey Kate! We're bummed about Honors Weekend too. We will have many different virtual events coming up and this page will be the one-stop-shop for all things virtual https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down Join as many of our chats and virtual events as possible - we have many coming up! Mar-17 at 12:32:52 pm
Mar 17, 12:32:59	Alyssa -> TulaneSamR	Can you talk about your education programs? Mar-17 at 12:26:34 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Alyssa	Our Early Childhood Education major is offered as a coordinate major with psychology - meaning you will need to study both areas during your time at Tulane. More info here: https://sse.tulane.edu/node/3408 ; Mar-17 at 12:32:59 pm
Mar 17, 12:33:03	Sara_Marks -> TulaneAidan	Do the teachers make themselves readily available to students through office hours and help sessions? Mar-17 at 12:18:34 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Sara_Marks	Hey Sara! All Professors offer office hours to students and are always willing to help in any way they can. Additionally we have an excellent tutoring center on campus that has student tutors that have taken that course before who can help as well. Mar-17 at 12:33:03 pm
Mar 17, 12:33:16	Dani -> TulaneJeff	This isn't about Tulane in particular, but will you keeping the the questions/responses from this chat available for review later? Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:30:24 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Dani	yes, we will share a transcript and post on line in the coming few days. Mar-17 at 12:33:16 pm
Mar 17, 12:33:23	Alexandra -> TulaneRula	How late are the libraries open on campus? Mar-17 at 12:20:21 pm
	TulaneRula -> Alexandra	You can learn about our libraries here! https://tulane.edu/academics/libraries and check out this page for virtual tours: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 12:33:23 pm

Mar 17, 12:33:25	sig -> TulaneAngel	Hello! My name is Shah. Could you please tell me more about the internship opportunities available as an undergraduate student at Tulane? I am waiting for my decision and will hopefully commit to Tulane for the fall if I am admitted! Mar-17 at 12:29:48 pm
	TulaneAngel -> sig	Hi Shah - Tulane loves helping students find internships as there are many cool ones out there - please look here for more info and types of internships we offer: https://hiretulane.tulane.edu/career-advising/find-internships ; Mar-17 at 12:33:25 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:00	Suzy -> TulaneSierra	I have been awarded some amount of the "Tulane Scholarship" and it informed me that the status bar is "offered". How can I change the status to "accepted"? Mar-17 at 12:25:42 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Suzy	In your Gibson Portal/Financial Aid tab, you should be able to see an option to accept scholarships. You can also reach out to your financial aid counselor so they can guide you through the portal for financial aid Mar-17 at 12:34:00 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:28	Sophie_McCauley -> TulaneAidan	how would compare the New Orleans environment to other cities? What makes TU different in that respect? Mar-17 at 12:21:41 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Sophie_McCauley	Hi Sophie. In my opinion, it's no comparable to anywhere else. I've been lucky enough to live in places like Miami, NYC and LA, and well they're all great, none of them come close to the feel that you get in NOLA. The people, food, culture, NOLA has it all and I hope you get a chance to see it for yourself in the near future. Mar-17 at 12:34:28 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:33	Marni_C -> TulaneJeff	Hi, I took the ACT in February, but I did not take the writing section. Should I take it next time? Mar-17 at 12:33:19 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Marni_C	Nope, we don't even look at it. Rejoice! Mar-17 at 12:34:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:48	BDTarbel -> TulaneCorinne	How are students admitted to the Honors program? Mar-17 at 12:08:20 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> BDTarbel	BDTarbel, great question! As soon as a student applies, we will automatically make admission, scholarship (this year up to $30k/year), and Honors invitation decisions in committee. This means that there is no additional application to our Honors Program since we typically invite the top 10% of our applicant pool based on their high school academic performance (looking at both transcript and test scores). You can learn more about the benefits of our Honors Program here: https://honors.tulane.edu/content/program-overview ; Mar-17 at 12:34:48 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:51	Lisa -> TulaneJill	Do you expect the trend to continue toward admitting more Spring Scholars or sophomore year starts? Mar-17 at 12:26:13 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lisa	Lisa, our admission rate for Spring Scholars actually went down this past year. It is a competitive program for students very interested in Tulane. We are lucky that students are very interested in attending Tulane, but unlucky in that our space and class size does not always allow us to admit every student that could be a good fit for Tulane their freshman year. That is why we offer Spring Scholars and Guaranteed Transfer as an option for students to attend Tulane at a later point.

		Neither of these programs are binding. The trend would only continue if we continue to see more applications of more qualified and interested students, which at this point in the world we are living in, it is tough to predict any trends right now :) Mar-17 at 12:34:51 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:57	Levi -> TulaneSamR	What kind of student fits in at your school? Mar-17 at 12:31:42 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Levi	An excellent question, Levi! Students who thrive at Tulane tend to be very willing to venture outside their comfort zones, are dedicated to public service in a meaningful way, and have multiple academic interests that they want to pursue during their time here. Mar-17 at 12:34:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:34:58	MilesR -> TulaneRula	Does Tulane offer online tours of the school and dorms? Mar-17 at 12:24:58 pm
	TulaneRula -> MilesR	Hello Miles, Tulane does offer online tours, we have a whole website dedicated to showing you and and having you learn more about Tulane no matter where you are https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down and stay tuned as we have more virtual events this spring! Mar-17 at 12:34:58 pm
Mar 17, 12:35:53	Tanner -> TulaneAidan	What AP scores are accepted at TU to receive credit? Mar-17 at 12:26:52 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Tanner	Hi Tanner. We accept 4s and 5s for AP exams! Mar-17 at 12:35:53 pm
Mar 17, 12:36:17	Catherine -> TulaneSierra	Hi, question again, what is Tulane's policies on double major? I love painting every much and I am interest in exploring in Art majors. at the same time I wish I can learn economics. will that be possible? Mar-17 at 12:34:07 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Catherine	Yes, double majors is something we see about 28% of our students doing. You can double major across the 5 schools or within the same school Mar-17 at 12:36:16 pm
Mar 17, 12:37:08	Jason -> TulaneAngel	Hello. I am a high school junior interested in potential pre health opportunities offered at your college. Do you have any internship or research opportunities available for undergraduates? If so, can you give some examples of internships your students can partake in? Also, do you offer any merit based scholarships? Mar-17 at 11:34:12 am
	TulaneAngel -> Jason	Jason, Yes, there are many based on the department you would like to do it in. A lot of students think that they cannot do research in freshman year - not true! You have to be a bit proactive and reach out directly to your professors so that they know you are interested in being apart of their research projects/labs.For examples, I would recommend reaching out to students themselves - look here and filter for current students involved in pre-med: https://tulane.welcometocollege.com/ Yes we do offer merit scholarships - look here: https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/merit-scholarships ; Mar-17 at 12:37:08 pm
Mar 17, 12:37:12	anitabhoff -> TulaneSierra	Hi! Do you require the essay for the SAT? I haven't had a chance to take it yet. Mar-17 at 12:35:51 pm

	TulaneSierra -> anitabhoff	No we do not require the essay for the SAT, see more about how we use scores here https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/instructions/standardized-tests ;Mar-17 at 12:37:12 pm
Mar 17, 12:37:30	Leanne -> TulaneRula	Hello. I am a junior as well and was wondering when is a good time to start applying for the 2021/2022 school year if i am also interested in playing a college sport? Mar-17 at 12:25:21 pm
	TulaneRula -> Leanne	Hello Leanne, the Common Application opens on August 1 and you can learn about it here as well as our process and planning: https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/getting-into-tulane/tips-for-juniors Mar-17 at 12:37:30 pm
Mar 17, 12:37:40	Lindsay -> TulaneJill	How prevalent is greek life on campus? What percentage of students participate? Mar-17 at 12:29:44 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lindsay	Lindsay, around 40-50% of students are in Greek life and that percentage is higher for women than men. Greek life is what you make of it! We only do recruitment in the Spring semester, so during the Fall semester new students can get acclimated academically and socially, join clubs and organizations, and then decide if they want to add Greek life. Students can be as involved as they would like. Mar-17 at 12:37:40 pm
Mar 17, 12:37:57	Sara_Marks -> TulaneAidan	How hard is the transition from high school to college? What were some challenges that you experienced? Mar-17 at 12:19:54 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Sara_Marks	Hey Sara! Not going to lie, ti can be a bit of a tough transition at first. For me, being 900+ miles away from my family for the first time wasn't easy, but thanks to the great people and culture at Tulane, I found myself quickly embracing Tulane as my new home. My advise is just to try out new clubs and activities! Ultimate Frisbee and Improv were ways in which I found myself here. Mar-17 at 12:37:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:38:27	Marni_C -> TulaneCorinne	Hi, I'm Marni from Westchester. If schools are cancelled, will there still be college fairs? Mar-17 at 12:08:52 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Marni_C	Marni, hello!!! I used to recruit in Westchester and as chaotic as that County Center got, I know there were always some good questions answered there. While we cannot say for certain what other organizations (like the Westchester-Putnam College Conferences) will do, I do know that our office is accessible whether students are able to go to those college fairs or not. You can always reach out to us (https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us) and check out our virtual events (https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down). We're more than happy to help! Mar-17 at 12:38:27 pm
Mar 17, 12:38:33	Nico -> TulaneJeff	Hello, my name is Nicolas Camacho, I'm from Riverside Ct, and I first want to thank you guys so much for having this chat session. I know Tulane is very big with its study abroad program, sending students across the world and experiencing different cultures and backgrounds. I was wondering for the study abroad program if there are any specific majors or minors at Tulane that require you to go and study abroad? Mar-17 at 12:34:32 pm

	TulaneJeff -> Nico	Hey Nico! Hope you are hanging in there in CT. This past year, we were ranked in the top 20 for most active study abroad program for any college or university in the USA. I personally went abroad twice- once in Asia and oe summer I studied African Diaspora Studies and Caribbean Art History at the University of the West Indies in Trinidad and Tobago. if that doesn't show you how broad our options are, nothing will! Any major or minor can study abroad and around 50% of our students will take at least one abroad experience (summer, school year, semester or break) abroad. Mar-17 at 12:38:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:38:53	Jessica -> TulaneAngel	What internship opportunities are available to premed students at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:31:48 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Jessica	Jessica, there are many based on the department you would like to do it in. A lot of students think that they cannot do research in freshman year - not true! You have to be a bit proactive and reach out directly to your professors so that they know you are interested in being apart of their research projects/labs. For examples of different types of pre-med experiences, I would recommend reaching out to students themselves - look here and filter for current students involved in pre-med: https://tulane.welcometocollege.com/ and take a look here: https://advising.tulane.edu/pre-health ; Mar-17 at 12:38:53 pm
Mar 17, 12:39:06	Justin -> TulaneAidan	I was hoping to sit in on a class when I visited campus, will there be any way to do that virtually now? Mar-17 at 12:25:10 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Justin	Hey Justin! We won't be having virtual class sit ins as of now, but the Deans of all 5 colleges will be holding info sessions soon so be on the look out for those! Mar-17 at 12:39:05 pm
Mar 17, 12:39:07	Sona -> TulaneSierra	What dorm are freshman usually placed in? Mar-17 at 12:36:39 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Sona	First year living is: Monroe, Sharp, Butler, Wall, JL, Warren and Patterson https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-options/our-communities ; Mar-17 at 12:39:07 pm
Mar 17, 12:39:07	caroline_G -> TulaneSamR	Uber-specific question: What if a student is completely undecided between engineering, architecture and History? how do they apply to Tulane and what are the first year options to help with a decision? Mar-17 at 12:35:57 pm
	TulaneSamR -> caroline_G	Hi Caroline! This is actually a great question - when you apply to Tulane, you are applying to the University as a whole, not to one specific school. It's totally okay to mark "undecided" on your application - we don't have a limit to how many students we can accept into each school. I recommend trying out classes in lots of different areas during your first couple of semesters so that you can settle on a major by the end of your sophomore year. Mar-17 at 12:39:07 pm
Mar 17, 12:39:13	Skye -> TulaneJill	Hi, I have a question about how to get credits from AP exams and summer school. Mar-17 at 12:30:34 pm
	TulaneJill -> Skye	Skye, you can find the list of AP courses here: https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/earning-college-credit/ap-ib-exams . As for summer courses, if you enroll at Tulane you would work with your academic advisor on transferring those. Mar-17 at 12:39:13 pm

Mar 17, 12:39:20	Camryn -> TulaneAngel	I am interested in dance at Tulane but not sure if I would want to major in it. Do you have to be a dance major in order to audition/ be in the Newcomb Dance Company? Mar-17 at 12:34:53 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Camryn	Short answer Camryn, nope, not...at...all Mar-17 at 12:39:20 pm
Mar 17, 12:39:22	Alexandra -> TulaneRula	Approximately how many intramural sports are there, and what percentage of students participate? Mar-17 at 12:32:41 pm
	TulaneRula -> Alexandra	Hello Alexandra, you can learn about intramural sports here https://campusrecreation.tulane.edu/intramurals and reach out to my colleague Aidan as he used to play Ultimate Frisbee! Mar-17 at 12:39:22 pm
Mar 17, 12:40:10	kate_s -> TulaneSierra	if i submit my enrollment deposit pretty close to the deadline (thinking end of april for me), will that hinder me when applying to RLCs? Mar-17 at 12:36:58 pm
	TulaneSierra -> kate_s	First yr housing app including RLC's opened March 2 and will close May 8. Mar-17 at 12:40:10 pm
Mar 17, 12:40:40	Ashlyn -> TulaneAidan	Hello! My name is Ashlyn Krow and I'm a junior in high school. How would you describe the culture at Tulane, especially for new freshmen? Mar-17 at 12:15:49 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Ashlyn	Hi Ashlyn! The word I use to describe the culture of Tulane is camaraderie. This school feels like a real home for our students and one in which they can be themselves and be accepted for who they are. Mar-17 at 12:40:40 pm
Mar 17, 12:40:51	Maia -> TulaneAngel	Hi! I'm Maia Gordon, a junior from Portland, OR, and I am really interested in applying to Tulane for Fall of 2021. I am also really interested in pre-med, and I was wondering if I visit is there any way to see any of the pre-med program/classes surrounding medicine? Mar-17 at 12:24:31 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Maia	Hi Maia, hopefully when all this stuff blows over then you are more than welcome to sit in on a lab or class! For now look here: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 12:40:51 pm
Mar 17, 12:41:26	MicKeef23 -> TulaneSamR	What would be the best time of year to visit Tulane University to get a good idea of campus life? Mar-17 at 12:38:23 pm
	TulaneSamR -> MicKeef23	Any time when classes are in session! The best times in terms of weather are definitely April, October, and November. But to be honest, weather in New Orleans is always awesome so just really any time there are students on campus going about their daily lives :) Mar-17 at 12:41:26 pm
Mar 17, 12:41:33	kate_s -> TulaneJeff	what do you think makes tulane a better investment than a cheaper state school? Mar-17 at 12:36:04 pm
	TulaneJeff -> kate_s	We get that question a lot, Kate. The overall experience you'll get at a state school is pretty different than a very well-resourced private research university of our size. Here's a few examples-

		at Tulane, you are admitted into any school or major you want, once you are accepted. So, we have room in any major you want to accommodate you, whereas at some state schools, the majors are limited to some students or they are "impacted" which means you cannot take classes outside of your major. Top that off- our average class size is just over 20 and our student to faculty ratio is 9-1. The intimacy you'll find here is remarkable- but we still get the benefits of the big schools- DI sports, med school/law school etc. Mar-17 at 12:41:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:41:43	Isabelle -> TulaneSierra	Hi! How is the professor/student relationship at Tulane? I know that some schools pay for a student to have lunch with a professor of their choosing each semester. Is there anything like this at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:34:32 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Isabelle	We have a 8:1 student to faculty ratio, and many students talk about how interacting and engaging the faculty are in their classes. With an avg class size of 22 we are able to establish relationships with faculty/professors. Mar-17 at 12:41:43 pm
Mar 17, 12:41:46	Scott -> TulaneJill	Hi. My daughter has been accepted for spring & was considering doing the fall in Rome. If that is not available is there any contingency plan in place for spring scholars? Mar-17 at 12:35:38 pm
	TulaneJill -> Scott	Scott, we are closely monitoring the situation with our abroad partners. We encourage students to continue to continue to apply to the programs until we hear otherwise. As for other plans, students are encouraged to make back-up plans for staying closer to home (which has always been an option, but the onus is on the student to arrange it). Students can enroll as a visiting student at other colleges or universities and we will work with them on transferring credits over the summer. They will find out more information on the transfer credit process after May 1st. Mar-17 at 12:41:46 pm
Mar 17, 12:42:04	Dani -> TulaneAngel	Hello! I am extremely passionate about singing and playing the piano, and I would absolutely LOVE to continue both in college. Will I be able to maintain voice and piano lessons and have access to adequate practice spaces? Thank you! Mar-17 at 12:13:31 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Dani	Dani, Yes! Student enrolled in lessons/classes in the arts have access to our 24/7 practice rooms. You can connect with professors in both of those fields to schedule lessons as well. Mar-17 at 12:42:04 pm
Mar 17, 12:42:18	Isabelle -> TulaneCorinne	Hello! I'm so curious about the community at Tulane! Do you find that it's very supportive? Are there any peer mentoring organizations? Mar-17 at 12:09:23 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Isabelle	Isabelle, the community here at TU is definitely supportive- in the classroom, on campus, out in the city. We have amazing support resources in student affairs, Mussafer Hall our academic/professional support hub, the Academic Learning & Tutoring Center, and more. There is a peer mentoring program that any student can sign up for, as well as mentorship opportunities through our TIDES freshman seminars, the Carolyn Barber-Pierre Center for Intercultural Life,

		Office of Gender & Sexual Diversity, Newcomb Institute for femme-identifying folks, and more. We really look out for each other! Mar-17 at 12:42:18 pm
Mar 17, 12:42:38	Alex -> TulaneSierra	This is Alex from VA. Is everyone there ok? Has anyone at Tulane gotten sick? Mar-17 at 12:40:01 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Alex	Alex, you can find info about Tulane and COVID-19 here https://tulane.edu/emergency ..In my opinion all is good and nobody has gotten sick on campus. Mar-17 at 12:42:38 pm
Mar 17, 12:43:13	Jessica -> TulaneJill	I have a question about transferring college credit to Tulane. I am currently taking CU Succeed courses through the University of Colorado Denver, and I will be doing the same next year. I am also planning to take some AP tests. How easy is it for students to transfer these credits, and how do they influence the courses students take with their major? Mar-17 at 12:35:54 pm
	TulaneJill -> Jessica	Jessica, you can find the AP courses we accept here: https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/earning-college-credit/ap-ib-exams . As for college courses, if you enroll at Tulane, you would work with an academic advisor on transferring those courses. Your academic advisor would also help you in figuring out which core curriculum or major requirements those courses fulfill. Mar-17 at 12:43:13 pm
Mar 17, 12:43:17	Alexandra -> TulaneSamR	What type of security is in place in the dorms? Mar-17 at 12:35:08 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Alexandra	Hi Alexandra - we have 24 hour security at the front desk of all of our dorm buildings, and students have to use their Tulane ID's to enter all residential buildings. We also have our own on campus police force, so we are always monitoring to make sure students are safe. Mar-17 at 12:43:17 pm
Mar 17, 12:43:20	Jessa -> TulaneAidan	What do you look for in applicants and what makes certain students stand out when applying? Mar-17 at 12:31:32 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Jessa	HI Jessa! We look for well rounded students when building an incoming class. We don't only want either good grades or good test scores. We want students who will come to campus and make this place even better than it was they year before. I always love it when a student has a real passion that they've invested time and energy into (one of my students this past year was really into knitting and started a knitting club where they made scarfs and blankets for a children's hospital.) Additionally, the optional why Tulane statement is a big factor when reading an application. Mar-17 at 12:43:20 pm
Mar 17, 12:43:58	Jessica -> TulaneRula	Can you tell me about your merit based scholarships, and when to apply for them? Mar-17 at 12:27:20 pm
	TulaneRula -> Jessica	Hello Jessica, you can learn about our merit based scholarships here: https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid our full tuition scholarships are Dean Honors Scholarship which is project based and our Paul Tulane Scholarship which is essay based, there are also partial scholarships such as our Community Service Fellowship one. Every student upon application is considered for merit based scholarships, and DHS and Paul Tulane are by application. We will also talk more about different programs through more events! Mar-17 at 12:43:58 pm

Mar 17, 12:44:07	Brandon_Rosenberg -> TulaneAngel	Hi! my name is Brandon Rosenberg, from Seattle Washington. Because of the Coronavirus, I won't have the chance to tour Tulane for the foreseeable future. Could you please tell me a little bit about your Microbiology, Pre-med, and undergraduate research programs? Mar-17 at 12:13:33 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Brandon_Rosenberg	Brandon, I would recommend looking here: https://advising.tulane.edu/pre-health . Microbiology is a graduate level program at tulane, but you can do it through pre-med as an undergrad. Look here for all the latest in research programs: https://tulane.edu/research-tulane ; Mar-17 at 12:44:07 pm
Mar 17, 12:44:38	Nit -> TulaneJill	Hello! I was wondering if dual enrollment classes from a local community college transfer, Mar-17 at 12:41:34 pm
	TulaneJill -> Nit	Nit, we will accept up to 15 credits in dual enrollment courses. You would work with an academic advisor after you enroll at Tulane is you want them to transfer. You can find more on the dual enrollment policies here: https://advising.tulane.edu/advising-center/transfer-credit ; Mar-17 at 12:44:38 pm
Mar 17, 12:44:46	Nicky -> TulaneJeff	Hi, I was coming for a tour in April and now won't be able to do that. I was also set to meet a representative on April 22 in Orange County, since I am from California. I was wondering what the plan is regarding the meeting and/or tours.(Is there going to be a digital meeting?) Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:36:25 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Nicky	Nicky, so as of now all tours before April 15th are cancelled and we are going to asses things after the 15th as we get closer. We will be adjusting that meeting on the 22nd to a virtual one so stay tuned for details on where and when that will be. We'll be back on the road as soon as it's safe and responsible to do so! Meantime, check out this page: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 12:44:46 pm
Mar 17, 12:45:19	Nate -> TulaneRula	Does Tulane require ACT essay? And do you superscore ACT? Mar-17 at 12:24:16 pm
	TulaneRula -> Nate	Hello Nate, Tulane does not require an ACT essay and we do not superscore the ACT, we allow you to self-report your scores in the application process as well! Mar-17 at 12:45:19 pm
Mar 17, 12:45:35	Nit -> TulaneAidan	Hi, I plan on double majoring in college, and I was interested in how many additional years or courses would be required? Mar-17 at 12:40:27 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Nit	Hi Nit! I believe that with the help of one of our amazing academic advisers, you can do almost any double major with any combo we offer in 4 years. All the courses needed for the major are determined by the department and college themselves. I'd look around on our website and see for yourself the requirements that they ask of for each major: https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/majors-minors ; Mar-17 at 12:45:34 pm

Mar 17, 12:45:51	Brenda -> TulaneCorinne	Do you have any suggestions about wanting to be a student-athlete in college? I have not been able to get into contact with the coach of my sport, and I am clueless about the recruitment process. Mar-17 at 12:06:14 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Brenda	Brenda, I'm sorry to hear that- stress!! I encourage you to keep trying to get in touch with the coaching staff for your team of interest (https://tulane.greenwave.com/), and know that we're here to support you. We also have an athletics liaison in our office who may be able to point you in the right direction: my good friend and Associate VP, Brad Booke (https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us/bradly-booke). Mar-17 at 12:45:51 pm
Mar 17, 12:46:09	Nit -> TulaneAngel	Hello! I am interested in your honors program, are there any merit based scholarships associated with it? Mar-17 at 12:27:12 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Nit	Nit, not really as far as you getting in to Tulane - there are merit scholarships associated with your admission into Tulane that come directly from the Office of Admission, not the Honors program. Once you get into you junior and senior, however, there are plenty! Look here for more info: https://honors.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:46:09 pm
Mar 17, 12:47:13	Kelley -> TulaneJeff	Are there programs specifically for freshmen to become acquainted with campus life? Mar-17 at 12:37:39 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Kelley	Kelley, great question. We have many! Our average freshman comes from over 900 miles away to attend Tulane, so we are pros at getting folks acclimated. The TIDEs program in particular- classes of 15 freshman who all meet once in a week in a class taught by one of our top faculty members, usually on a very interesting topic (the Music and Culture of New Orleans TIDEs for example gets to tour the various jazz clubs around town) We also have an absolutely EPIC orientation. Your whole first semester here will be one huge acclimatizing process and we at Tulane make it easy. Mar-17 at 12:47:13 pm
Mar 17, 12:47:35	MicKeef23 -> TulaneAidan	What kind of intramural sports opportunities are offered at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:39:21 pm
	TulaneAidan -> MicKeef23	Hey there! Tulane has over 15 different intramurals to choose from, from Ping Pong and Badminton to Ultimate Frisbee and Dodgeball. You can read more about all the offerings here https://campusrecreation.tulane.edu/intramurals ; Mar-17 at 12:47:34 pm
Mar 17, 12:47:41	AlabamaSutton -> TulaneSierra	Are the Junior Nights that we're scheduled for next month going to be rescheduled? Specifically I was interested in attending the Mississippi Gulf Coast event the first Friday in April? Mar-17 at 12:44:15 pm
	TulaneSierra -> AlabamaSutton	Hello! The Jr night will be virtual. Feel free to email Angel Carter about it. Mar-17 at 12:47:41 pm
Mar 17, 12:48:33	Marni_C -> TulaneSierra	When do the supplementary essays become public? Mar-17 at 12:45:50 pm

	TulaneSierra -> Marni_C	Hi Marni, the only "supplemental" essay we have is our "optional" essay, the question is "Why are you interested in Tulane?" Mar-17 at 12:48:33 pm
Mar 17, 12:48:57	Jessica -> TulaneAngel	Hi, my name is Jessica and I am a rising senior. I am curious about your placement rate of students into medical school after going through the pre-med track at Tulane. Mar-17 at 12:11:40 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Jessica	Jessica, There were 190 or so seats for Tulane med for this incoming class and about 50ish of those seats belonged to Tulane undergrads - look here for more info: https://medicine.tulane.edu/admissions/class-profile ; Mar-17 at 12:48:57 pm
Mar 17, 12:49:08	Jeff -> TulaneCorinne	Hello, I'm Jeff from Philadelphia. I've been to New Orleans and my family got caught in rain a lot. Does flash rain impact your daily commutes to class? Mar-17 at 12:10:50 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Jeff	Jeff, my friend, it definitely rains here. We're in the tropics!! Rain happens and sometimes there is water on campus, but believe it or not, I would say it's a pretty unifying experience. Nothing like getting to know your classmates while trying to dry off between classes! At the end of the day, just keep an umbrella on you (my brother is a junior and e x t r a and keeps a duck bag in his backpack, to keep his stuff dry too) and invest in some rainboots, or bring chacos with you. You will be fine! And honestly, the rain is worth it for how warm it is. As a student flying between Philly and N.O. myself, my sophomore year it was nasty cold in Philly with de-icing delays, ice on the tarmac, etc ... once I finally got back to New Orleans, people were literally laying out on the quads in January!! Worth it sunglasses emoji Mar-17 at 12:49:08 pm
Mar 17, 12:49:40	sig -> TulaneRula	Is the admissions process at tulane need-blind for international students seeking financial aid? Mar-17 at 12:24:41 pm
	TulaneRula -> sig	Hello Sig, the admission process at Tulane for international students requires a certification of finances, international students are considered for merit aid and are welcome to apply for them such as our Dean Honors, Paul Tulane which are full tuition as well as our Global Scholarship you can learn about them here https://admission.tulane.edu/tuition-aid/merit-scholarships#dhs and https://admission.tulane.edu/international/aid#gs I hope this helps! If you are an international applicant, here are our counselors for international you can find them here: https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us ; Mar-17 at 12:49:40 pm
Mar 17, 12:50:35	alexagmarsh -> TulaneAidan	What is one thing that surprised you about Tulane that you did not expect? Mar-17 at 12:45:04 pm
	TulaneAidan -> alexagmarsh	Hi Alexa! For me, being from NY, it was how polite and nice everyone was. Growing up, rarely would anyone ever hold the door for me or smile in the morning (a little sad I know lol), so when I got down to NOLA and Tulane, that was a nice adjustment for sure. Additionally, probably how welcoming everyone was in terms of working together in class. I expected a bit of a cut throat academic culture but that just wasn't and isn't the case here. We believe that for ones self to succeed, we all need to succeed. Mar-17 at 12:50:35 pm
Mar 17, 12:50:38	kate_s -> TulaneJill

		how hard is it to balance academics and classes (esp. for someone double majoring) with social life and party culture in new orleans? Mar-17 at 12:39:44 pm
	TulaneJill -> kate_s	Kate, the best part about Tulane is that there is such a great balance between academics and fun. Our students are incredibly academically driven and that is clear by the dedication they have to classes and studying - you can go into the library at pretty much any hour it's open any day of the week and see students studying. You can also see it in the fact that over a third of our students double major and over 70% have a major and a minor. Additionally, our students are typically involved with something outside of their major coursework whether it is research, volunteering, or being in a student organization. It is an incredibly collaborative and supportive student body in that way. That being said, there is always something going on in New Orleans (I don't like to call it party culture as much as I think it is a celebration culture). There are more festivals than days of the year - po-boy festival, oyster festival, seafood festival, mac and cheese festival, fried chicken festival.... okay this is all food, but there's lots of others too! Students typically enjoy things like this in the city of New Orleans as a reward for their hard work academically. Finish a big paper? Let's go check out some live music! Ace a big test? Let's go try a new restaurant! Land a big job or grad school acceptance? Let's celebrate enjoying some time in the sun at the Fly (a popular student hangout at the levee). The balancing act you would play at Tulane greatly prepares you for future work life balance. There's a time to work and there's also a time to relax and enjoy :) Mar-17 at 12:50:38 pm
	Claire -> TulaneSierra	Are there freshman-only dorms? And how many dining halls are there on campus? Mar-17 at 12:44:47 pm
Mar 17, 12:50:51	TulaneSierra -> Claire	Hi Claire, First year living is: Monroe, Sharp, Butler, Wall, JL, Warren and Patterson https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-options/our-communities and we have several dining options. The first major one is the brand new beautiful commons! We also have a food court in the LBC (student union center), we have a few PJs coffee shops on campus, and a dining hall for athletes. You can learn more here https://dining.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:50:51 pm
	Jessa -> TulaneJeff	What does the social life look like? Do most students spend most of their time outside the classroom on campus or off campus? Mar-17 at 12:40:12 pm
Mar 17, 12:50:54	TulaneJeff -> Jessa	Great question, Jessica. A few things I'll say about social life. First off, we are located in Uptown NOLA, right next door to Loyola University. This means the whole Uptown area is young, social and college-y. Lots of social life occurs right on campus (we have mannnnny events to keep you busy and happy) and in the surrounding neighborhoods and streets (Magazine St! Oak St! Maple St!) Second, our social life surrounds music, culture, festivals, food and enjoying the warm weather (its 77 today!) Third, we're rarely on Bourbon St (that's for tourists!) lastly, I want to make sure it's clear that social life does not equate solely to drinking here. You don't have to drink to be social at Tulane- there is so much to do! Mar-17 at 12:50:54 pm
Mar 17, 12:51:14	Elizabeth -> TulaneAngel

		I am very interested in taking a premed track. What kind of advantages can Tulane give me when it comes to applying to med-school? What opportunities would I have to enhance my knowledge about the field of medicine? Mar-17 at 12:08:50 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Elizabeth	Elizabeth, look here: https://advising.tulane.edu/pre-health I would say as far as advantages - you get very real world experiences here at tulane. You'll be able to participate in anatomy/medical classes, a variety of labs, and be able to do research all across your 4 years! Mar-17 at 12:51:14 pm
Mar 17, 12:51:35	Taylor -> TulaneSierra	Hello! I was wondering if most students who study abroad go their junior year and how long most students go for (year vs. semester abroad)? Mar-17 at 12:50:15 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Taylor	Hi Taylor, most students who go abroad do go their Junior year. They usually go for a semester. Mar-17 at 12:51:35 pm
Mar 17, 12:52:18	Camryn -> TulaneAngel	In reference to the dance program again, how many students are in the dance company each year and how many dance majors are there on campus?? Mar-17 at 12:45:44 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Camryn	Camryn, both of those numbers vary a lot! So there is not a set number - minimum or maximum. Just know if you want to do it - there is a spot for ya. Mar-17 at 12:52:18 pm
Mar 17, 12:52:49	Nicky -> TulaneAidan	What has been a favorite class some of the students have taken? I had hoped to visit a class on my April tour and would love to hear what some of you enjoyed and remember most. Any professor that really made a huge impact on you? Thanks! Mar-17 at 12:45:57 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Nicky	Hi Nicky! One class that I personally loved during my time here was Women in Standup Comedy taught by Professor Rebecca Mark. The course was reading and watching standup comedy throughout generations and our final exam was performing stand up in front of our friends and classmates in Mcalister Auditorium (the big dome theater on campus). Truly an amazing experience. Mar-17 at 12:52:49 pm
Mar 17, 12:54:00	Shah -> TulaneJeff	Hello! My name is Shah. Could you please talk about Mardi Gras and how Tulane participates in it? I am an international applicant and I was extremely excited when I found out about this festival! I even mentioned it in my option Why Tulane Essay! Along side academics and internships and serving the community, I want to know more about Tulane's Culture. Mar-17 at 12:46:24 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Shah	Shah, my favorite question! First off, check out my blog which I have written for this very topic: http://tuadmissionjeff.blogspot.com/2013/02/myths-of-gras.html . Mardi Gras is, above all else, a huge family holiday. The most frequent thing you'll see on St Charles Ave during Mardi Gras is... KIDS! They are everywhere and its so fun to watch them soak it all in. We have 80+ parades during Carnival Season. All the amazing culture and richness that NOLA has seeps into everyday life for Tulane students. Weather it's food, music, art, etc. there are few places in the USA, nay, the WORLD with as much vibrancy for life as we have here in New Orleans. Mar-17 at 12:54:00 pm

Mar 17, 12:54:23	Brandon_Rosenberg -> TulaneAidan	Do you guys have varsity level tennis? Also, do you have club level ultimate frisbee? Mar-17 at 12:46:57 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Brandon_Rosenberg	Hey Brandon! We do have D1 tennis at Tulane as well as club sport tennis. We have a fantastic ultimate frisbee team as well, which I'd love to chat more with you about as that was something I was really involved with on campus when I was a student. You can email me at acadley@tulane.edu Mar-17 at 12:54:23 pm
Mar 17, 12:55:01	Tanner -> TulaneSierra	Is there honors housing for the freshman? How does housing change each year? Are you allowed a car on campus? Mar-17 at 12:49:56 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Tanner	Hi Tanner, honors housing is in Wall Hall. It Includes access to faculty through Wall Society membership and a Faculty in Residence, plus opportunities to engage in career and scholarship preparation. You must apply to live in the Honors RLC and be accepted through the RLC application process. Each year students will apply for housing and make roommate requests (optional). You are not allowed a car on campus your first year/freshman year. After that you can bring one and will have to pay for a parking permit. However, we have a great Tulane shuttle service that provides routes all across the city to get students wherever they need to go, https://tulane.edu/life-tulane/campus-life/transportation-and-parking . I personally take them- best part, they're free! Mar-17 at 12:55:01 pm
Mar 17, 12:55:28	Lisa -> TulaneCorinne	HI what do you expect to do about the new ACT policy of allowing students to retake sections. Will you now super score the ACT? Mar-17 at 12:12:29 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Lisa	Lisa, we have not made any decisions around the new ACT policy. As with all uncertainty swirling in the headlines and whatnot, I could not more strongly encourage folks to keep an eye out for our updates. We're known to send lots of emails, so once we make decisions on individual section retesting on the ACT, SAT date cancellations, etc, we will be sure to let y'all know. You can make sure you're signed up here: https://admission.tulane.edu/mailling-list ; Mar-17 at 12:55:28 pm
Mar 17, 12:56:26	Isabelle_M -> TulaneJill	Hi! I'm Isabelle, a junior from Philadelphia. If you play a sport, is it hard to balance athletics, academics, and social life? Mar-17 at 12:52:15 pm
	TulaneJill -> Isabelle_M	Isabelle, I hope you are staying warm in Philly! Tulane is an incredibly supportive and collaborative place and I think there is so much support in place for student athletes specifically around feeling balanced. There are academic advisors, success coaches, tutors, etc. Students also support each other academically and athletically and also encourage each other to celebrate when necessary. Mar-17 at 12:56:26 pm

Mar 17, 12:56:30	Kiera -> TulaneSierra	Does Tulane offer a lot of research opportunities for undergraduates? Mar-17 at 12:46:34 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Kiera	Undergraduate research is an important part of the Tulane experience, and grants are available to help students cover the cost of research materials, travel and other expenses. Once these talented individuals are on campus, they are well-positioned to make the breakthroughs in research that today are made across the boundaries of schools, colleges and institutes. Mar-17 at 12:56:29 pm
Mar 17, 12:56:30	sig -> TulaneRula	Is there a separate application for the Honours Program? If yes, then when is the deadline for it? Mar-17 at 12:26:16 pm
	TulaneRula -> sig	Hello Sig, thank you so much for your questions As soon as a student applies, we will automatically make admission, scholarship (this year up to $30k/year), and Honors invitation decisions in committee. This means that there is no additional application to our Honors Program since we typically invite the top 10% of our applicant pool based on their high school academic performance (looking at both transcript and test scores). You can learn more about the benefits of our Honors Program here: https://honors.tulane.edu/content/program-overview ; Mar-17 at 12:56:30 pm
Mar 17, 12:57:01	Lindsay -> TulaneJeff	How large is the international student body on campus? Mar-17 at 12:48:35 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Lindsay	Lindsay- this freshman class is shaping up to be our most international yet at around ~8% of the incoming class. Mar-17 at 12:57:01 pm
Mar 17, 12:57:12	Acadia -> TulaneAngel	What scores are looked at/needed to get into the honors college? What are the benefits to the honors college? Mar-17 at 12:26:56 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Acadia	Hi Acadia, consideration into the honors program happens when we look at your application for admission so we look at things like your transcript and test scores. The benefits include: ability to do a thesis, participate in specific research/networking opportunities, and apply for post-grad merit scholarships. Look here for more info: https://honors.tulane.edu/ ; Mar-17 at 12:57:12 pm
Mar 17, 12:57:24	RC -> TulaneSierra	Hello! My name is Rebekah and I'm from Maryland. This may be a bit of a stretch, but I was wondering what kinds of things Tulane really values in students' applications? Mar-17 at 12:26:27 pm
	TulaneSierra -> RC	Hi Rebekah, I would advise you to take a look at our tips video, this shares what we look for in apps https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/getting-into-tulane/tips-for-juniors ; Mar-17 at 12:57:24 pm
Mar 17, 12:57:35	Acadia -> TulaneAidan	Hi again! Does Tulane have swimming as a club sport? What do the non-D1 sports teams look like? Mar-17 at 12:24:12 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Acadia	Hi Acadia! We have club swimming here (mixed guys and girls)! Our club sports are fairly competitive and get the chance to travel the country to tournaments and games. Each sport varies on involvement depending on club. Mar-17 at 12:57:35 pm

Mar 17, 12:57:42	Shah -> TulaneAdmission	Thank you for answering my question Jeff! That is really great to know and I am looking forward to celebrating Mardi Gras with my fellow Tulanians one day! Mar-17 at 12:57:27 pm Mar-17 at 12:57:42 pm
Mar 17, 12:58:29	kate_s -> TulaneJeff	how would i go about setting up a virtual meeting with the financial aid office? Mar-17 at 12:51:11 pm
	TulaneJeff -> kate_s	I would recommend you email your financial aid counselor directly to get it set up and the will arrange for a virtual meeting for you. Mar-17 at 12:58:29 pm
Mar 17, 12:58:40	Matt_Monigal -> TulaneCorinne	I understand you have a club crew team. How difficult is it to participate in? Does the club team compete with other colleges? Mar-17 at 12:13:34 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Matt_Monigal	Matt, my friend, you are in luck! We have a club crew team that is very popular and gets to travel to regattas across the fall and spring semesters and a former olympian for a coach! While the commitment is high- practices in the erg room and on the water more days out of the week than not, lifting out of season, post-practice breakfast in the Commons, travel, etc- the team is quite strong and so is the community! I was on the crew team for a hot second back when I was a freshman and really appreciated being on a team that upperclassmen were able to guide and that prioritized balance. By balance, I mean that if for whatever reason you can't travel to a regatta one weekend, you're able to skip and wait for the next one! You can learn all about club sports here: https://campusrecreation.tulane.edu/club-sports ; Mar-17 at 12:58:39 pm
Mar 17, 12:58:52	Lydia -> TulaneJill	There is obviously a substantial amount of COVID-19 uncertainty impacting standardized testing, campus visits, and grade transcripts. What would you suggest focusing on during this period of time to ensure a well-rounded application? Mar-17 at 12:21:04 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lydia	Lydia, the first focus should be taking care of your physical and mental health of course :) but when thinking of the application, my advice would be to do your research as much as you can. A lot of universities have offered virtual events (you can find our virtual offerings here: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down). Students should try to stay on top of the school work that their teachers have provided them and use any extra time to study for standardized tests. Students usually don't need to start writing essays or resumes until the summer, but if they have the opportunity they can certainly get a head start! Mar-17 at 12:58:51 pm
Mar 17, 12:59:08	Lindsay -> TulaneSierra	Does the administration organize activities for students on campus? Mar-17 at 12:32:08 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Lindsay	Hi Lindsay, the administration does organize events for students, but the wonderful thing about Tulane is our own students organize most of our events for their peers! Anything from Crawfest, to homecoming, or special guest speakers. We give our student government and student organizations a lot of autonomy. Nobody knows what students want better than other students. Mar-17 at 12:59:08 pm
Mar 17, 12:59:19	Kristin_K -> TulaneAngel

		What is the freshman required curriculum for Liberal Arts students? Mar-17 at 12:56:30 pm Kristin, the core curriculum is the same for everyone! Look here for info: https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/degrees-requirements/core-curriculum After you declare a major/based off your major is when we get into the nitty gritty of specific major or school requirements that you will need to do. That is why every one is assigned an academic and major advisor! Mar-17 at 12:59:19 pm
Mar 17, 12:59:30	Jessica -> TulaneRula	I have another question, how feasible is it for students to have multiple majors and minors at Tulane? For example, pairing biomedical engineering with a public policy minor? Mar-17 at 12:23:21 pm
	TulaneRula -> Jessica	Hello Jessica, we are happy to answer all of your questions! It is common for students at Tulane to graduate with a major and a minor, and many students will double major as well! You can learn about that here, https://admission.tulane.edu/faq and if you are interested in biomedical engineering, you can learn about research being done here: https://sse.tulane.edu/bme; Mar-17 at 12:59:30 pm
Mar 17, 12:59:43	Hunter_C_Donahue -> TulaneSamR	When do typical students begin seeking internships? Mar-17 at 12:37:10 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Hunter_C_Donahue	Hey Hunter - Tulane students are so ambitious that many start an internship as soon as the summer after their first year! We really encourage all students to put themselves out there and take the first steps finding internships and research opportunities but we also have fabulous support staff in our career center to help you through the process. Mar-17 at 12:59:43 pm
Mar 17, 13:00:25	Shah -> TulaneJeff	Hello my name is Shah and I have applied to Tulane for the Fall 2020 Semester. I was extremely interested in opening up a new student-run organisation that would basically be a bridge between Tulane and my home country, Pakistan. The organisation would basically have committees that would discuss issues such as LGBTQ+ rights, gender equality etc in both the areas of the world, Louisiana and Pakistan. I would like to know that as an undergraduate student, would that option be available to me if I get admitted to Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:54:05 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Shah	Great question, Shah. As a member of the Queer community myself, I am happy to answer this. the answer is YES that would absolutely e possible. Once you arrive, you'll work with out student affairs team to get it off the ground. Mar-17 at 01:00:25 pm
Mar 17, 13:00:31	Lauren_ -> TulaneJill	Hi. I am interested in majoring in political science, and I was wondering what is the reputation of your political science major? Mar-17 at 12:31:22 pm
	TulaneJill -> Lauren_	Hi Lauren, we have a very strong political science major. Since we are top 50 university, all of our programs are strong. I recommend reaching out to one of our political science student tour guides to hear more about their experiences. You can find our tour guide information (and filter by poli sci) here: https://www.welcometocollege.com/schools/tulane-university-of-louisiana/tour_guides; Mar-17 at 01:00:31 pm

	Nate -> TulaneCorinne	I am interested in club/intermural sports. Does Tulane have active leagues/teams? Mar-17 at 12:31:31 pm
Mar 17, 13:00:48	TulaneCorinne -> Nate	Nate, oh boy we sure do have active teams! Clubs and intramural sports are great because you get to make them your own- opt in for whatever level of commitment works for you (weekly practices and weekend travel for club frisbee, 30 min sand volleyball games on a Sunday afternoon), work your way up to leading the team on the executive board, build community, etc. You can learn more about club here: https://campusrecreation.tulane.edu/club-sports and intramurals here: https://campusrecreation.tulane.edu/intramurals ; Mar-17 at 01:00:48 pm
	Isabelle_M -> TulaneAidan	How much time per week do student athletes spend at practices/what is the daily schedule for a student athlete like? Mar-17 at 12:56:15 pm
Mar 17, 13:01:01	TulaneAidan -> Isabelle_M	Hey Isabelle! I'll answer this in two ways. In terms of Division 1 Student Athletes, like other D1 universities, your sport is basically like a job. I know that during the season itself, it's a fair amount of hours (at least 40+ a week with practices, training, and such). In terms of Club Sports, which I was a part of, on weekend when we didn't travel, I'd say we had 12-14 hours of practice and training a week, with outside practice hours added onto that. Mar-17 at 01:01:01 pm
	Kristin_K -> TulaneSamR	Hi! I was wondering if you foresee any changes in the admissions policy due to the cancellations of the SATs and ACTs? I am taking both am worried about how these cancellations will affect my admissions process. Mar-17 at 12:54:43 pm
Mar 17, 13:01:48	TulaneSamR -> Kristin_K	Hi Kristin - given the fluid nature of this whole situation, it's hard to say what will happen in the coming months. As of right now, we don't anticipate changing our admission policies with regard to requiring at least one standardized test score to review your application. But, like we've been saying, we will notify applicants just as soon as we can. I also encourage you to stay in touch with your TU admission counselor - we are here to help and want to relieve stress as much as possible! :) Mar-17 at 01:01:48 pm
	Kali -> TulaneSierra	Hi! I've done a lot of online research and I feel like I would LOVE New Orleans and Tulane, but I am planning to major in Poli Sci and have been told that Washington D.C. would be the best place to do that. Can you tell me about the size and quality of Tulane's Poli Sci program? Mar-17 at 12:56:22 pm
Mar 17, 13:01:54	TulaneSierra -> Kali	Hi Kali, The Department of Political Science at Tulane University, the site of the founding of the American Political Science Association in 1903, is one of the oldest departments of its kind in the nation. Recently Tulane poly sci experts addressed international affairs and domestic disasters. We have a large faculty base in the dept and so many career and internship opportunities for students https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/political-science/people ; Mar-17 at 01:01:54 pm
Mar 17, 13:02:10	JT -> TulaneSierra	Will these questions and answers be accessible after this live chat ends? Mar-17 at 12:23:51 pm
	TulaneSierra -> JT

		Hi JT, yes we will make these available Mar-17 at 01:02:10 pm
Mar 17, 13:02:59	Sara_Marks -> TulaneRula	What are the housing options for incoming freshmen Mar-17 at 12:29:44 pm
	TulaneRula -> Sara_Marks	Hello Sara, housing options for incoming freshman are here: https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life/housing and the housing portal is currently up as well! You can also learn more here from housing https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-logistics/new-student-housing-application and check out our virtual tours about campus and our residence halls as well: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down ; Mar-17 at 01:02:59 pm
Mar 17, 13:03:33	Taylor -> TulaneJill	How many classes do students typically have per semester and how long are classes? Also, are classes lecture or discussion based? Mar-17 at 12:56:45 pm
	TulaneJill -> Taylor	Hi Taylor, we have a variety of courses offered in different formats each semester. You would work with an academic advisor to pick out your schedule based on your learning strengths and needs. The typical course load is around 15 credits (about five classes on average), but students take anywhere between 12-21 credits each semester. Classes offered 3x per week are 50 minutes (usually MWF), classes offered 2x per week are 1 hour 15 mins (usually M/W or T/Th), and classes offered once a week are typically almost 3 hours. They can either be lecture or discussion based, as well as lab or design based, depending on the course and the professor. Mar-17 at 01:03:33 pm
Mar 17, 13:04:06	Justin -> TulaneCorinne	Are there any student run comedy organizations on campus? Mar-17 at 12:38:08 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Justin	Justin, there sure are! Office Hours is our student-run sketch comedy group, Unscripted is the improv group, there are tons of performance arts clubs, semesterly events, etc. And get this- they're actually funny! I have so many fond memories of going to Shabbat dinner at Hillel before going to a sketch show and love the community around supporting student comedy. You can check out all our amazing student-run clubs and organizations here: https://lbc.tulane.edu/join-organization ; Mar-17 at 01:04:06 pm
Mar 17, 13:04:41	Olivia -> TulaneJeff	Tulane has been ranked as having some of the happiest students. Can you elaborate on that? Mar-17 at 12:24:48 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Olivia	I sure can, Olivia! So, as you know, our students are heading home now and they are devastated. But one thing I told them is: How lucky are we that we get to be at school that makes it SO hard to say goodbye to? I know not everyone loves Tulane, but by in large, our students are positively in love with this place. And I know, I am the director of admission, so of course I'll say that, but there really is something special about this place that our students really are drawn to. Maybe its the Big Easy attitude of kindness and happiness or maybe we just love being in warm weather, but for a multitude of reasons, we consistently are ranked in the top 5 for happiest college kids in the USA. And I am never surprised by this. :-)
Mar 17, 13:04:50	Lindsay -> TulaneSamR	How do students get around the city? Is campus close enough to walk? Mar-17 at 12:56:41 pm

	TulaneSamR -> Lindsay	One of the reasons I love New Orleans so much (seriously I need to chill about it sometimes) is how accessible the whole city is. There are 4 different shopping and eating districts within walking distance of campus, and for the parts of the city that are just a little further away, we've got the historic St Charles Streetcar directly in front of campus as well as a Blue Bike system (bikes you can rent from an app on your phone for as little as 15 minutes or for up to a full day) Mar-17 at 01:04:49 pm
Mar 17, 13:07:08	kate_s -> TulaneSierra	how much would you say it costs to rush? Mar-17 at 01:02:27 pm
	TulaneSierra -> kate_s	Hi Kate, it will depend on the sorority. You may want to reach out to our OFFICE OF FRATERNITY AND SORORITY PROGRAMS for more specific details Mar-17 at 01:07:08 pm
Mar 17, 13:07:51	kate_s -> TulaneAngel	what internships are available in new orleans for poli sci and/or history majors? how does tulane help it's students get internship opportunities? Mar-17 at 01:03:24 pm
	TulaneAngel -> kate_s	Hi Kate, I would recommend going directly to the source for this one: https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/political-science and https://liberalarts.tulane.edu/departments/history . They each have sections on their websites specifically for internships and research opportunities. I would also say that New Orleans is one of the most historic cities in the U.S. so there is undoubtedly a lot of opportunity for that here Mar-17 at 01:07:51 pm
Mar 17, 13:07:56	Lina -> TulaneAidan	Hello! My name is Lina. I was planning to visit Tulane soon, but I am unable to, like many others. I was wondering if there were any virtual tours I could access. Mar-17 at 01:03:44 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Lina	Hi Lina, you can access a virtual tour, info session, student panel, and other campus activities with this link right here (https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down)! Let us what you think! Mar-17 at 01:07:56 pm
Mar 17, 13:08:27	Kristin_K -> TulaneSamR	Hi! Do you foresee any changes in the admissions policy due to the cancellations of the standardized tests? I am taking both the SAT and ACT and am worried about how these cancellations will impact the admissions process for the students affected. Mar-17 at 01:04:32 pm
	TulaneSamR -> Kristin_K	Hey Kristin - we know that there's a lot of anxiety going around given the situation we are all experiencing right now. For now, all admission policies will stay the same, including our requirement of at least one standardized test score per applicant. If you have concerns, please feel free to reach out to your TU rep to talk about your individual situation. Mar-17 at 01:08:27 pm
Mar 17, 13:08:50	Claire -> TulaneJill	What percentage of students are student-athletes at Tulane? Mar-17 at 12:39:05 pm
	TulaneJill -> Claire	Hi Claire, I do not know the exact percentage of students that are student-athletes, but we do have 17 division I sports on campus! You can find out more about our athletics here: https://tulane.greenwave.com/ . If you email me later on, I can try to get the exact percentage for you --> jderosas@tulane.edu Mar-17 at 01:08:50 pm

Mar 17, 13:09:09	Rafael -> TulaneCorinne	As an incoming student, what am I expected to do before orientation in the fall? Course registration? Housing? Mar-17 at 12:39:53 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Rafael	Rafael, you're a planner, aren't you? My kind of person! After students enroll at Tulane, they should submit a housing application by early May through Housing & Residence Life (https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-logistics/new-student-housing-application). The first event on the docket is CAST, Cultivating Academic Success at Tulane (https://admission.tulane.edu/cast). This is where students learn all about the academic resources at Tulane and register for fall courses. Then, New Student Orientation (https://orientation.tulane.edu/new-student-orientation) takes place a few days before classes start in August. As always, we will absolutely spam your inbox with information about what you need to do, but we're always here to help. Don't hesitate to reach out to your admission counselor or any office on campus if you have questions! Mar-17 at 01:09:09 pm
Mar 17, 13:09:38	Marni_C -> TulaneAidan	Is attending school sporting events a big part of campus life? Mar-17 at 01:04:41 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Marni_C	Hey Marni! Attending sporting events has over the years become more and more popular over the years since the building of our on campus football stadium. At almost all events, you see a nearly to fully packed student section, which makes for an awesome experience cheering on our Green Wave! Mar-17 at 01:09:38 pm
Mar 17, 13:09:41	Hunter_C_Donahue -> TulaneJeff	How has hurricane preparedness prepared you for the coronavirus? What is the overall state of campus? Mar-17 at 12:34:42 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Hunter_C_Donahue	Hunter- many schools around the world right now are having to close and have not had to do that before. We did- 15 years ago during Hurricane Katrina when we were closed for a full semester. So if any school is prepared to handle this, it's us. Campus is still open, but only around 400 students have been given permission to stay on campus. We have around 1500 students living off campus who are staying here in NOLA. But let me tell you, we got through Katrina and the world will get through this. This too, shall pass. Mar-17 at 01:09:41 pm
Mar 17, 13:10:12	Kali -> TulaneAngel	Hi! I'm super interested in theatre as an extracurricular activity and I'd love to continue to act in college. Do you know if there are any opportunities to be in plays/ musicals without majoring in anything theatre-related? Mar-17 at 01:07:32 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Kali	Hi Kali, yup! - regardless if you major in it or not - you can still do musicals and anything theater-related Mar-17 at 01:10:12 pm
Mar 17, 13:10:22	Tanner -> TulaneJeff	?What is the difference between this and the virtual question and answer session? Mar-17 at 01:07:07 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Tanner	This is just an online chat. The virtual Q and A will have video and a presentation to start it off. Come to as many as you'd like! Mar-17 at 01:10:22 pm

Mar 17, 13:11:40	Tim -> TulaneRula	When do students declare their majors? At what point can you add a 2nd major? thank you! Mar-17 at 12:27:47 pm
	TulaneRula -> Tim	Hello Tim, students declare their major at the end of their sophomore year, and have one by the start of their junior year. We have a list of our majors and minors here : https://admission.tulane.edu/academics/majors-minors You can add a second major by the end of your sophomore year! Mar-17 at 01:11:40 pm
	Lydia -> TulaneJill	So this is a pretty unconventional question, but just out of curiosity: what is one of the downsides of choosing Tulane in your opinion? Mar-17 at 12:56:53 pm
Mar 17, 13:11:50	TulaneJill -> Lydia	Lydia, oof! tough question!! As a former transfer student I am trying to think of downsides comparatively speaking since coming to Tulane changed a lot for the better for me. I would say that Tulane is always growing and improving and one thing I noticed as a student and have worked on as a staff member, is making Tulane more representative of the world that we live in. Meaning recruiting more diverse classes that include more students of color, first generation students, international students, etc. We are not perfect, but I love that even though this is a downside, our students are the one pushing for and driving the change that is happening on our campus :) Mar-17 at 01:11:49 pm
Mar 17, 13:12:16	TulaneJeff -> Everyone	Jill I love that answer! Mar-17 at 01:12:16 pm
	Kristin_K -> TulaneCorinne	Will there be any in-person interviews coming up? There was one in my area recently and I was very interested in attending, but the list filled up pretty quickly. Mar-17 at 01:00:55 pm
Mar 17, 13:12:44	TulaneCorinne -> Kristin_K	Kristin, I appreciate your thinking! Ultimately, we don't do formal interviews with admission counselors as a part of our application process, but we are always here to help. Depending on where you live, you may have seen coffee chats available with your regional counselor. I think we will start doing more of those virtual events amidst the travel and event cancellations, so be sure to keep an eye out for our emails! As always, you can reach out to your admission counselor and any of our current student ambassadors (https://tulane.welcometocollege.com/) Mar-17 at 01:12:44 pm
	Taylor -> TulaneJill	If you are not admitted into the honors program, is it possible to transfer into it a later year? Mar-17 at 12:59:53 pm
Mar 17, 13:13:00	TulaneJill -> Taylor	Taylor, yes! You can join the Honors Program at another point if you are not admitted originally. You would need to work with the Honors program directly to make sure you have the appropriate GPA to apply and then they will also set you up for the coursework you need to be a part of it. Mar-17 at 01:13:00 pm
Mar 17, 13:13:26	Lydia -> TulaneAdmission	Thank you, Jill. I appreciate your honest answer! Mar-17 at 01:12:49 pm Mar-17 at 01:13:26 pm
Mar 17, 13:13:39	sakuezue -> TulaneSierra	How is the diversity at tulane? Are there clubs/meetings for african american students to connect with each other? Mar-17 at 01:08:33 pm

	TulaneSierra -> sakuezue	Hi Sakuezue, You can learn more about diversity and multicultural life at Tulane here https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life/diversity . We have several organizations, Black student union, Students organizing against racism, Men of color circle, etc and living spaces like Kaleidoscope, that are welcoming for Black/African American students. You can ore about The CARolyn Barber Pierre Center for Intercultural Life, who houses our racial affinity student orgs here https://intercultural.tulane.edu/ . And you can learn more about Kaleidoscope here https://housing.tulane.edu/housing-options/residential-learning-communities/kaleidoscope-rlc ; Mar-17 at 01:13:39 pm
Mar 17, 13:14:03	Brandon_Rosenberg -> TulaneAngel	Hi, Does Tulane have any programs for students to get discounted tickets for off-campus activities like basketball games, music shows, etc? What do weekends look like at Tulane? Mar-17 at 01:06:24 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Brandon_Rosenberg	Hi Brandon, for every sporting event Tulane students get free tickets. For all other campus events - there is usually a discount for tulane students, whether it is to see a campus speaker, music show, theater show, etc. Weekends vary depending on what you want to do - you could go to the park, check out a festival, try a new restaurant, or just sit down and watch some netflix. Tulane does usually offer weekend on campus events as well that vary from movie nights, silent disco, to trivia nights or drag queen bingo! There is always something going on. Mar-17 at 01:14:02 pm
Mar 17, 13:14:32	EFS -> TulaneCorinne	We have not received an email for access to the housing portal, I called Housing and they said they don't send emails out and my daughter needs her splash ID, how does she get that? Mar-17 at 01:06:17 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> EFS	EFS, feel free to have your daughter reach out to her admission counselor! We can get that information to her in email so she can just copy and paste into the application. She can find out who her counselor is here: https://admission.tulane.edu/meet-us ; Mar-17 at 01:14:32 pm
Mar 17, 13:15:38	Isabelle_M -> TulaneJill	What are dining services like at Tulane? Also, do students tend to eat at restaurants? Mar-17 at 01:06:11 pm
	TulaneJill -> Isabelle_M	Isabelle, dining services at Tulane got a biiiiiig upgrade this year! We moved our main dining hall to a new three-story building with lots of windows, natural light, and open concepts. There is more space for students and also for what's most important... more food! We have a rotating menu every day at each of the stations and we also have simplified stations for students with allergies. You can check out more here: https://dynamicservices.tulane.edu/dining-near-me/The_Commons . Students also do eat at restaurants off-campus from time to time, because we are in New Orleans! How could you not! There are plenty of amazing places right in walking distance if you are ever in need of a special treat. Mar-17 at 01:15:37 pm
Mar 17, 13:15:42	b -> TulaneAidan	Hi, what are three words you would use to describe student life at Tulane University? Mar-17 at

	TulaneAidan -> b	Hi there! Only three words, hmm, that's a tough one. I'll go with: Engaging, Selfless, and Unique! Mar-17 at 01:15:42 pm
Mar 17, 13:16:03	Sydney_Protass -> TulaneJill	Thank you so much for holding this live chat. In admissions when reviewing ACT scores, do you look at an applicant's composite score or a breakdown of each category? (Math, science, English) Mar-17 at 01:08:23 pm
	TulaneJill -> Sydney_Protass	Hi Sydney, it is our pleasure! Thank you for joining the chat! We look at the best composite score for the ACT. Mar-17 at 01:16:03 pm
Mar 17, 13:16:05	Nico -> TulaneAngel	How big is theatre life on campus? Mar-17 at 01:13:20 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Nico	Nico, its big enough. There are so many shows happening all the time that vary in many different ways that sometimes it can be a bit hard to keep up, haha. So if you are into theater and want to audition or just catch a show - there is always opportunity for that Mar-17 at 01:16:05 pm
Mar 17, 13:17:02	Ava -> TulaneRula	What do students like to do for fun? Is it centered more around on campus or off campus events? Mar-17 at 01:07:04 pm
	TulaneRula -> Ava	Hello Ava, students at Tulane were actually ranked one of the happiest students as you can see here: https://tulanian.tulane.edu/december-2019/tulane-rises-in-rankings and there is a balance between academics, social life, and involvement on campus. Going to college in New Orleans means that there is always an event going on in the city with beautiful warm sunny days across the street at Aubodon Park or a place called the Fly where students hang out at Fridays at the Fly. Students also plan the largest run student music festival called Crawfest https://admission.tulane.edu/student-life and definitely check out our virtual experiences here: https://admission.tulane.edu/visit/cant-make-it-down , I hope this helps! Mar-17 at 01:17:02 pm
Mar 17, 13:17:39	sakuezue -> TulaneJeff	Will a student be able to have a good social life without having to spend a lot of money or is there a hefty allowance needed to go out and have fun? Mar-17 at 01:14:37 pm
	TulaneJeff -> sakuezue	Love this question. One thing that is great about NOLA is how cheap stuff is and how many FREE things we have in NOLA. almost all of our festivals are free and we have more festivals than days of the school year! There are lots of great cheap eats walking distance from campus on Freret Street. You'll find kids get creative with ways to have fun for free and NOLA is soo conducive to that. Mar-17 at 01:17:38 pm
Mar 17, 13:17:50	Rithvik -> TulaneJill	Hi, I had about the Tulane Accelerated physician training program. Do you apply to the program as an undergraduate or during normal admissions. Mar-17 at 01:16:13 pm
	TulaneJill -> Rithvik	Rithvik, you would apply after you enroll as a Tulane student. The TAP-TP application would be during your freshman year and you would work with your academic advisor to complete that application. So no need to worry about it during the regular admission process! Mar-17 at 01:17:50 pm

Mar 17, 13:18:46	Shah -> TulaneSierra	Hello I am Shah! Since I am a first-generation student, my parents are excited about what Tulane has for me if I am accepted. Specifically, do you have any services offered for first-generation students? Mar-17 at 01:14:42 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Shah	Hey Shah! I am a first generation student too (welcome TU the family!!) We have a wonderful center called the Center for Academic Equity, who supports all of our first generation students/staff/faculty . You can find all of our support for first generation students here https://academic-equity.tulane.edu/first-generation-college . You can always reach out to me too if you have other questions! Mar-17 at 01:18:46 pm
Mar 17, 13:18:47	Andie -> TulaneAngel	Hi! I am very interested in Service Learning when applying to college, and a representative from Tulane's Center for Public Service came to visit my school and I was so interested in the various ways to get involved. I was also wondering, are there specific majors focusing on subjects such as nonprofit leadership or service learning? Mar-17 at 01:11:45 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Andie	Andie, I would recommend looking here: https://cps.tulane.edu/ Some majors do offer specific types of internships, but there is always an opportunity to work with a nonprofit, community based org, or business. Service learning is the actual content that you'll be doing regardless of major, so yes to that! Mar-17 at 01:18:47 pm
Mar 17, 13:20:05	Kristin_K -> TulaneAngel	I visited Tulane recently and absolutely fell in love with the campus! Despite the rain, the tour was great, and I was wondering how to go about being a tour guide if I choose to attend Tulane University? Mar-17 at 01:16:52 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Kristin_K	Hi Kristin, You can apply to be in GWA (Green Wave Ambassadors)! There is an application and interview process that you can do starting your freshman year. The application usually goes live the very beginning of September. Mar-17 at 01:20:05 pm
Mar 17, 13:20:30	ShreyaA -> TulaneJill	Hi, I was hoping to get more information about the TAP-TP program. How competitive is it? Are there any required courses/exams we have to take in high school? Mar-17 at 01:18:01 pm
	TulaneJill -> ShreyaA	Hi Shreya, it is certainly a competitive program, but if you are very interested you can work with your academic advisor once you enroll at Tulane to put together a strong application for the program. Students do not apply for TAP-TP until after they have been admitted, and they enroll, and they start courses here at Tulane. There are no high school pre-requisites for the program. Mar-17 at 01:20:30 pm
Mar 17, 13:21:00	sakuezue -> TulaneSamR	I live in Ann Arbor, MI so winters here are pretty rough. What is the weather like in New Orleans during winter months? Mar-17 at 01:17:24 pm
	TulaneSamR -> sakuezue	Oh, sakuezue - you are in for a treat here in New Orleans! Winters are mild - I mean VERY mild -

		particularly compared to what I can only imagine you experience in Ann Arbor. As a Southern California native and someone who is very inexperienced with cold, I can assure you that New Orleans is a safe haven for those of us who need slightly warmer climates. I've been here for almost 5 years now and I've only seen the temperature drop below 40 degrees a handful of times. Mar-17 at 01:21:00 pm
Mar 17, 13:21:15	sakuezue -> TulaneAidan	Is there pressure to join greek life? Do students feel left out if they don't join? Mar-17 at 01:19:27 pm
	TulaneAidan -> sakuezue	Hi there! Not at all. Most of our student don't end up participating in greek life, but instead go for a more club and organization kind of involvement on campus. That's one really nice thing about Tulane, that we have something for everyone to take part in and feel at home with. Mar-17 at 01:21:14 pm
Mar 17, 13:21:19	Ava -> TulaneAngel	I was lucky enough to tour campus and even take a ballet class! I heard great things about Newcomb Dance Company and I was wondering if there is a lot of support for the performing arts from Tulane students (such as a large turnout for dance performances) Mar-17 at 01:15:00 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Ava	Ava - short answer, yup! There are so many different types of performing arts at Tulane that there are always students attending events. Mar-17 at 01:21:18 pm
Mar 17, 13:22:14	kate_s -> TulaneCorinne	do current or past honors students say it's difficult to keep up the gpa requirement to stay in the honors program? Mar-17 at 01:17:28 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> kate_s	Kate, I appreciate where you're coming from, but I think this answer would probably vary person to person. As you can see here (https://honors.tulane.edu/content/requirements), students maintain a ≥ 3.8 GPA so it's definitely possible, just may take more work depending on where your interests (and strengths) lie, which classes you're taking in one semester, etc. I encourage you to get in touch with our current student ambassadors to learn about their own experiences! They're amazing resources!! https://tulane.welcometocollege.com/ ; Mar-17 at 01:22:14 pm
Mar 17, 13:23:24	Shah -> TulaneAdmission	Hello Sierra! Thank you so much for answering my question and helping me! I will be looking forward to the services offered by Tulane and will contact you if I have any other questions. I really appreciate you and your whole team for holding this live chat for us! Thank you so much once again, have a good day! Mar-17 at 01:23:01 pm Mar-17 at 01:23:24 pm
Mar 17, 13:23:29	emmarobbins -> TulaneCorinne	Since current Juniors will not be able to take the April ACT/ May SAT, will there be any changes made to the scores you take or the application deadline? Mar-17 at 01:18:46 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> emmarobbins	We are aware of SAT cancellations. College Board will provide future additional SAT testing opportunities for students as soon as possible in place of canceled administrations. The June 6, 2020 SAT administration is not yet canceled, and College Board will continue to assess its status with the health and safety of students and educators as the top priority. We will work as admission offices to figure out how we manage standardized testing for future applicants. Once decisions are made- about scores, deadlines, etc- we will be sure to email you (more than once!) to keep you informed. Just keep an eye out for our emails! Mar-17 at 01:23:28 pm

Mar 17, 13:23:46	b -> TulaneSierra	Is there any extra help provided for international students who are applying to medical school in the USA? Moreover, how does Tulane support students for life after university? Mar-17 at 01:19:56 pm
	TulaneSierra -> b	Hi b, We have pre-med advising for all students who plan to pursue medicine (MD), you can learn more about it here https://advising.tulane.edu/pre-health . In general we have career and academic support to help students prep and plan for life beyond Tulane, you will never be alone during that process! Mar-17 at 01:23:46 pm
Mar 17, 13:24:06	Levi -> TulaneAidan	Do you have any internship programs connected with the WWII Museum? Mar-17 at 01:19:59 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Levi	Hi Levi! It seems as though every semester we have students go and intern or work for the WWII museum! The great part about it is the various internship fields you can get through the museum. Be it business, digital media or even theater, the museum has offerings for everyone. Mar-17 at 01:24:06 pm
Mar 17, 13:25:22	Sydney_Protass -> TulaneAngel	Looking at your study abroad portfolio, I noticed there was a program in Barcelona for architecture majors. Would I still be able to study abroad in Barcelona if I wasn't an architecture major? Mar-17 at 01:18:37 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Sydney_Protass	Hi Sydney, It looks like currently only architecture and design offers a study abroad program in Barcelona through Tulane. However, some students choose to use outside study abroad programs and then just transfer their credits to Tulane. So, if you find a program in Barcelona in your major that you want to do, as long as your study abroad advisor gives it the okay, then you are more than welcome to do it! Mar-17 at 01:25:22 pm
Mar 17, 13:25:40	emmarobbinss -> TulaneSamR	Can freshman participate in research for public health or physical therapy? Mar-17 at 01:22:28 pm
	TulaneSamR -> emmarobbinss	I'll be very honest here - it's more common for students to start in research labs/projects once they've completed their first year of classes. Professors find that students can be more successful in research when they have a solid foundation of education in their selected field, which is why they generally ask students to give it a little time before jumping into the deep end. BUT, one of the amazing things about Tulane is that our professors really get to know their students, so don't be afraid to ask during your first year if you have really connected with a particular professor! Mar-17 at 01:25:40 pm
Mar 17, 13:25:44	Wendy -> TulaneCorinne	Hi! I am wondering is there a lot of on-campus job opportunities for students? Mar-17 at 01:20:19 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> Wendy	Wendy, my friend, there sure are lots of opportunities to work on campus! As a student who always held at least one job, I appreciate the variety of options on campus. I worked at our gym, the Reily center, which is definitely one of the largest student employers- lifeguarding, front desk staff, personal training, teaching classes, child care, etc. Our student union, the Lavin-Bernick Center, is another huge employer with jobs like staffing the information desk, event services, supporting student-run clubs and orgs, etc. The same goes for academic departments with more office work. Every semester, there is a work fair to connect students with various potential employers, as well as specific opps for work-study students. I hope this helps! Mar-17 at 01:25:44 pm

Mar 17, 13:25:55	Levi -> TulaneAdmission	Thank you very much, Aidan. Mar-17 at 01:25:22 pm Mar-17 at 01:25:55 pm
Mar 17, 13:27:18	sakuezue -> TulaneJill	What would happen to students on campus in the case of a hurricane or other natural disaster? Mar-17 at 01:24:12 pm
	TulaneJill -> sakuezue	Sakuezue, thank you for your question! Unfortunately, Tulane has a lot of emergency-preparedness experience that helped us swiftly act during this COVID-19 crisis. A lot of the at emergency-preparedness has been learned by dealing with hurricanes. Every student must submit a hurricane plan to the university in the event of an evacuation. This plan can be fly home and be with my family, drive to a state nearby with my roommate, or utilize the Tulane student plan which busses students up to Jackson,MS or Birmingham,AL. Luckily, a hurricane is one of the only natural disasters that you can track and predict so our students and administration have time to plan and evacuate in severe cases. Mar-17 at 01:27:18 pm
Mar 17, 13:28:21	kate_s -> TulaneCorinne	is it common for students to have part-time jobs during the year? Mar-17 at 01:25:37 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> kate_s	Kate, for sure! There are tons of options to work on (or off!) campus, so I think students are able to find what works for them. Employers and coworkers alike are understanding of the many competing priorities, so you are able to focus on academic obligations when they're pressing or pick up additional hours if you have a light week! Mar-17 at 01:28:20 pm
Mar 17, 13:29:00	Suzy -> TulaneAidan	Hi - Is there a study abroad program for biology majors, if so, where? Thank you. Mar-17 at 01:26:09 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Suzy	Hi Suzy, we have a ton of different study abroad programs for Bio majors. I've attached the list right now (it looks like well over 30!): https://studyabroad.tulane.edu/index.cfm ; Mar-17 at 01:28:59 pm
Mar 17, 13:29:32	Wendy -> TulaneAngel	Do you have a pre-dental program? Mar-17 at 01:25:50 pm
	TulaneAngel -> Wendy	Hi Wendy, we have pre-health and within that you can focus in on dentistry. So specifically, no, but can you make it and work with your pre-health advisor to make it happen? yessss! Mar-17 at 01:29:31 pm
Mar 17, 13:30:38	Suzy -> TulaneSierra	Is the "Tulane Scholarship" the same as the "Paul Tulane" award? Mar-17 at 12:38:38 pm
	TulaneSierra -> Suzy	Hi Suzy, the Tulane Scholarship is usually need based grant money, the Paul Tulane Award is labeled as Paul Tulane in your fin aid package. Mar-17 at 01:30:38 pm

Mar 17, 13:30:47	TessK -> TulaneAidan	What resources does Tulane offer freshmen to help them decide on a major? Mar-17 at 01:27:38 pm
	TulaneAidan -> TessK	Hi Tess! Our academic advising department and advisors are great in helping students figure out what may be a great fit for them. Additionally we offer major discovery courses in which students get a chance to try out and find a program that is right for them! Mar-17 at 01:30:47 pm
Mar 17, 13:32:36	Jessica -> TulaneJeff	As admissions counselors, how do you measure demonstrated interest? What can I do now show I would like to attend your institution? Mar-17 at 01:27:04 pm
	TulaneJeff -> Jessica	Jessica, in the current world we are in, I recommend you participate in as many virtual sessions as you are able to as colleges invite you. We look at many different touch points in the application process - in the fall, if you are able to attend any events in your hometown that we offer, I'd recommend it. The most important thing we look at as it pertains to demonstrated interest is your Why Tulane essay. Mar-17 at 01:32:36 pm
Mar 17, 13:33:17	Kristin_K -> TulaneAidan	Do students have good relationships with their professors? At some universities, professors aren't even aware of the names of their students. Is this the case at Tulane? Mar-17 at 01:29:30 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Kristin_K	Hi Kristin! Student at Tulane always have the chance to form great relationships with professors and for the most part do. If you don't show up or introduce yourself, then you probably won't have a great relationship, but almost every student I know of can name 4-5 professors that they are close with. Additionally, with our average class size being only 22, Professors get to know students by more than just their name! Mar-17 at 01:33:17 pm
Mar 17, 13:33:42	L.Hicks -> TulaneSierra	Hi, I was wondering what kinds of Academic Support services were offered? (Specifically for those who might have learnig differnces) Mar-17 at 01:30:18 pm
	TulaneSierra -> L.Hicks	Hi L. Hicks, We have a variety of academic support systems available. Anything from our academic learning and tutoring center. to success coaching. For those who may have learning differences they can work with our Goldman Center for Student Accessibility to receive individualized support! Mar-17 at 01:33:42 pm
Mar 17, 13:36:36	jrmckellar -> TulaneJill	For Spring Scholars, what will happen if the COVID-19 prevents them from studying abroad? Will Tulane provide other opportunities for gaining course credits? Mar-17 at 01:33:14 pm
	TulaneJill -> jrmckellar	Hello! At this point we are monitoring the situation with our abroad partners closely. They are anticipating being open for the Fall, but obviously this could change. We encourage students to still go through the abroad application process at this time. We also encourage students to make back up plans closer to home. Students have always had the option to complete coursework as a visiting student at another college or university. We will work with them to determine transfer credit equivalency. For students that choose this option, they can start reaching out about transferring credit after May 1st. Mar-17 at 01:36:35 pm

Mar 17, 13:37:30	sakuezue1 -> TulaneCorinne	I go to a magnet school so I was wondering if Tulane considers magnet courses as electives or core classes? How many core classes would you like to see students have each semester/trimester? Mar-17 at 01:32:28 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> sakuezue1	I feel like my old finance professor, but I have to say it: "it depends." You can see our blanket policy on curricular requirements here: https://admission.tulane.edu/apply/instructions/requirements ; Mar-17 at 01:37:30 pm
Mar 17, 13:38:52	Kristin_K -> TulaneAidan	What do you admire most about Tulane? Mar-17 at 01:35:44 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Kristin_K	Hi Kristin! I admire Tulane's resilience and work within NOLA! The ability to overcome hardships that the university faced from Katrina and the work its done throughout the amazing city to become a crucial part of the culture is what made me decide that Tulane was the school for me. Mar-17 at 01:38:52 pm
Mar 17, 13:40:19	LilyG -> TulaneCorinne	How strong is the Greek system at Tulane? If I'm not interested in joining a sorority is there still a good social life? Mar-17 at 01:35:29 pm
	TulaneCorinne -> LilyG	Lily, excellent question! I think getting involved in a Greek organization can be a wonderful opportunity if you're interested in it, but it's by no means a requirement to have a social life. About 40% of students go Greek and this is inclusive of our classic social philanthropy-based sororities/fraternities AND also our co-ed pre-professional, honors, multicultural, service, faith-based, and one very exclusive group for our marching band. I would say if you're even thinking about going through the recruitment process, you should give it a try! And if it doesn't work out, know there are a zillion other things you can get involved with finger guns Mar-17 at 01:40:19 pm
Mar 17, 13:40:38	Shah -> TulaneAidan	Hi, I was wondering if I could be involved in a sport at Tulane, basketball specifically, given the fact that I haven't played that sport in my High School. I would want to try new areas in College and currently, exploring Basketball along with many other community service related things is on the top of my mind! Will Tulane offer me the opportunity to be involved in a completely new sport? Mar-17 at 01:38:22 pm
	TulaneAidan -> Shah	HI Shah! College is a time for self discovery and trying new things and Tulane is all for that. I'd recommend trying out intramural basketball as that's our lowest level of competition and then work your way up as you improve. Mar-17 at 01:40:38 pm
Mar 17, 13:43:44	Shah -> TulaneAdmission	That is great to know, Aidan. I am extremely excited and looking forward to it! Thank you so much. Mar-17 at 01:43:11 pm Mar-17 at 01:43:44 pm
Mar 17, 13:44:14	TulaneAidan -> Everyone	Hi Everyone, please submit your final questions at this time; we have about 15 minutes left in the chat! Mar-17 at 01:44:13 pm

Mar 17, 13:48:46	LilyG -> TulaneSierra	I'm a junior and people are saying they might cancel school for the rest of the year. I've already been out for a week. What will happen if I don't have any grades from half of junior year? Mar-17 at 01:45:28 pm
	TulaneSierra -> LilyG	Hi Lily G. We will work with students on a case by case basis to handle how COVID-19 might impact grades. Mar-17 at 01:48:46 pm
Mar 17, 13:49:05	sakuezue1 -> TulaneAngel	Is it possible to double major as well as having a coordinate major? Could you add a minor with this as well? Mar-17 at 01:45:27 pm
	TulaneAngel -> sakuezue1	Sakuezue, whew, that is quite a bit you are trying to do there. We have coordinate for specific programs, not all - but yes you are more than welcome to do as much as you want. Keep in mind though you want to stay balanced in college as well though - so try not to overwork yourself! Mar-17 at 01:49:05 pm
Mar 17, 13:49:21	TulaneJill -> Everyone	Goodbye for now, friends! I know this is a stressful time for all and we are here for you for whatever you need. Please do not hesitate to reach out. My email is jderosas@tulane.edu . Stay healthy and safe! Mar-17 at 01:49:21 pm
Mar 17, 13:49:40	TulaneJeff -> Everyone	Thanks everyone for chatting! As hard as it is to believe right now... this too shall pass. Take it from a school and city who thought they would never recover from Katrina. We made it through that and the world, and you, will make it through this. Keep your head up, stay strong and know that we'll get through this craziness together Mar-17 at 01:49:40 pm
Mar 17, 13:50:05	TulaneAidan -> Everyone	Hi Leo! Intramural Sports are our least competitive sports and mainly used as a great way to try a new sport of make some new friends. I always recommend to my students to try out at least 2 just to see if its something they'd like! Mar-17 at 01:50:05 pm
