You’ve been admitted to Tulane for the Spring – What’s next? In order to stay on track to graduate from the School of Architecture, Tulane University is offering a study abroad opportunity in Barcelona, Spain. This program is designed specifically for Architecture students to begin cultivating the theoretical and practical applications of the field.

UNIVERSITAT INTERNACIONAL DE CATALUNYA - BARCELONA, SPAIN
Located in the capital of Catalonia, UIC provides an international, multicultural university atmosphere in one of the world’s leading cities in innovation, business, culture, art and design. Home to only a few thousand students, UIC Barcelona provides an individualized educational experience within a vibrant, cosmopolitan scene.

UIC CURRICULUM
Students will take four courses and earn 15 transferable credits. The coursework will combine introductory Architecture courses and core curriculum courses in Mathematics and Language. The following is a breakdown of the courses offered by UIC Barcelona and their transferable credits to Tulane University:

LEARN MORE ABOUT SPRING SCHOLARS!
Spring Scholars and their families may learn more about UIC at the Spring Scholar Destination Tulane event on Thursday, March 12, 2020. Although a representative from UIC will not be present at the event, there will be additional pamphlets and brochures as well as informational videos about student life on campus. Students can register for the event in their Green Wave Portal. Find more information online at admission.tulane.edu/spring-scholars/opportunities.

For general inquiries, contact Tulane’s Architecture Admission Counselor, Bailey Gabrish, at bgabrish@tulane.edu. For UIC-specific inquiries, contact the UIC School of Architecture Undergraduate Admissions contact, Caterina Reig Ibañez, at creig@uic.es.

*Note: Students must be 18 by September 1, 2020 in order to attend UIC.
