PAUL TULANE AWARD

APPLICATION PREPARATION

For us to learn more about you, your ambition, and your creativity, please answer two of the following questions (250 to 500 words each).

1.  Check this box if you are a good person.

On a college application, what are some questions that would help the readers determine if the applicant is a “good person”? How should admission committees define a “good person”?

2. “The Lost Generation,” “Baby Boomers,” and “Generation X” are well known Western monikers used to describe recent generations. You are part of Generation Z (also known as “The Founders,” “The Homeland Generation,” and “Post-Millennials”). Rename your generation and explain why you chose this term.

3. “Safe spaces” on college campuses have garnered a lot of attention and differing opinions in recent years. Do you think they should become a common entity found at institutions of higher education? Why or why not?

4. The idea to colonize Mars has become a reality, and you are in charge of selecting and leading a group of citizens of the first colony. What is the first infrastructure project your group undertakes, and how do you structure the society during this establishment phase?

5. What social ideal do you hold today that may be considered “backwards” or socially unacceptable in the future?

Please note: We provide this document so that you may prepare your application in advance.

Once available, the Paul Tulane Award Application may only be submitted online via your Green Wave Portal at apply.tulane.edu
